EDISON ARTIST AT OPERA HOUSE

Hear the Tenor, Manual Romaine; Hear His Re-Created Voice on the New Edison at Thorne's—Then Judge.

What is, one might say, practically a tone-test opportunity is offered local music-lovers by the visit to this city of the noted tenor, Manual Romaine, who is appearing at the Opera House with the feature-top line offering—this evening.
Mr. Romaine is a valued member of the Edison staff of artists, and it is gratifying to know that Thomas A.
Edison's Re-Creation of Mr. Romaine's beautiful tenor voice are offered by Messrs. W. H. Thorne & Co., Limited, where visitors are welcome to hear any of the following numbers: 50181—"My Sunshine Jane"; 50465—"If I Had All the World and Its Gold"; and on the reverse side of the same disc "Mammy's Little Coal Black Rose."

It is suggested that those who hear Mr. Romaine at the Opera House call at Thorne's and hear his Re-Created voice on the New Edison—"The Photograph with a Soul"—and thus satisfy themselves that Mr. Edison has really Re-Created Mr. Romaine's voice so faithfully that no human ear can discover the difference between the living voice and the Edison Re-Creation of it. Hear the artist, then hear the Edison Recreation of his voice at Thorne's.

CANADA'S RECORD COMPARED WITH U. S.

105,000 Dominion Troops Attained Same Result as 650-000 Americans.

Toronto, Feb. 19.—A comparison of the last hundred days of fighting of the Canadian corps with the much advertised Argonne-Meuse offensive of the Americans, reveals the interesting fact that the Canadians obtained almost exactly the same results with 105,000 troops that the Americans did with 650,000. This was one of the many delights thrown on some of the most unflinching aspects of the war, especially those related to the role of the heavy artillery, by Brigadier General Andrew G. L. McNaughton, C. M. G., D. S. O., who addressed the Canadian Club at luncheon here.

"Without wishing to draw unkind comparisons," he continued, "it is noteworthy that the number of prisoners, machine guns and guns, trench mortars, taken, the number of German divisions met and defeated, the number of square miles of territory liberated were about the same in each of the two instances I have mentioned. The Americans employed six times as many men for about one-half the time. They also employed practically the same proportion of guns per 100 troops. Their casualties were more than twice as heavy. But the Canadian gunners attained their much greater effectiveness by expending two and one-half times as much ammunition per 1,000 infantry per day as did the Americans."

MARSHAL FOCH'S MOTOR TO BE PRESENTED TO MUSEUM

Paris, Feb. 19.—Marshal Foch's field automobile, which carried all general missions to all parts of the west front during the critical phases of the war, was "knocked off" at auction here for 74,000 francs (normally $14,800). The government bought it for Marshal Foch at about one-fifth of that price. The present owner intends to present the machine to a museum.

MAY GO TO LONDON TO INSTALL KELLY AS DUBLIN MAYOR

London, Feb. 19.—A Dublin despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that if the lord mayor-elect of Dublin, Tom T. Kelly, is unable to be present at the ceremony of his installation in Dublin on next Monday, it is probable that the corporation officials, headed by the retiring lord mayor, will proceed to London and there confer the mayorship on the former prisoner, who is now under conditional release.

CRITICIZES THE AMERICANS

London, Feb. 19.—The New Witness, of which Gilbert K. Chesterton is editor, says:

"Yankee millionaires announce that they are ready to spend ten million pounds sterling to make England dry, or rather, those people in England who are not rich enough to obtain illicit drinks from stocks in secret cellars; but they refuse to pay out a farthing for the help of the starved children of Central Europe through whose misery America waxed fat."

"A great deal has been written as to the tightening of the bonds of brotherly affection between us and the United States. The war, to a certain extent, did ameliorate some of the traditional hostility of the average American, but in its place there has grown up this pitiful longing to interfere with our national customs and our national divinity. It is difficult to imagine anything more likely to cause permanent estrangement between the masses of people in this country and America than this crusade of Yankee Chadbands."

"If the American millionaires who have amassed colossal fortunes through the war want to save their consciences, let them devote their money to the starving children who are dying like flies for lack of food."

this morning. Search of the ruins of the Mother and Babes Escaped Death by Sliding Down

Fire Hose.

New York, Feb. 19.—Two babies and a woman escaped from a burning building at 405 East 19th street by sliding down a fire hose after the stairways had been shut off by the firemen for not having both lights in operation. The woman was so bewildered at finding that he had held up the city's chief magistrate that he forgot to file a report at headquarters. The mayor will ask the police commission to commend the policeman for his action.

BIG MARRIAGE BOOM CONTINUES IN FRANCE

Paris, Feb. 19.—The "marriage boom" which has been going on here for some time, reached its height during the last week, no fewer than 1,870 couples applying for licenses. French psychologists explain the explanation in this unprecedented "marriage craze" in the desire of war-tired men for quiet home life. They also believe the departure of the Canadian and United States soldiers has something to do with it, that French women seek compensation in motherhood for the lack of constant excitement and attention provided by entertaining allied soldiers.

MEETS DEATH BY EXPOSURE IN SNOWSHOE EXPEDITION

Dublin, N. H., Feb. 19.—Charles Mac-Veagh, Jr., of New York, a graduate student at Princeton and son of the consul for the United States Steel Corporation, died of exposure on Mount Monadnock during an attempt to snowshoe to the summit in company with Charles Reynolds, of New York, a graduate of Harvard. The two young men started on their trip early yesterday afternoon. A blinding snow storm came on, and they started back, but in the darkness they lost their way. Mac-Veagh gave up and died at four o'clock.
