

The Commission was further instructed to watch the progress of any Bills which may be introduced into the Colonial Legislatures on the subject of education, and, if necessary, to present petitions on the same.

The Moderator was requested to write, in the name of the Synod, to the Very Rev. Dr. Duncan McFarlane, Principal of the University of Glasgow College, and to John Murray, Esq., Writer to the Signet in Edinburgh, expressing our gratitude for the interest they have taken in promoting the welfare of the Synod of Canada, and also for the kind offer which they have made to continue to render it every assistance in their power.

The Commission was appointed to meet immediately after the adjournment of Synod, and again at Martintown on the third Wednesday of January next, and also on the third Wednesday of September, at nine o'clock, A. M.

The following Committee was appointed to revise the Minutes, viz.:—Messrs. Hugh Urquhart, John Cruickshank, Alex. Mathieson, and John McKenzie, and report this evening, at nine o'clock.

A letter from Hart, Logan & Co., craving the payment of Sixty Pounds from the Synod, was referred to the Presbytery of Quebec, with a recommendation to use means for liquidating the same.

The Synod then adjourned till nine o'clock this evening, and was closed with prayer.

The Synod resumed accordingly, pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with prayer.

The Committee appointed to revise the Minutes, reported that they had done so; and the Synod re-appointed the same Committee to superintend, with the assistance of the Clerk, the printing of the Minutes of this Session of Synod for the use of the Church.

The Synod then appointed its next meeting to be held at Williamstown, on the third Wednesday of September next, and within the Church there, at twelve o'clock, noon, and was closed with prayer.
