INVICTUS GEORGE GOULDING ANSWERS CHARGES

New York, Dec. 21—George Goulding, Toronto, Canada, world's champion walker, has replied to the charges that he is a professional wrestler before the Registration Committee of the Metropolitan Association by William H. Parry, an American professional wrestler, twenty-five years ago. This fact became known when he wrote John J. McGowan of the Milrose A. A. that he would compete in the Milrose games next month, "provided he was cleared by the Amateur Athletic Union of the Parry charges."

WALTER JOHNSON IS AGAIN THE LEADING SHUT-OUT PITCHER

Walter Johnson carried off the shut-out honors in the American League for 1915. For the third year in succession the "speed king" succeeded in registering the most runless games. Eight times during the season Johnson set down the opposition without tally. He also figured in six other shutouts but in these games his club was on the wrong end of the bat.

Withdrawal of the action pending before United States Dist. Judge Landis will play an important part in the final settlement of peace terms at the conference of Federal leaguers and representatives of the two major leagues in Cincinnati on Tuesday.

"We are going to Cincinnati to put the finishing touches to the peace negotiations begun in New York," said President Johnson. "I can state that permanent peace is virtually assured. I can see no hitch in the negotiations. We have a thorough understanding on the points involved."
