INVESTIGATING JEW LAD'S DEATH

Inquest into Fatality on Elevator in Dock Street Establishment.

The inquest into the death of Hyman Eisenstein, who lost his life by being caught in an elevator a week ago today, was begun last evening, with Coroner D. E. Berryman presiding.

Three witnesses were examined and adjournment was made till 8.30 o'clock Friday evening, June 1, for it is believed that two employees of the dock-making establishment in which the fatality occurred, have evidence which may throw some light on the events immediately preceding Eisenstein's death.

The name of one is Abraham Bernstein, and the other is named Drucker.

The coroner, after hearing all the evidence at hand, explained to the jury that John McMulkin, the factory inspector, was to examine the elevator in which Eisenstein had been caught, and give information at the inquest, but owing to illness could not be present.

The jury to decide whether to adjourn and hear later the evidence of Bernstein and Drucker, or render a verdict from what had already been heard. The adjournment was decided on.

The Evidence.

Michael McLennan, in the employ of J. S. Ballant & Co., Dock street, described the premises and told of their being two elevators for the use of the establishment.

Both were used exclusively by the business. He told of the finding of the body.

The elevator, he said, is worked by hand and without there being any weight on it would go up or down.

There was no railing about it and he thought that there were no guards or other apparatus to prevent the body from falling.

To a juror—He could not say if the elevator was locked.

William Munkhat, clothing manufacturer at 30 Dock street, described the duties of

COMPULSORY VOTING LIKELY TO BECOME LAW

Ottawa, May 15—(Special)—The following resolution, recently adopted by the compulsory voting, was adopted at the dominion election committee today:

"Any person who does not vote at an election at which he is qualified to vote shall be disqualified from voting at any similar election for a term of six years. No person, however, shall be so disqualified if he has been prevented from voting by illness, or by any other good and sufficient reason, and any such person may obtain from a judge of any court of record upon satisfying such judge upon oath or affirmation that he had a good and sufficient reason for not voting, a certificate of enfranchisement annulling the disqualification, which certificate may be in the form 'R'."

HOT DEBATE IN THE COMMONS

Ottawa, May 15—(Special)—In the house today Dr. Roche (Marquette) introduced a bill regarding telephones in Manitoba. The object of the bill is to confer upon the province power, if necessary, to expropriate telephone lines in that province. There is some doubt on the matter.

Mr. Oliver's forestry reserve bill was again taken up. The minister read a list of holders of timber licenses on the reserves affected. He said that the licenses were subject to the regulations which might be made from time to time by the government.

In answer to Dr. Sproule, Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that the licenses were founded on those issued by the older provinces. He agreed that the increasing should be reserved for the state, if possible, but the difficulty was to avoid breaking faith with licensees.

R. L. Borden advised taking power to cancel all licenses and giving compensation to the license holders. Some progress was made with the bill after which it stood and supply was taken up.

The Arctic Expedition.

The Arctic expedition was again discussed in supply this evening. Among the items criticized were $2,720 worth of pipes, cigarettes, cigars and playing cards, ten cases of "Tommy", 108 gallons of old Jamaica rum, five cases of cognac, and five cases of fine old brandy port of the vintage of 1878. Seven and a half tons of sugar. The total cost of fitting out the Arctic was $220,620.

Hon. Mr. Broderick said that the object of the voyage was to enforce the laws of Canada and to establish permanent stations in different places, for the enforcement of Canadian law in the most effective way. He gave the route and ports at which the Arctic was to call.

In response to the criticism of the supplies Mr. Broderick compared the quantities with those supplied to other vessels on similar expeditions. In reference to rum, champagne, whiskey and brandy the reply on the Arctic was very much less. The supply of flour was also less. The supply of meat and flour, etc., was much less than ordinary per man for three years as established by order in council prior to the present government coming into power.

The Arctic returned because she was not in good condition. The best of provisions as discovered was more than on the Arctic. Three years provisions for the De-

Queens County Grand Jury Finds True Bill Against Stanley Fanjoy

Gagetown, May 15—(Special)—At the Queens county Circuit Court which was held here today, Judge Hanington presiding, the grand jury brought in a true bill against Stanley Fanjoy, of Johnstone, Queens county, on an indictment charging the manslaughter of William Kinade, who was shot last November in mistake for a moose. A bench warrant was issued for Fanjoy's arrest and the case will come up for trial at the court which will be held in October.

Hon. Mr. Jones, editor general, who appeared for the crown, in opening the case referred to the circumstances under which Kinade met his death. No criminal intent is charged against the accused, but the crown considered that the matter was one which could not be allowed to pass in view of the fact that negligence may be shown. After the preliminary investigation was held before the coroner no further steps were taken by the relatives of the deceased and therefore the crown had instituted proceedings.

The grand jury having returned a true bill, Justice Hanington issued a bench warrant for the arrest of the defendant. There being no further business the court adjourned.

It is understood that Fanjoy will give bail for his appearance at the October Circuit Court, when the case will be tried. The crown will bring forward the evidence of two witnesses—Kilmer, the widow of the deceased, who was near the spot at the time the shooting occurred; and Constable Thomas F. Blythe, who made a preliminary examination of the place and as to how the fatality was caused, and Daniel Fanjoy, father of the defendant, who went out and made measurements from the tracks in the snow showing where the men were standing.

The witnesses were bound over in their own recognizance to appear at the trial. Fanjoy is about 20 years of age, and has been living at Johnstone some years.

CHIEF FINDS HOLES IN ST. JOHN SIDEWALKS

Remarkable Power of Perception Displayed by Indian Visitor—The Chief and Sir Wilfrid.

Chief Sark, of the P. E. Island Micmacs, made a leisurely and critical inspection of the city yesterday, and had some difficulty whatever in arriving at the conclusion that St. John has a future of colossal magnitude. There is one present evil, though, that he would like to see remedied. He does not speak with a forked tongue, and what he had to say was uttered with an air of profound earnestness. "Holes in sidewalks," said he, bending near the scribe, "in greater numbers than grains of sand on Prince Edward Island shore."

Chief Sark, who will sail up the Quagony this morning, did not meet Chief Sars yesterday. Somehow they missed each other, but Chief Sark just regards the matter as a pleasure deferred.

When he was in Okassa, Premier Laurier was afforded the opportunity of meeting with the Eastern potentate. Chief Sark says that he was impressed with the prime minister's cordial bearing and polished address. The chief could not help remarking that P. E. Island did not contain the only great man in the dominion. "And when we parted," remarked Chief Sark, "he took me one side and gimme ten dollar note. No doubt 'bout his greatness."

ANOTHER ROYAL VISITOR SOON

Report is That Duke of Connaught Will Visit Canada This Autumn

Montreal, May 15—(Special)—A special London cable says:

The Standard publishes a remarkable article indicative of the strides the reciprocal preferential policy is making between colony and colony within the empire. It indicates that this intercolonial cooperation is likely to be extended to the Australian, New Zealand, South African and Canadian ministers at the colonial conference. The educational effect can hardly fail to be great upon the British electorate who, says the Standard, appear hostile merely from an inability to discriminate between the proposed mutual benefit society of the sons of the empire and the outworn creed of protection.

A Melbourne invitation sent to Canadian ministers to attend the colonial conference in London in April next intimates that Sir Wilfrid Laurier and any colleagues accompanying him will be the guests of the state.

The Duke of Connaught when inspecting the Canadian team at Balesy in 1905 expressed the hope that he would soon be able to visit Canada; and so have an opportunity of inspecting the British Commonwealth in person.

Y. M. C. A. MAKES GIFT TO JOHN E. IRVINE

At a meeting of the board of managers of the Y. M. C. A. last night, at which the election of officers for the ensuing year took place, the board took the opportunity of presenting to John E. Irvine a handsome leather traveling bag with a suitable inscription. Mr. D. Tilley, the newly elected president, made the presentation, and speeches of regret at the approaching departure of Mr. Irvine were made by Frank White, W. C. Cross, T. S. Simms, G. A. Henderson, T. H. Somerville, H. C. Tilley and J. N. Harvey.

The president, in making the presentation, referred to the fact that Mr. Irvine had for the last twenty years been a worker in connection with the Y. M. C. A. in this city. He also said that a more faithful and conscientious worker it would be hard to find. On behalf of the board of managers he asked Mr. Irvine to accept the traveling bag, not so much for its intrinsic value, as for the good feeling it represented.

Mr. Irvine made a fitting reply. He thanked the members for their kindness and said that he would never forget it nor the kindly way in which he had always been treated by everybody in this city. In view of his approaching departure from the city, Mr. Irvine tendered his resignation from the board, but it was decided not to accept it for the present. The traveling bag presented to Mr. Irvine is a very handsome one. It is of solid leather and on the top is a silver
