Heavyweight Champions Meet Tonight in Arena

to 5 Old Rosebud Favorite Today's Derby

AN EVEN DOZEN BOUTS DECIDED

and Buffalo Boxers Are in the Finals Tonight.

An even dozen more bouts were decided on semi-final night of the Canadian boxing championships in the Arena, bringing it up to the finals tonigat for the cups. The main attraction of the various finals will be the battle between Bill Hanna of the Riversides, light heavyweight champion of America, and Bill Smith of Buffalo, heavyweight champion of Canada. Mose and Arnell of Hamilton, Krivanec of Ottawa, Carlaw of Buffalo, and Marshall (158 lbs.) are the outsiders left in the finals.

105 lbs.—O'Nell and Williams, both of the Riversides, were the first pair on the program and after a very tame two minutes' sparring O'Nell quit. Jake Alberts went after Weinstein at the drop of the hat and was doing fine until he got a right in the jaw that put him to the mat. After a minute's rest he came back strong, and in a mix-up in the centre of the ring Weinstein landed another right swing on the jaw, and it was all over.

115 lbs.—Brown of the Riversides and Carlaw of Buffalo put up a great bout. Brown find a slight margin in the first two rounds, but in the last session Carlaw mixed it, fiercely, and altho Brown fought back gamely the Buffalo boy was too strong, and got the decision.

Joe Frankel and W. Frankel, Newsboys, went at it hammer and tongs for about a minute, when Joe caught Bill with a right that broke his nose and it was all over.

Krivanec of Ottawa was the aggressor all the way in his bout with Nicholls of Shamprock A.C. and had his man backing up thruout the whole three rounds. The Ottawa boy is a fair two-handed boxer and easily won.

125 lbs.—Smith of the Young Ireland A.C. and S. Tootel of the Shamprocks wut

ARGOS REAPPOINT BINKLEY MANAGER

Hamilton, Ottawa, Montreal Senior Team to Start Early-Out to Beat Tigers The New Officers.

> The postponed annual meeting of the Argonaut Rugby Club was held last night at the clubhouse, and a large and very present. Enthusiasm reigned supreme and the double blue expect to be back stronger than ever and with a good chance to win the Big Four championship. Tigers were considered the team to beat and the early practises, which will commence in September, will be used to develop the team along the same lines as the Hamilton team used so well last year. Ross Binkley was reappointed manager of the seniors, and the question of appointing coaches and a manager for the second team was left over for the incoming executive to consider. The captains will be appointed by the players at the beginning of next season. The following officers were elected:

125 hs.—Smith of the Young Ireland A.C. and 8. Tootel of the Shamrocks put up a great slugging match for a round and a haif. Smith was the best slugger and stopped his man in the second.

The bout between Caird Riversides, and Altar of Hamilton was easily Caird's bout. Altar swing wildly thruout, while Caird is sed both hands—effectively.

Ward of the Britannia Club. Ottawa, bad no chance with Wille Hitchin, the Canaddan champion, and after a minute's boxing in the second round decided he had enough and retired.

135 hs.—T. Tootel, Riversides, made quick work of Watson of St. Catharines. Watson took a minute's rest after wo minute's boxing, and was put down for keeps with a right on the jaw before the round was ever.

Marsh, Riversides, didn't have a chance with his club mate, Blackledge, and after a minute's boxing a right to the jaw put an end to his misery 145 hs.—The Johnston, Riversida, and Riley, West End, bout was another short one. Riley was not in Johnston's class and a couple of rights to the jaw put the nound was over.

Heavyweight—The fasis looked on the bout between Marshall foread the natter.

Heavyweight—The fasis looked on the bout between Marshall of Montreal and Hanna of the Riversides as a cinch for the Toronto man, but they were agreeably surprised when Marshall foread the fightling and gave Hanna one of the bout between Marshall foread the fightling and gave Hanna one of the bousiest three-round sessions he has ever had in Toronto. Marshall was on top of Hanna all the time, but his blows were of the wild swinging variety, while

There's a cleverness about those London tailors which every man, up to now, has not given them credit for having, and the cleverness figures largely in making every line and curve in the cutting—shaping—fashioning—and tailoring of these splendid garments count for smartness—dressiness—good style—individuality and character.

These points are very apparent in the splendid stock of London tailored top coats displayed in our men's department today.

In the conservative lines of the dignified Chesterfield. In the swagger styles in the popular Balmacaan and the Connemara designs.

Geore's Clothes Made to your measure

Don't Wear Ordinary Clothes

I A mere tailor can build a suit that will wear, and by using patterns designed to fit the average, stout, slim, or heavy man, and by the use of padding, secure a "commercial fit."

9 But the suit will not have the character. It will lack the style, the grace, the dignity of a suit cut and designed as Score Suits are so cut and designed.

That is one reason why hundreds of men willingly pay $35.00 to $50.00 for a Score Suit. Yet you can have a stylish, perfectly fitting, handsomely tailored. Score suit—as low as $25.00. It is optional whether you pay us $25.00 or go up to $50.00. Even at the lower price the Score standard is always paramount.

¶ These Score Suits at $25.00 have a swing, a style, and a grace about them that cannot fail to persuade you fellows with the fact that Score is your tailor.
