EVERY CHILD BORN
A LEGITIMATE ONE

F. N. Stapleton Recommends
Radical Changes in Social Legislation.

F. N. Stapleton of the Neighborhood Workers' Association delivered an interesting address on the subject of "What Can Be Accomplished by Social Legislation" before a large number of people in Foresters' Hall, College street, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Stapleton, who has spent a great deal of time in investigating conditions among the poor in connection with the work of the association, made an analysis of the immediate causes of poverty. These, he said, are low wages, unemployment, physical defects, desertion, character defects, old age and widowhood. A considerable portion of the population, he said, are not able to accumulate a reserve fund to meet such conditions when they arise, and this section is chiefly composed of unskilled and unorganized workers. Their money is exhausted as it is earned, and they are immediately impoverished when sickness, unemployment or other misfortunes fall upon them.

To combat these conditions, the speaker prescribed a readjustment of the educational system, lengthening of the period of compulsory school attendance, development of vocational guidance and technical education. This, he said, would produce more capable citizens who would earn more and set aside money for future needs.

Readjustment Recommended.

He also recommended a readjustment in the industrial field in wages, hours and control in industry and better social legislation, as an example of which he quoted the workmen's compensation act, dealing with its advantages and the great disadvantage the workers were under before its enactment. He advocated a similar act as a protection against sickness, unemployment and widowhood, and emphasized the necessity of allowances for widowed mothers, invalid insurance, and their value as a force against poverty.

Later the speaker dealt with the illegitimate child problem and the status of the illegitimate child in Ontario. He advocated changes in the law and recommended that the state be the legal guardian of the child, at the same time assuming the responsibility of securing support and supervising adoption; that subsequent marriage of the parents should automatically legitimize the child; that the child should be entitled to the name of the father; that the parents should be required to support the child as if it were legitimate, or that the child should have the full right of inheritance, even if the father is married and has a family; that if several men are implicated the financial responsibility should be shared by each, and that the expenses of child birth should be borne by them.

The speaker's remarks were well received, and the meeting showed a great interest in the problems at the discussion which followed the address.

Professor De Lury was in the chair.

DULCE ET DECORUM
PRO PATRIA MORI

Heroes of St. James Held in Memory by Two Tablets.

Two tablets were unveiled yesterday morning at St. James' Square Presbyterian Church, one in honor of 110 members of the congregation who served in the war and the other to perpetuate the memory of sixteen of these who gave up their lives. The service was conducted by Rev. D. N. Morden, pastor, assisted by Rev. Alfred Gaudier, D. D., while the tablets were unveiled by Lt.-Col. William Cowan. The memorial to the fallen bears the inscription, "Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori," or in English, "Sweet and fitting it is to die for one's country." The congregation stood with bowed heads while Lt.-Col. Cowan read out the names inscribed on this tablet.

During the service that followed there were many moist eyes as the thoughts of friends and relatives dwelt on those who had made the supreme sacrifice. The lament, "Flowers of the Forest"—was played by Pipe-Major J. B. Fraser, after which the Dead March "In F Major" was played by the organist and the last post sounded by Bugler W. K. Toose. "The Reveille"—the note of resurrection—was sounded by Bugler Toose.

Rev. D. N. Morden based his address on the 4th chapter of Joshua from the 20th verse to the end of the chapter. "Israel," said the Rev. Mr. Morden, "had come to an important point in her history. Behind her were forty years of wanderings when she had been directed by day, Joshua ordering night and a cloud by day, Joshua ordering twelve stones, one for each of the twelve tribes, to be taken from the Jordan and thrown into Gilgal.

When asked why he did this he said that those twelve stones were a memorial of what the children of Israel had come thru, that all who saw the stones might know and fear God for all time. When our children and our children's children," he continued, "ask what these tablets are for we will be able to proudly relate Canada's part in the war."

In concluding his address Mr. Morden presented the appeal of the dying soldier—"to you from falling hands we throw the torch. Be yours to hold it high. If ye break faith with us who die we shall not sleep the poppies blow in Flanders Fields."

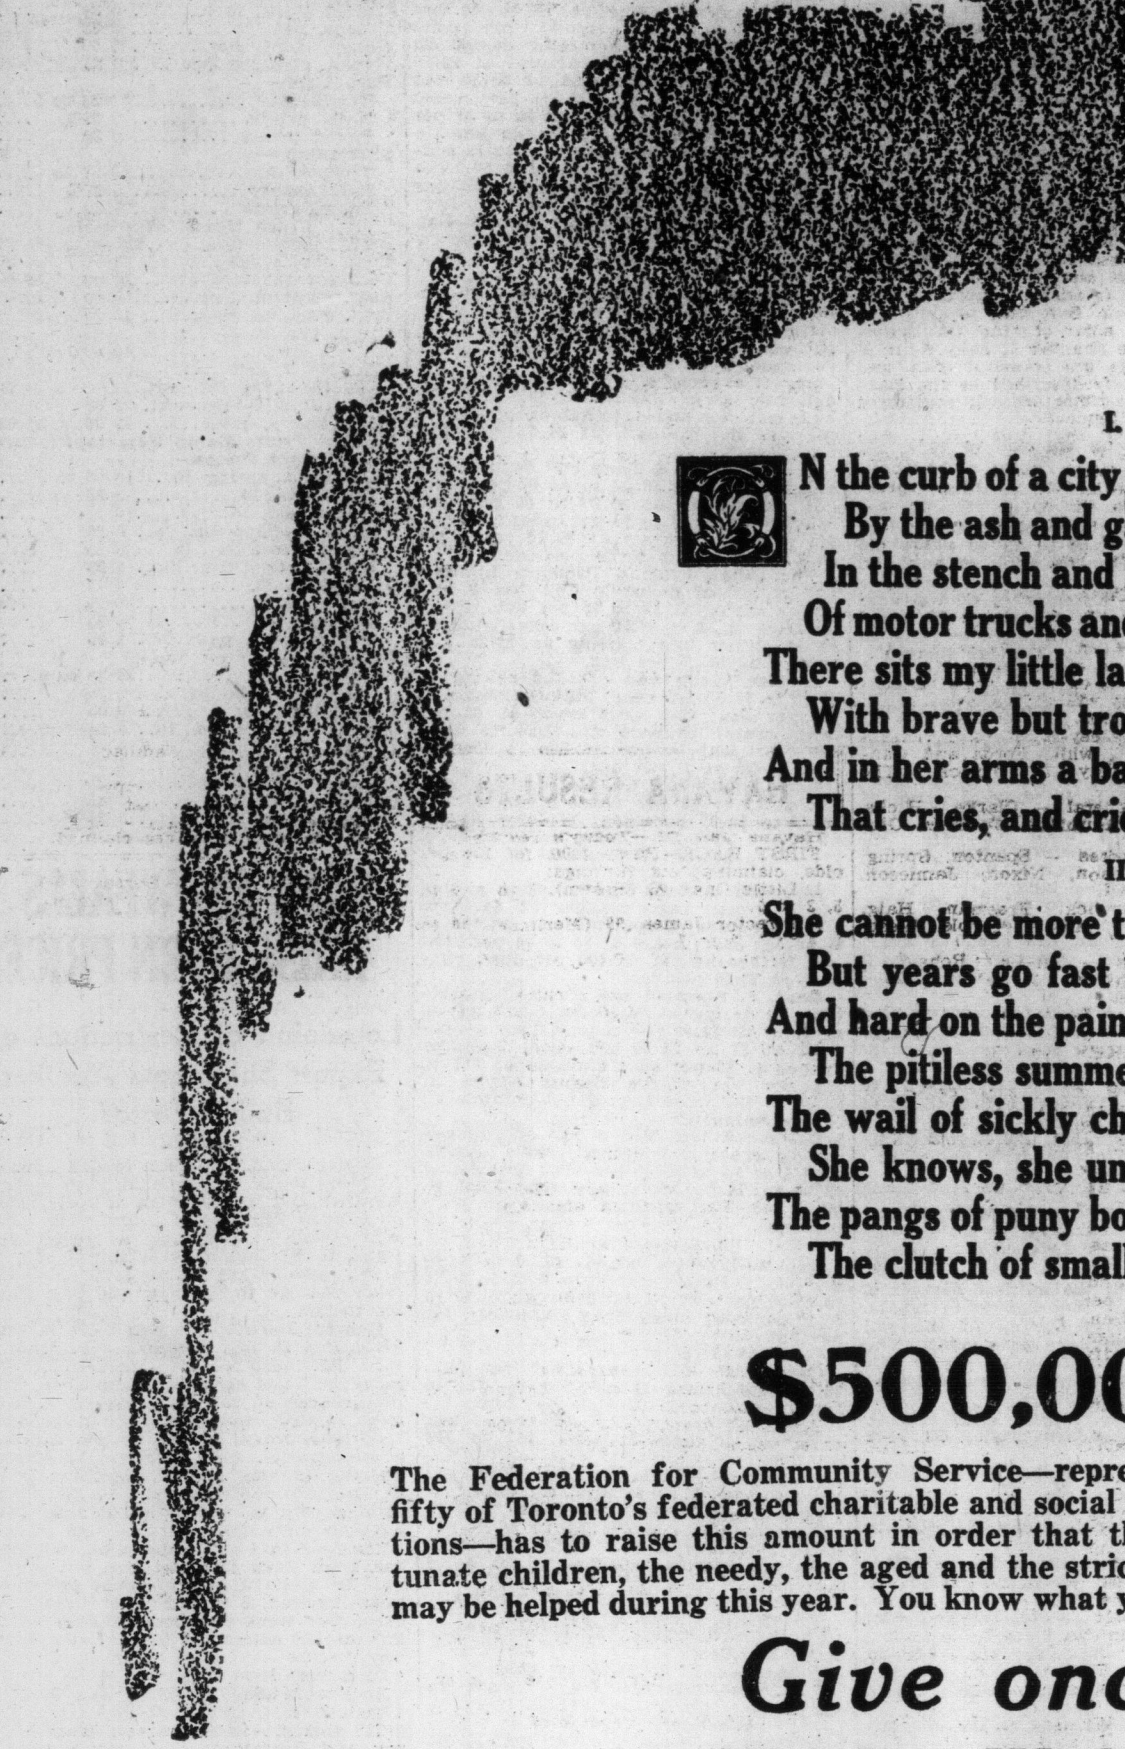

The tablet to the fallen has inscribed on it the following names:

Capt. and Adj. Robert Clifford Darke, James Dewar, Gnr. John McKay Coulter, Capt. John Hammarford Symons, Coy. James Rodger Bulk, Capt. John Heron Macdonald, Lieut. William Mackay Carlyle, Lieut. David Gladstone Murray, Capt. John Robinson Woods, Lieut. Murray Grant Gunn, Lieut. John Gordon Douglas, Pte. Reinhold Einar Gray, Cpl. William Lindsay, Pte. William Aldridge Keller.

CIVIC EMPLOYEES WAGES.

City hall employees are asking for increases which if granted will add $5,200 a week to the payroll. A general increase of $6 a week is asked and the employees' association ask also further increases for merit be granted. The matter will shortly come before the board of control.

The Madonna of the Curb
by Christopher Morley

From a Photo-graph

"For of such as these."

N the curb of a city pavement,
By the ash and garbage cans,
In the stench and rolling thunder
Of motor trucks and vans,
There sits my little lady,
With brave but troubled eyes,
And in her arms a baby
That cries, and cries, and cries.

She cannot be more than seven,
But years go fast in the slums,
And hard on the pains of winter
The pitiless summer comes.
The wail of sickly children,
She knows, she understands,
The pangs of puny bodies,
The clutch of small, hot hands.

In the deadly blaze of summer,
That turns men faint and mad,
She quiets the peevish urchins
By telling a dream she had---
A heaven with marble counters,
And ice, and a singing fan,
And a God in white, so friendly---
Just like the drug-store man.

Her ragged dress is dearer
Than the perfect robe of a queen.
Poor little lass, who knows not
The blessing of being clean,
And when you are giving millions
To Armenian, Pole, Serb,
Remember my pitiful lady---
Madonna of the Curb!

$500,000 in Three Days

The Federation for Community Service—representing nearly fifty of Toronto's federated charitable and social welfare institutions—has to raise this amount in order that the poor, unfortunate children, the needy, the aged and the stricken of our city may be helped during this year. You know what you should give.

Please send us your cheque for that amount, or give it to the canvasser when he calls. Persons at home should not wait for a canvasser, as there will not be a general house-to-house canvass in this campaign. Decide for yourself earnestly, prayerfully, what your heart tells you you should give to help and send your cheque.

Give once---but give enough!

CITY HALL NOTES

An appeal has been received from St. Michael's Hospital by the board of control for a city donation of $100,000 towards the cost of their proposed addition with a nurses' home, which it is estimated will total about $375,000. The letter says the new building will be seven storeys high, of brick and stone construction. There will be accommodation for 150 nurses, with diet kitchen, lecture class and library rooms. Another story is to be added to the hospital to afford the needed extra space for the medical department.

The trustees have only $10,000 on hand and expect to raise $100,000 by mortgage and the balance from the city and public subscriptions.

The assessment commissioner having given warning to the public to file statements of income, reports are coming in at the rate of 1000 a day. Thirty-
