Old Budweiser Racing On Jockey Club Tracks

The aged gelding, Budweiser, concerning whose identity an enquiry was made last summer, with the result that his further entry was refused on the Canadian circuit, is racing on the Maryland tracks under New York Jockey Club rules.

Nothing, apparently, of a conclusive nature developed during the Canadian enquiry, and the evidence that the horse was not Budweiser was not sufficient to upset his identification by men who formerly owned and trained him, and who had no doubt he was the same horse. It is said that the principal witness, G. W. Scott, was as positive in one statement identifying the horse as he was in another which cast doubt on old Bud. At any rate, it is clear that

Racing in France Shows Great Strength

The French turf paper, "Le Jockey," Paris, of October 3 publishes terms of stallions in service for 1918, which serves to show the value of high-class war-horses of the track in still fully recognized. The premiums France Palestine and Sundridge are at private terms, but J. D. Colin's grand young horse Reddy is at a fee of $2000. The king of Spain's crack Antivar has also gone into similar retirement and stands at a fee of $1200. The fees of the sires at Mrs. H. R. Duryea's Haras du Gazon are respectively: Durbar, $1000; Sweeper, $400; Shannon, $200 and Clairat, $200. Along with Reddy, at Haras du Gazon, are Mon Pedro, at $400, and The Irishman, at $100. The latter is practically American-bred, being a young horse by Irish Lad, Minberia. The famous horse, Prestige, stands at $700. Sires with progeny racing in this country are Helicon, San Antonio and Mordant, each at $240. At Chantilly, October 1, W. K. Vanderbilt's two-year-old Maestri, by Mainstay-on-Maskette, proved himself a good one when he won the Prix D'Or at three-quarters of a mile in 1:12 2/5. He carried 123 pounds, won by three lengths and defeated eighteen of the best of the year. T. P. Thorne's L'Errant finished second. It was a lucky afternoon for Mr. Vanderbilt, for just previous to

Germany 'Carries On' In a Racing Way

Berlin, Oct. 26.—The American jockey, George Archibald, who rode Jess K. Aikin when he won the $10,000 Dominion Handicap at Port Erie, has been released from his employment in Baron Oppenheims' stables and will now ride the horses of Prince Hohenzollern Oestrin in Austria, where a license has been secured for him. Recent winners in Vienna include two juvenils by the English sire, Wombwell, Count Zichy's Banko, by Wombwell, out of Beeswax, secured the valuable Esterhazy Memorial of 2883 sovs. from eight others, of whom St. Legery by Wombwell, Hoan's three days earlier for Baron A. de Hecschel.

The Great Red Cross Horse Sale

which was postponed from Oct. 26th, WILL BE HELD ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13th

And the following Wednesday, November 14th OUR SPECIAL COMBINATION SALE OF UNRESERVED CONSIGNMENTS

THE RED CROSS SALE, TUESDAY, NOV. 13th

Entries of Horses, Vehicles, Harness, Etc., which are donated to the Red Cross Society, will be received up to Saturday, Nov. 10th. All those having horses which they do not require, and horses to sell on the market, will prefer to contribute them to this worthy cause, as the entire proceeds will go direct to the Head Office of the Red Cross Society of Canada. No commission will be charged by the Union Stock Yards Company for conducting this sale, which will be under the direction of Col. Noel Marshall, Chairman of the Society.

Combination Sale of Unreserved Consignments Wednesday, November 14th

This will be one of the best opportunities this year to dispose of your entire stable outfit, or any surplus horses. No entries will be received unless for absolute, unreserved sale, and consignors may rest assured that they will receive the very best possible cash price in this way. No auction sale can be a great success unless it is conducted in this way. It will not be confined to any particular class of horses. Heavy Draft and General Purpose Mares and Geldings, Family Carriage Horses, Saddle Horses, Ponies, Drivers, Brood Mares, Foals, Yearlings, two, three and four-year-olds, as well as the very best matured horses will find ready purchase at this great sale. The one and only condition is that your entries will be unreserved. Owing to the large amount being spent in advertising this sale no owner need hesitate to take advantage of this special Combination Sale of Unreserved Consignments.

Extra good heavy horses will bring high prices, and every animal offered will bring as good a price as you will be able to get in Canada at the present time. Make your entries now, as the number of horses will be limited to as many lots as we can sell in one day. Don't wait, enter now, as our sale is limited. A splendid consignment from one of the best known, high-class breeding farms in Ontario, and other smaller lots have already been entered without reserve. Our charges are $5.00 per head commission, and 50c per day for feeding while here; also 10c for each horse to cover fire insurance while in our stables.
