McAtee had to drive Terentia hard in an effort to keep her place on the rail, but it was of no avail against Hannibal. Going around the bend, Terentia was joined by Yourucari, and this pair had a pretty race to themselves, but were unable to close on the smoothly-moving Hannibal. Ensor took no chances with the leader and kept his mount going full tilt. After turning into the home stretch. McAtee swung his whip at Terentia, and the plucky filly drew away from Yourucarl. In the last sixteenth Hannibal increased his advantage, so that he was five lengths in front at the finish. The game was replete with exceptionally good playing, and local fans declare it to be the best exhibition of the national pastime which has been witnessed here in many years. About ten days ago the Chatham nine met the W. O. R. valiants in London and came home with the short end of the tally. The game here was a well-earned victory, and the W. O. R. men have no reason whatever to feel ashamed of the defeat.

Hagel, for the visitors, pitched an ex-Hagel, for the visitors, pitched an excellent game, while McCoig, for the locals, was right up to himself. STRATFORD TOSSERS MAKE THIRTEEN MUFFS, LOSING TO WOODSTOCK

STRATFORD, Aug. 10.—Thirteen errors tells the story of why Woodstock trimmed Stratford at baseball here this afternoon. The score was 11 to 8.

The game was ragged and Woodstock started right in from the start to pile up the score. Stratford had a good fourth inning and by scoring six runs almost caught the visitors. However, Stratford was not able to hold them and they steadily pulled away. At the rate the manly art of self-defence is deteriorating our own little Tony Zoccano will probably be halled as a world's champion one of these days.
