A carnival is planned for next month. Sydney B. S. Kaye has donated a prize for the most original costume wearing St. John, and those who passed the St. John Ambulance classes during the year. All members, however, will be liable to re-examination next year.

THE V. A. D'S.

In the annual re-examination of members of the local detachment of the V. A. D. on Saturday, two classes were exempt—those who served overseas and were demobilized during the last year, and those who passed the St. John Ambulance classes during the year. All members, however, will be liable to re-examination next year.

THE STREET DEPARTMENT.

A correspondent, writing to the Times complains of the manner in which the horses of the public works department engaged in spreading sand on the sidewalks, are allowed to wander along the streets while the driver is carrying out the operation of spreading the sand. The writer says that the horses are often in the way of regular traffic and urges that this be stopped.

TURKS PROTEST

Want Empire Kept Intact with Constantinople Capital.

Constantinople, Jan. 19.—Protests against "the reported intention of the peace conference to dismember the Turkish Empire and to internationalize this city," were voiced at a great mass meeting held here.

Resolutions were adopted declaring Constantinople should be maintained as the capital of Turkey and the seat of the government, demanding the evacuation of Smyrna and adjacent region by the Greeks, asking for an immediate conclusion of peace, asserting the integral sovereignty of the Turkish nation should be maintained over territories in which the majority of the inhabitants are Turks, and giving assurance that the rights and interests of Christian or Turkish minorities would be safeguarded.

Many meetings have been held in Anatolia under the auspices of Turkish national leaders.

WAS TEN BELOW THIS MORNING

This Winter Vieing with 1917 for Low Record—Greatest Snowfall of Season on Saturday.

The winter of 1919-1920 is striving to hang up a record for low temperature, and although it has yet to "go some" to eclipse the winter of 1917-1918, its efforts are at least commendable. Already it is well on the way towards being an outstanding winter in the total number of hours of zero weather experienced, but the extreme low temperature which prevailed two winters ago established such a low average that it will take considerable beating.

Starting at thirty degrees above on Saturday evening, the thermometer started a descent which continued all day on Sunday and this morning about nine degrees reached the minimum of ten points below the cipher. The mercury passed the zero mark on its trip to the lower regions about last midnight. The highest at which the thermometer stood on Sunday was thirteen above. Hampton reported eighteen below this morning.

The snow fall on Saturday amounted to five and three-quarter inches, the greatest amount of snow that has fallen here at one time during the season. A twenty-mile breeze this morning accentuated the intensity of the cold snap.

Elsewhere.

Reports from other places are:
St. Stephen—Fair; 13 below.
Woodville—Clear and cold.
Grand Falls—30 below; clear and cold.
Moncton—5 below; heavy northwest winds; fine.
Halifax—Fog; lowest 2 above; five above at 10 a. m.
Sydney—Fresh west wind; clear and cold; lowest 6 above.
Edmundston—30 below at 7.30 a. m.; clear; northwest winds.
Fredericton—Clear and cold; 13 below early this morning.

TEN CASES OF WHISKEY STOLEN

One Arrest in Matter of Theft From North End Vendors.

In the police court this morning appeared Thomas Ramsey, who was arrested on Saturday by Sergeant Detective Power and Detective Biddiscombe on suspicion of acting together with others in breaking and entering the drug store of Crockett & McMillan, Main street, on Jan. 16, and stealing ten cases of whiskey, valued at $800. No evidence was taken and the case was postponed and the accused remanded.

The case against William Webber, who was charged with having liquor in his possession for sale, was determined last Wednesday and a judgment given in favor of the defendant, but on motion of W. M. Ryan, counsel for the prosecution, that the liquor be destroyed, the magistrate postponed the case until this morning and intended to give judgment on that connection. However, the defence expressed themselves as not being satisfied with the judgment and stated that it would not be taken up for review on certiorari, but they had prepared affidavits to present to the magistrate this morning. In view of this the magistrate postponed the case until Thursday, and then if the affidavits were not filed he would make an order for the destruction of the liquor. E. S. Ritchie appeared for the defence.

The case against Dr. P. X. Morris, it is understood, will be taken up tomorrow morning.

Two men, charged with drunkenness, were disposed of, one being remanded to jail while the other was in such condition that it was necessary to send him to the General Public Hospital.
