HALF OF BELGIUM IS NOW DESTROYED

Every Blow Will Injure Other Half, Says Dr. Sarolea.

EXPRESS SYMPATHY

Sir William Mulock Suggested Message and Audience Applauded.

"Le Brabantisme" was played as Prof. Charles Sarolea followed Sir William Mulock on the platform of Massey Hall last night. Sir William as chairman spoke of the 100,000 Canadians who had gone or were going to overthrow the despots of Prussia. But while we defeated our enemies we had also to help our friends, and there was no nobler object of compassion than Belgium.

Prof. Sarolea represented a government of sympathy from the audience might be sent to his majesty, and the idea was turning to applause.

Turning to the subject Prof. Sarolea suggested that Germany was admittedly a civilized nation, over-civilized. The only explanation that accounted for the conduct of the German people, who did not differ greatly from other people, was collective mania. The condition of the French nation in 1793 was paralleled in that of the Germans. They had been endowed with all the fair gifts, but with the one evil one. He was convinced that the German people would never be a world-power again. (Applause.) The Germans were also suffering from a collective religious insanity. No one could say what they would do next. Even Lloyd George, he believed, first believed that the Germans would refuse to fight the Belgian people.

Impossible to See End.

If he were speaking of a sane nation he would think that the war might end in November or in January. But as it once took six policemen to remove a dead body from the streets, it was impossible to say how long it would take to turn the insane Germans out of Belgium.

German religion took on a new form, Judaism; the belief in a chosen people, another element from Hinduism, the belief in a military caste, the Junkers, by whom alone the nation could be saved; another element from Islam, there was one God and William was his prophet, and his faith must be propagated by the sword; and still another from Teutonic paganism.

The war had been a war of books and professors. The ordinary man had no rights, only the superman had rights, and with this idea went that of the super-state, Prussia. The old creed had disappeared in Germany. Very little of the old Christianity had been left in the last thirty years, and the new creed spread rapidly. Lutheran Protestantism was essentially a religion of the people, and it accounted for its degeneration by this fact.

One-Half Destroyed.

Turning to the devastation of Belgium Prof. Sarolea dropped an interesting remark. Half of Belgium had already been destroyed. The other half would be destroyed in the next few months. The tragic part of it was that the Belgian people and their allies would be the agents of that destruction. Every success now would be an additional wound and a greater source of their own suffering.

A number of views were shown by Prof. Sarolea after a collection had been taken for the Belgian relief funds, and he related many personal experiences and illustrated the atrocities committed by the Germans.

WILL PROBE HORSE DEALS TO FINISH

Scene in Public Accounts Committee Over Statement by Carvell.

OTTAWA, April 12.—The investigation of the purchase of military horses all over Canada was demanded by Mr. Carvell at this morning's sitting of the public accounts committee. When Dr. Reid had presented a motion to enquire into all the horse purchases in New Brunswick, Mr. Carvell declared that New Brunswick was mentioned out of a "dirty insinuation." This caused an uproar, and on his refusing to withdraw his words on the department of the military, Mr. Carvell said: "I would not expect you to, because you are a coward and hide yourself behind your parliamentary privileges. Your statement is absolutely false."

Dr. Reid said that the horse deals would be prosecuted to the bitter end by the government. Scotland, but everywhere. It would be done at once. Dr. Reid withdrew his original motion, striking out the reference to New Brunswick, but Mr. Carvell was not satisfied and wanted the words "Quebec and Ontario" inserted. His amendment to this effect was defeated by a vote of 15 to 5.

Doctor Said Only Hope Was in an Operation

Was Skeptical When He Began the Use of Dr. Chase's Ointment—Relief Came Quickly.

Here is a plain, honest statement in regard to Dr. Chase's Ointment. Between the lines of this letter you will read the gratitude which its writer feels. One does not suffer from annoying, disease piles for ten years without appreciating a cure when it is obtained.

Almost every mail brings the report of someone who has been cured of piles by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Such statements are never used without the permission of the writer, and until we are satisfied that the cure is genuine and to write a person of responsibility.

You may believe in operations for piles, and think there is no other cure. Write to Mr. Ingles, enclosing stamp, and he will gladly verify his statement. He will tell you that the pain, the expense, the risk of an operation are quite unnecessary, that relief and cure come with the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. Ernest W. Ingles, Pentecost, B. C. writes: "I suffered from piles for ten years, and though I tried all kinds of ointments and injections, I really had no permanent relief until I used Dr. Chase's Ointment. From that time I had absolutely no faith in it, for I had been examined by a well-known physician in Vancouver, and he said that an operation was the only thing that would benefit me. It was surprising the relief I obtained after using four boxes, I am practically cured. My case was so exceptionally bad that I received no relief day or night, and for this reason the results are wonderful. For this reason the ointment can be obtained from any dealer at 60 cents a box. If you do not want to risk this much, send a two-cent stamp to pay postage, and mention this paper, and we will send you a sample box free. We are so certain that any sufferer from piles will obtain relief by using this ointment, that we do not hesitate to make you this offer. Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Citizens May Oppose Five Per Cent. Grade at the Yonge Street Subway.

Work Has Been Started on Foundations for New Station.

The action of the board of control on Saturday in granting, at the request of H. H. Williams, to offer no further opposition to the C.P.R.'s demand for a five per cent. grade at the southern end of the C.P.R. subway on Yonge street north, may, it is now said, re-open up the whole matter.

When the Dominion Railway Board held their last session of a fortnight ago the city the board of control were practically unanimous in their decision to adhere to the original agreement between the parties concerned, the C.P.R., the Dominion Railway Board and the city, that the approach from Prince street northward be a 2 1/2 per cent. grade.

It was urged by H. H. Williams at that meeting that the increased cost of a 5 1/2 per cent. grade would approximate about $250,000, but Mr. Forman, assessment commissioner, stated the cost at between $75,000 and $100,000.

Further Action Likely.

The Central Citizens' Association, composed of business men vitally interested in the better approach, as well as the general public, assumes that the board's action of the board of control is not a final one, and that further action is now considered probable.

Corporation Counsel Geary, who was warmly in favor of the government to prosecute parties for a better Yonge street, however, a few days ago expressed regret that the subway under the bridge on Yonge street had been laid in 18 feet.

"I have always thought that it was a mistake to deepen the subway to that extent, greatly increasing the cost, when the lesser depth would have served every purpose just as well," said the corporation counsel.

William Britnell, head of the big firm of the two-year-old carriage horse of R. L. Robertson of Woodbridge, which carried off the honors last year, again gained first, that of John Devins running.

Mr. Robertson's horse has a record of four firsts, and at Woodbridge last year he carried off the honors at the Toronto show.

NEW LIGHT THROWN ON MIMICO CASE

Vegetable Pedlar Was Talking to D. P. Heaney in December.

Provincial Inspector Miller and the county police are making a thorough investigation into the death of Daniel P. Heaney, whose body was found on Mimico beach last Thursday, and recent developments tend to deepen the suspicion that the man was murdered.

Yesterday morning a city vegetable pedlar told Mr. Newton of the Hummer's Bay Hotel that he had been talking to Heaney a few days before Christmas. He met him in the Falconer Hotel and they had a drink together.

As this proves that Heaney was alive until late in December, when the lake was frozen over, he could not have been drowned in the body buried in sand by the action of the water.

The county police have a quantity of sand found round the dead man's feet, which was stained. This sand is being analyzed.

It is reported that County Crown Attorney Greer will investigate the case for the crown when the inquest is resumed tomorrow.

Going to the Dogs.

"The lower portion of Russell Hill road is going to the dogs," was the complaint of another member resident of the street.

From 15 to 20 dogs run around loose at all hours, and do much damage by uprooting shrubs and plants on the lawns.

Professor A. P. Coleman, M.A., F.R.S., University of Toronto, delivered an interesting address on his recent trip around the world, the lecture being illustrated by interesting lantern slides from views taken by himself.

K. J. Dunstan occupied the chair.

THORNHILL DAM CASE RESURRECTED

Sluices Have Been Closed to Form the Artificial Lake.

About two years ago a couple of Toronto men, Messrs. Fisebrough and Jackson, at a cost of about $5000, completed the building of a concrete dam over the stream in the valley at Thornhill with the idea of conserving the waters and the creation of a small lake at that point. Prior to the completion of the work George H. Watson, K.C., who lives at Thornhill, and is the owner of the first farm lower down the stream, entered an injunction against the further prosecution of the work, claiming that his property would be prejudicially affected by the retention and diversion of the waters.

In this he was not successful, and while the promoters of the scheme went ahead and finished the job they were never allowed to make any use of the property, and the investment has so far proved unremunerative. Within the last week the sluice gates have been closed, with the result that the water is now running over the top of the dam. It is understood that Mr. Watson has instituted legal proceedings against the gentlemen interested in the scheme, and the case comes up on Monday at Osgoode Hall.
