The Maiden of the Smile,

In that fair land where slope and plain Shine back to sun and sky,
And olives shield the sprouting grain
When wintry arrows fly, Where snow-fed streams seek sun-warme vale,
Thru vineyard scarped defile,
The world we enter with a wail,
She greeted with a smile.

Slumbering, she smiled, and smiling woke, And, when she felt the smart Of grave, sad life, smiles still bespoke Her tenderness of heart. And nightly when she knelt and prayed Beside her snow-white bed, Her face was one pure smile that made
A heaven about her head.

When love first trembled in her ear
The heart-throbs that beguile,
She listened with assenting tear, Then chased it with a smile Then chased it with a smile.

Sorrow and pain with smiles she bore

Unto her latest breath;

But the sweetest smile she ever wore

Was the smile she wore in death.
