

most valued co-laborer, the late Mr. Brookfield. Elected at the last annual meeting as Chairman of the First District, he entered upon the discharge of his duties with the intelligent zeal, and throughout performed them with the fidelity which characterized this exemplary citizen in every benevolent enterprise in which he engaged. Their affectionate and mournful tribute is also due to the memory of one who, although not officially connected with the Association during the past year, was ever deeply interested in its operations, and in its previous years was one of the most active and judicious among its visitors. Of those whom an inscrutable Providence has removed from among us in the morning or noon of life, none have left a name more fragrant of a lovely and unaffected charity, than that of Alexander Doull.

Report on the	1870
Report on the	1871
Report on the	1872
Report on the	1873
Report on the	1874
Report on the	1875
Report on the	1876
Report on the	1877
Report on the	1878
Report on the	1879
Report on the	1880
Report on the	1881
Report on the	1882
Report on the	1883
Report on the	1884
Report on the	1885
Report on the	1886
Report on the	1887
Report on the	1888
Report on the	1889
Report on the	1890
Report on the	1891
Report on the	1892
Report on the	1893
Report on the	1894
Report on the	1895
Report on the	1896
Report on the	1897
Report on the	1898
Report on the	1899
Report on the	1900