

2.—The addition of any surplus from the Revenue account.

3.—The addition of special subscriptions, donations, and legacies.

C.—The Revenue account shall consist of the annual grant of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, of the proceeds of sermons, and of annual subscriptions for missionary purposes, to be paid over to the Treasurer of the said Diocesan Board by the Treasurer of the Society, of the contributions obtained from Parishes or Missions as hereinafter provided for, and of grants to be made from time to time by the Central Board of the Church Society; and shall be augmented by incorporating with it the fund already commenced as the Clergy Stipend Fund. It shall be available for the general purposes of the Diocesan Board, among which prominence shall be given to the object of raising the stipends of all the Clergy of the Diocese to a minimum of £150 currency per annum.

D.—The Diocesan Board shall be composed of the Lord Bishop of the Diocese as President; the Treasurer of the Church Society; the Secretary of the Church Society, who shall also fill the same office at the Board, if so required by the Board; of the Clerical Secretary of the Synod; of the Treasurer of the Synod, who shall also fill the same office at the Board; and of six clergymen and of six laymen; one half of whom, in each order, shall be elected by the Church Society, and the other half by the Synod of the Diocese, the members of the Board to hold office for a period of three years, and until their successors be respectively chosen, and to be all members of the Church Society. Any vacancies arising from death, resignation, or removal from the Diocese, shall be provisionally filled up by the Lord Bishop, and the persons so appointed shall continue in office till the next meeting of the Diocesan Synod, or of the Church Society, when the vacancies aforementioned shall be respectively supplied. Seven members of the Board shall form a quorum for the transaction of business. The Board shall have authority to make rules and regulations for the management of their affairs, provided that none of them be contrary to, or inconsistent with, the By-Laws of the
