

The Canadian Farmer.

A WEEKLY PAPER, ESTABLISHED 1878.

PUBLISHED IN WELLAND,

ONT., BY THE

WELLAND PRINTING & PUBLISHING CO.

THE CANADIAN FARMER is the only farm journal in the Dominion issued every week, and no words can speak stronger for its usefulness than to say, that although only started in 1878 it now has a circulation of nearly 10,000 COPIES.

It is illustrated in all its Departments,

Which comprise the Farm, Agriculture, Horticulture, the Orenard, the Dairy, the Forest, Apary, Poultry, Ladies, Household, and special attention to the Young Folks' columns. In fact it contains everything pertaining to Farmers and their Homes.

It is the Acknowledged Organ of the Bee-Keepers' Association, of Ontario.

ITS RELIABLE CROP REPORTS are invaluable, and the latest Home and Foreign Markets each week enable the producer to watch the prices paid by the consumer both at home and abroad.
