Leafs Win Game in the Tenth Brown's Single Did the Trick

Between McGinley and Hughes -Buffalo, Montreal and Rochester Win.

There is no use, Georgie Stallings, you can't stop the Leafs, and altho Big Chief's hired help made the locals go beyond the allotted period yesterday, a battle between McGinley and Hughes, who was sent in to retrieve his honors exhibition seen here this season, both twirlers being in rare form. They had the same number of strike-outs to their credit—six in all, and while McGinley perfect support up to the tenth, when the visitors slipped up twice, and this won the game for Toronto. The batting of Wiedy, Frick and Brown, the fielding of McGinley and the pegging to bases of Krichell were the features. By the way, Krichell was forced to leave for New York in the eighth inn-failed to get on. However, in the sec-ond the Leafs took kindly to Hughes' offerings, Cockman, Frick and Brown singling, but they were all wasted. Cockman was nailed stealing, and, as Wiedy had failed to get on, proved the second out, McGinley retiring the side by flying to centre.

in the fourth, making things decidedly in the fourth, making things decidedly interesting. Engle and Sharpe failed to get on, but Baerwald singled, going to third on Mahling's single. With Kricheli at the bat, Brown pegged to third to catch Baerwald, the ball hitting Baerwald, but Cockman recovered in time to throw Baerwald out at the plate on

In the sixth Devore singled, going to third on McIlveen's and Engle's infield outs, but there he froze, as Cockman ired the side on a spectacular catch of Sharpe's foul. In the seventh Baerwald got away with a lucky infield hit, was sacrificed to second, while Krichell's infield out sent him to a nook from home. Hughes with three and nothing on him, finally succumbed to McGinley's shoots, much long Tom's disgust, and here ended Wiedy singled in the fourth, but was nailed stealing, while in the fifth Frick singled, Brown sacrificed, but McGinley fanned and Gettman filed to centre. It was come as you go for the Leafs It was come as you go for the Leafs in the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth.

In the tenth Wiedy led off with a single, while Cockman sacrificed. Frick In the tenth Wiedy led off with a single, while Cockman sacrificed. Frick fied over short, Devore dropping the sphere. With two men on bases, Brown rapped the first ball pitched to right field for a clean single, altho Baerwald made a great effort to get it. This held Wiedy waiting, and when he came on he was nailed at the plate. Stanage threw wild to catch Frick at third, Jimmy coming right on and beating Jimmy coming right on and beating the throw to the plate, thus scoring the winning and only run of the game. Stanage was spiked by Wiedensaul when he slid into the plate, and may be out of the game for a few days. Score:

Cornwall Will Try Out New Blood.
CORNWALL, May 22.—(Special.)—The Cornwall Lacrosse Club are lucky to have three exhibition games before the opening of the N. L. U. series, in which they try out their recruits. They play in Ottawa to-morrow, will meet Montreal here on Monday, and will go up against the Nationals in Montreal on May 30. Cornwall will take 16 or 17 men to Ottawa to-morrow, including Burns, Cameron, White, McAteer, Fred Degan, Chas. Degan, Bob Degan and Thompson of the old team. It is not certain if Reddy McMillan and Francis Cummins will go or not, and there is a possibility of Newsy Lalonde arriving home in time to figure in the game. Garfield, Conroy, Ted Kennedy, Dalton, Phalen, Fred Sugden and two or three other juniors will be given a show to win their spurs.

Hamilton Wins Opening Game. HAMILTON, May 22.-In a ninth inning rally, Hamilton defeated the Ni-agara Falls Yankees here to-day in agara Falls Yankees here to-day in the opening International League game by 4—3. The Yankees outbatted Hamilton, getting three runs in the first innings, but the students bunched their few hits and aided by a charity drove in two winning runs in the ninth. After Gleason had been diven out of the box Muir took up the twirling and pitched an excellent game. Both teams played fast ball and the game was very exciting all the way. Six Events on Card for Opening Day-Betting By Move-About System-Officials for the Meet-

ning of the King's Plate race takes place the Minto Stakes and Athol Steeplechase

When J. Dyment's Courtown II went wrong two weeks ago the Guineas looked since then by the candidates from the Valley Farm and Woodstock Stables valley Farm and Woodstock Stables make it look like a good contest, and besides these three owners who are called to get in the money, there are at least three other little stables whose province-breds are counted to be right there at the finish. The King's Plate is the fifth race and timed to start at 4.30, the first being at 2.30 p.m.

Everything is spick and span at Woodbine Park. The level lawns are clad in verdure green and the stables and fences are new with paint.

The Governor-General's party are here for the races and the attendance to-day will be as distinguished as it is large.

The officials are: Stewards, F. A. Daingerfield, Wm. Hendrie, Colin Campbell, C. J. Fitzgerald, Bartlett McLennan and directors of the Ontario Jockey Club, judges, J. J. Burke and Francis Nelson; associate judge, Dr. D. King Smith; starter, A. B. Dade; handicappers, A. L. Hassard Short and F. W. Gerhardy; timers, Charles Boyle, Frederick Doane and R. W. Davies; paddock and patrol judge, A. A. Gates.

The betting is on the move-about system, and is this time, according to the results of the several appeals, perfectly legal. The lucky winners will be paid off also on the move. About 40 bockmakers, under the direction of John G. Cavanagh, are expected to weigh in.
