HIGHEST IDEALS FOR GIBLS AND

YOUNG WOMEN.

The education of girls and young women who will be ideals of Christian womanhood is the aim of this institution. The "Atmosphere" of the whole school life is created to this end. Its educational facilities have reached nation-wide fame, the teaching staff includ-ing seven University graduates. Instruction in academic subjects, music and household science is up to a standard seldom attained by girls' schools.

SAN FRANCISCO EXPOSITION CLOSED SATURDAY WITH TOAST BY PRES WILSON.

Panama Celebration Has Done Much to Bring United States and Canada to Better Understanding. Says Vice-President Dalrymple of Grand Trunk.

The Panama Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco closed its gates Saturday night. A toast prepared by President Woodrow Wilson was proposed on the exposition grounds typifying the world service for which the exposition has stood sponsor during the past year and expressnationalism. Nations and organizations which had participated in the exposition were requested to join in the toast at nocn, San Francisco time. Among the ceremonies of the closing day was the reading of messages received from various parts of globe. In response to a request from Charles C. Moore, president of the exposition, for an expression of opinion on what the exposition accomplished, Mr. J. E. Dalrymple, traffic vice-president, Grand Trunk System, sent the following message:

"The great exposition-and it was truly great-gave to the nations of the world an opportunity to join the people of the United States in acclaiming the grand results accomplished for universal commerce by the completion and opening of the Panama Canal. A better understanding of what the world is, of how its people live, has come to the tens of thousands of visitors who have daily thronged the avenues of the ex-position. Canada and the United States, sister nations, enjoying most wonderful heritage of the ages, know each other better as the result of this meeting by the Golden Gate.
