Young ladies who play lawn tennis are known as "maidens all for lawn."

WHAT class of people is that whom it is never necessary to urge to take more interest in their business?—Pawnbrokers.

"We're in a pickle now," said a man in a crowd. "A regular jam," said another. "Heaven preserve us!" moaned an old lady.

The man who boasts that he works with his head instead of his hands is respectfully reminded that the woodpecker does the same, and it the biggest kind of a bore.

It's absurd to tell a beggar to go about his business—begging is his business.

ANY young man is made better by a sister's love. It is not necessary to be his own sister.

"I would die for you," passionately exclaimed the rich old suitor, and the practical girl calmly asked him: "How soon?"

"THAT was a sympathetic audience I had," said the lecturer. "Yes, I thought they all seemed sorry for one another," said his bosom friend.
