

icans send an Expedition against the Indian Settlements.....	264
---	-----

CHAP. XIV.

Sir Henry Clinton, with a large Body of Troops sails from New York, and arrives, after much Difficulty. in South Carolina. Charlestown Capitulates to the British Forces. Memoir of Captain Grattan, of the 64th Regiment. Sir Henry Clinton returns to New York. Lord Cornwallis takes the Command of the Royal Forces in the Southern Provinces. Battle near Camden. Major Ferguson defeated.....	293
--	-----

CHAP. XV.

Northern Campaign. Incurston into the Jersey's. French Fleet, under Fernay, arrives at Rhode-Island. Blocked up by Admiral Arbuthnot. Sir Henry Clinton returns from Charles'own. General Arnold's defection. Major Andre's capture. His Trial. Letters between Sir Henry Clinton and General Washington. Interview between Colonel Robinson and General Greene. Major Andre's Letters to Washington, General Clinton, &amp;c. Major Andre's Death. His Character. Epitaph, &amp;c.....	311
--	-----

CHAP. XVI.

Southern Campaign under Lord Cornwallis. General Greene succeeds Gates in the Command of the American Southern Army. Colonel Tarleton defeated at Cowpens. Lord Cornwallis crosses the Catawba. The Author's Narrative of that Transaction. Colonel Webster joins Lord Cornwallis. They pursue General Morgan. Junction of the American Armies. General Greene driven out
--	--