FORCED TO LAY OFF FROM WORK

R. W. Morrison Restored by Tanlac Months Ago Says He Has Been on Job Every Day Since.

"Although it was several months ago that Tanlac fixed me up, it did the work so thoroughly I've been enjoying the best of health ever since, and have already told numbers of others what a great medicine it is," said Rod W. Morrison, of 183 Bentick street, Sydney (N. S.), well-known steel worker employed by the Dominion Iron & Steel Co. "For over five years I suffered terribly with stomach trouble, and there wasn't a week that went by but what I had such an attack it just caused me to faint away. I would become so weak I couldn't stand, and had such awful headaches I had to go to bed until they passed away. I could scarcely digest anything and got where I didn't dare eat fat meat at all, for it made me sick almost at once. I was so nervous I was in continual worry, and a good night's sleep was out of the question. I lost a great many days from my work, and at times was even too weak to get out of bed.

"Well, sir, last spring I got hold of Tanlac, and it just seemed to hit my case exactly, for it built me up ten pounds in weight and put me in the very best of health. Why, it gave me a dandy appetite, and knocked that stomach trouble sky high, so that I could eat fat meat and just anything else without it troubling me a bit. The nervousness so completely disappeared I could sleep like a log every night, and I want to tell you, I haven't lost a day from my work on account of sickness since taking Tanlac, but just feel fine all the time."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by the Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro; by G. W. McKay, Beaver Harbor; C. V. Parsons, Highland; John F. McGehee, Debec; O. D. Hanson, Lepreau; E. L. Conley, Leonardville; N. H. Johnson, Clarendon Station, and by the leading druggists in every town.—(Adv.)

ever to the question "Who is Santa Claus?" for the mother of the family positive she saw him in the benevolence of the girls.

He was surely in spirit Christmas Day with these young ladies without a doubt and he proved himself the same kindly, sympathetic personality his best storey tellers love to describe. But more than that he permitted the girls to share the secret marvelous joy always associated with Saint Nicholas and that after all the best part of this plain tale.

DEATH OF AN AGED INDIAN

Port Arthur, Ont., Dec. 28.—With the death of Frank Ogema, 84 years of age, Indian guide, trapper and hunter, here recently this district lost one of its most characteristic figures. For half a century the name "Ogema" has been connected with things primeval. He was a true native of the forest, having been born on the reserve at Nipigon where the famous Indian band occupied their time in fishing and hunting and trapping furs for the Hudson's Bay Company and other fur traders.

Ogema was one of the oldest of the Nipigon band and the best known of Indians at the head-of-the-lakes. He was known by every miner, hunter, surveyor and construction engineer who had occasion to visit the surrounding district. His valuable knowledge of the surrounding territory made him a much sought after guide, especially by prospectors.

U. S. Food Products Exports. Washington, Dec. 27.—Exports of food products from the United States during November amounted to $188,989,081, as compared with $183,487,166 in November 1919. For the eleven months of 1920 the total was $1,478,969,176, while for the same period last year they amounted to $1,961,987,724.

NERVES ALL GONE TO PIECES

"Fruit-a-tives" Conquered Nervous Prostration

R. R. No. 4, Gilbert Plains, Man. "In the year 1910, I had Nervous Prostration in its worst form; dropping from 170 to 115 pounds. The doctors had no hope of my recovery, and every medicine I tried proved useless until a friend induced me to take 'Fruit-a-tives.' I began to mend almost at once, and never had such good health as I have enjoyed the past eight years. I am never without 'Fruit-a-tives' in the house."

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

DECLINE IN OIL PRICES

(New York Evening Post) Following the announcement of the Prairie Oil and Gas Company that it has cut down its purchases of crude oil by 80 per cent, there was much gossip in financial circles as to whether or not the industry is about to embark upon a period of declining oil prices. There is also much talk regarding the storing of oil as a result of reduced demand. In regard to this it can be stated that oil prices at present are very much above what they were a year ago and a decline in prices at this time would not be surprising. As far as reduction in demand is concerned it is reported that this is a reasonable movement which is always witnessed during the winter months. It is admitted, however, that while the Prairie Oil and Gas Company and other concerns may be opposed to filling their storage tanks with oil at present prices, the big refining interests are opposed to any cuts at this time for fear that a reduction in prices would discourage output and bring about a shortage of oil in 1921.

SCALING MT. EVEREST

London, Eng., Dec. 28.—Plans for scaling Mt. Everest, the Himalayan peak, 29,000 feet high, are being considered by the Royal Geographical Society. The government of India will provide airplanes for reconnaissance.
