Hon. Dr. William Pugsley, K. C., Dominion war claims commissions; and the matter the reaction to say when he would begin hearing claims in the Maritime Provinces. Because of the number of witnesses to be examined and because of the fact that many of them are seafaring men who are widely dispersed, the arrangement of a schedule for hearings was a matter that required considerable time. Hon. Dr. Pugsley said that there would be about 120 claims to be heard in the lower provinces. The witnesses had been communicated with and an itinerary would be arranged as soon as possible.

Bakter's sister, Mrs. N. M. Brown, W. H. Turner, motored to Pictou to attend the Hector celebration and spent the week-end at Halifax.

Miss Nellie Rogers, who was visiting Mrs. James Robson, Sackville, has returned home.

Berlin, July 24.—The famous Cathedral of Gnesen, thirty miles northeast of Posen, has been robbed of its costly collection of antique church treasures, which dated back to St. Adalbert, "Apostle of the Prussians." The cathedral was originally built to safeguard the treasures.

*Apostle of the Prussians." The cathedral was originally built to safeguard the treasures.

The collection comprised the bejew-eled miter of St. Adalbert, and beautiful monstrances, goblets and other precious articles. The gold and jewels of the collection are estimated as having an actual value of $50,000,000. The thieves took virtually the entire lot. Among the loot was a shrine studded with forty sapphires, an amethyst and a large ruby. One of the gold monstrances taken was nearly two feelingth, and weighed ten pounds. It was expected it would be completed in six or eight weeks. They had 150 applications in the Hampton district and of these 52 high, and weighed ten pounds. It was expected that with the full load there was been used by St. Adalbert himself. Adalbert was buried in the Gnesen Cathedral, but later his body was removed to Prague.

The opinion was expressed by Magistrate Henderson and Commissioner Wigmore that this should be placed as nearly as possible on the site of the fort at Portland Point and a motion to that effect was carried. Before deciding the exact location the committee will visit the ground this afternoon and they will also visit the site of Fort Frederick and determine on the location for the monument to mark that spot.

OBJECT TO THESE POLES. Some of the residents of St. David and Courtenay streets have registered a protest against the poles carted down to those streets for use by the Civic Power Commission and say they are not being treated the same as the central portion of the city in the class of pole to be erected. The matter habeen taken up with the Mayor. It was said at the office of the Commission.
