

Proposed Course for the Degree of Bachelor of Theology, in Toronto Baptist College as a Department of McMaster University.

FIRST YEAR.

GREEK.—Demosthenes, Phil. I, II; Herodotus, Bk. VI (or Sections); Plato, Apology of Socrates; Greek Grammar; Sldgwick's Greek Prose Composition; Greek Literature.

LATIN.—Cicero, Tusculan Disputations, I; Livy, Book II (or XI); Selections from Latin Fathers, Latin Hymns; Latin Grammar; Latin Prose, Bradley Completed; Roman Antiquities.

ENGLISH.—One of Tennyson's idylls of the King; Wordsworth's Ode On Intimations of Immortality, six of the Sonnets of Liberty, Ode to Duty; Selections from Burns, Cowper, Southey, Campbell, as contained in Palgrave's Golden Treasury; Specimens of Modern Hymns; Matthew Arnold's Literary Influence of Academies; Macaulay or DeQuincey's "Concession"; Lamb, selections from Essays of Elia; Rhetoric; "Compass"; Lamb, selections from Essays of Elia; Rhetoric; Morris, position exercises every week; Historical Grammar, Morris, chaps. I-X; History of English Literature, the Modern Period.

HEBREW.—A study, by the inductive method, of Gen. I-IV, with the grammatical forms and grammatical principles involved; the vocabulary of these chapters; the Hebrew vowel system; the scientific treatment of the strong verb and the treatment of the weak verbs in their relation to the strong; Exercises in turning Hebrew into English and English into Hebrew, in reading and pointing the unpointed text, and in conversation in Hebrew from the vocabulary of these four chapters.

MATHEMATICS.—Algebra; Equations, Proportion, Progressions, Permutations, Combinations. Binomial Theorem, Undetermined Coefficients (Wells). Geometry; Plane and Solid (Wentworth). Trigonometry; Plane Trigonometry (Cherriman and Baker); Field work in Triangulation.

BIOLOGY.—Elements of Animal and Vegetable Histology, and Human Anatomy and Physiology.

ENGLISH BIBLE.—The Study of the New Testament.

SECOND YEAR.

GREEK.—The Septuagint (25 pages); Selections from the Greek Fathers (25 pages); the four Gospels; the Epistles of Peter, Jude, James and John, and the Apocalypse.

HISTORY.—The beginnings of History (Lenormant); Ancient History of the East (Lenormant and Chevallier); Preparation for Christianity in the religious, philosophical, literary and political events of the preceding time.

ENGLISH.—Selections from Shelley, Byron, and Keats, as contained in Palgrave's Golden Treasury; Milton, "Lycidas" and Sonnets; Shakespeare, Julius Caesar, Twelfth Night, and Merchant of Venice; Specimen Hymns of this period; Burke, one Speech; Johnson, Life of Pope (edited by Arnold); Addison, Select Essays; Rhetoric; Composition Exercises every week; Historical Grammar, Morris, chaps. XI-XV; History of English Literature, the Period of Settlement.

HEBREW.—Inductive method continued through Gen. V-VIII, with particular attention to noun formation and noun inflection; the accents; Ex. I-IV; Josh. I-VI; Ruth, entire; I & II. Sam. I, II, IV, V; Esther, entire; Hebrew Composition.

PHYSICS.—Statics and Dynamics of a Particle (Cherriman and Baker); General Properties of Matter, Hydrostatics, Hydrodynamics, Pneumatics; Acoustics, Heat, Optics, Electricity (Peck's Ganot, new edition), Laboratory work.

MINERALOGY AND GEOLOGY.—Blowpipe Analysis of Minerals; Physical Geography; Geology.

MENTAL SCIENCE.—Mental Physiology (Carpenter); Psychology (Sully and Hill).

HOMILETICS.—Introductory work.

Present Courses of Study, Toronto Baptist College.

I. COURSE FOR UNIVERSITY GRADUATES.

FIRST YEAR.	Hebrew Language, 3 hours. New Testament Greek, 3 hours. Historical Theology, 3 hours. Relation of Science and Religion, 2 hours. Christian Ethics and Didactics, 2 hours. Old Testament Interpretation in English, 3 hours. Homiletics, 1 hour.
	Hebrew Language, 3 hours. New Testament Greek, 3 hours. Historical Theology, 3 hours. Systematic Theology, 3 hours. New Testament Interpretation in English, 2 hours. Homiletics, 1 hour.
SECOND YEAR.	Hebrew and Aramaic, 3 hours. Systematic Theology, 3 hours. Homiletics, 3 hours. Apologetics, 3 hours. Pastoral Theology and Church Polity, 2 hours.
	Hebrew and Aramaic, 3 hours. Systematic Theology, 3 hours. Homiletics, 3 hours. Apologetics, 3 hours. Pastoral Theology and Church Polity, 2 hours.

II. COURSE FOR NON-GRADUATES WITH HEBREW AND GREEK.

FIRST YEAR.	Historical Theology, 3 hours. Mental Science, 4 hours. Rhetoric and Oratory, 3 hours. Christian Ethics and Didactics, 2 hours.
	Hebrew Language, 3 hours. New Testament Greek, 3 hours. Historical Theology, 3 hours. New Testament Interpretation in English, 3 hours. Homiletics, 1 hour.
SECOND YEAR.	Hebrew Language, 3 hours. New Testament Greek, 3 hours. Systematic Theology, 3 hours. Relation of Science and Religion, 3 hours. Old Testament Interpretation in English, 3 hours. Homiletics, 1 hour.
	Hebrew and Aramaic, 3 hours. Systematic Theology, 3 hours. Moral ethics, 3 hours. Apologetics, 3 hours. Pastoral Theology and Church Polity, 2 hours.
THIRD YEAR.	Hebrew and Aramaic, 3 hours. Systematic Theology, 3 hours. Moral ethics, 3 hours. Apologetics, 3 hours. Pastoral Theology and Church Polity, 2 hours.
	Hebrew and Aramaic, 3 hours. Systematic Theology, 3 hours. Moral ethics, 3 hours. Apologetics, 3 hours. Pastoral Theology and Church Polity, 2 hours.

III. COURSE FOR NON-GRADUATES WITHOUT HEBREW OR GREEK.

FIRST YEAR.	Historical Theology, 3 hours. Mental Science, 4 hours. Christian Ethics and Didactics, 2 hours. Rhetoric and Oratory, 3 hours.
	Historical Theology, 3 hours. Systematic Theology, 3 hours. Old Testament Interpretation in English, 3 hours. Relation of Science and Religion, 2 hours. Homiletics, 2 hours.
SECOND YEAR.	Systematic Theology, 3 hours. Homiletics, 3 hours. Pastoral Theology and Church Polity, 2 hours. Apologetics, 3 hours. English Literature, 2 hours. New Testament Interpretation in English, 3 hours.
	Systematic Theology, 3 hours. Homiletics, 3 hours. Pastoral Theology and Church Polity, 2 hours. Apologetics, 3 hours. English Literature, 2 hours. New Testament Interpretation in English, 3 hours.