POOR DOCUMENT

The Evening Times 4 Star

VOL. XV., No. 77.

ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1918

TWELVE PAGES—ONE CENT

DOVER AND Ship Carried In By Current

Only Explanation Captain can Give for Loss of Corinthian - Evidence of First Officer, Engineer, Wheelsman and Lookout Also Given at Inquiry Here ship struck?

A.—I was out at a quarter after one and gave the first officer special instructions to lokout for the buoy.

Q.—How long before the ship struck was there a passing shower?

A.—I cannot say as I was not on the

A.—A quartermaster. He was as good as the rest of them.
Q.—What time did the ship strike?
A.—Twenty-four minutes after two o'clock.

Q.—How often did you look at the compass to see if the man was steering the right course?

A.—Not after setting the course from Q.-Any allowance made for the current, wind, etc.?

A.—Not unless the captain made it into the loss of the C. P. Corinthian, which / ran on st ledge of Brier Island 20,000,000 IN RUSSIA THIS WINTER UNLESS ALLIES HELP GENEROUSL

IN HONOR TO KEEP

MR. AND MR. DAVIS GUEST AT BUCKINGHAM

A.—Not unless the captain made it when he took his course.

Q.—What was the state of the weather?

A.—The weather was clear at the time I saw the buoy. Prior to the vessel striking I was looking for the lighthouse, but could not see it.

Q.—When you saw the buoy what Q.—When you saw the buoy what was your first action?

A.—I put the helm hard over. When she struck there was no bump.

(Continued on page 12, third column)

KASER ILL; IN BED SINCE SUNDAY

Amerongen, Felland, Dec. 18—(By the Associated Press)—Former Empering that he hopes to secure a plebiscite on William has ben confined to his bed since Sunday with a severe chill. His indisposition has brought about a renewal of his old ear trouble.

The constant very of the last five weeks and his virtual imprisonment in Count Bentinck's catle here have changed his appearance considerably. Instead of the ruddy comexion he wore, his face has become ashen, his hair and moustache grey and his features deeply lined. Since he has laid abed with his illness his face has remained uns haven, and the seventy-two hours' growth of beard sens to have added ten years to his age.

For Brick Warehouse In Water Street

L. G. Crosby Makes Application.At City Hall

LONDON GIVE

WELCOME TO

Plumer, Rawlinson, Birdwood

Byng and Horne

Also Home

IGGER TIME LATER

Leader of Britain's Armies-

MARSHAL HAIG

NEW YORK INTERESTS

gued for Storage of Molasses Charges Awaits Recovery of

Peerage and Money Grant For Field Marshal Escerted to Buck-

was a strong wind and a choppy sea and he made allowance for that the had an inferior grade of coal and figured that his vessel was making a maximum triculty clear when the vessel struck. The man on the lookout did not report seeing the busy. It was only a minute after, the busy was sighted that the struck. He man on the lookout did not prove the state of the busy was sighted that the struck. He was just bearing all the house of these special that the struck of the busy was in position.

Looden, Dec. 19—In response to strong far as he could see the busy was in position.

Looden, Dec. 19—In response to strong far as he could see the busy was in position.

Looden, Dec. 19—In response to strong which is a point of specialiton, and price in the press against the secrecy far as the could see the busy was in position.

Looden, Dec. 19—In response to strong friends to a point of specialiton, and in the services of the individual of the services of the services of the individual of the services of t and the time the steamer struck?

A.—I went to look at it about 12.20. He said he figured the vessel was going about six and a half knots. After pasing Boar Head he said he thought he picked up Brier Island.

Q.—Did the master tell you at any time to look out for a buoy?

A.—I don't remember any definite orders to look out for a buoy?

Q.—Did you use the glasses from 12 o'clock?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—What kind of a man had you at the wheel?

A.—Was as The base of claims.

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—What kind of a man had you at the wheel?

A.—I was as The base of the said the thought in order to avoid fresh outbreaks.

A.—I don't remember any definite orders to look out for a buoy.

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—What kind of a man had you at the wheel?

A.—I was as The base of the said he thought in order to avoid fresh outbreaks.

A.—I don't remember any definite orders to look out for a buoy?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—What kind of a man had you at the wheel?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—What kind of a man had you at the wheel?

A.—I went to look at it about 12.20.

A base been takin in order to avoid fresh outbreaks.

NEW DUTES FOR GUARDS.

The three gards who had been on duty at the dook gates at West St. John on January 5," is the text of a the intention to withdraw trains Numbers 9 and 10 between Halifax and St. John on January 5," is the text of a the text of a the port of the C. G. R. He teleform Moncton in reply to a profest from the board against the cangular profest from the board agai REMOVE RESTRICTIONS of wa ive if INDUSTRIAL PURPOSES.

London, Dec. —After presenting his credentials to King George today John W. Davis, new American ambassador to Great Britain, and Mrs. Davis, had luncheon with King George and Queen Mary and other membes of the royal family at Buckingham Place.

INDUSTRIAL PURPOSES.

A communication from Moses & Toking asked for a return of the balance of their twenty per cent deposit on the East St. John water extension contract. The engineer advised that $1,000 had been returned and that the balance would not be more than enough to protect the city on the uncomplèted work. The request was rejected. ork. The request was rejected.

GIVE UP THEIR TOY TO HELP SOME KIDDIES IN STRICKEN BELGIUM

Yours truly,
TOMMY AND VIOLET,
Aged nine and fourteen.
To many also has received $5 for the fund from the Chance Harbor men's Institute, and $1 from the mary class of the Upper Gagetown
School for the school for the

SCRIPT AND PENNIES FOR EVERY CHILD IN

Another Instance of J. D. O'Connell's Generosity and Love for FRENCH PREMIER PAYS

Paris, Dec. 19—(Havas Agency)— A German mine which had been planted in a bridge at Guise has exploded, killing fifteen persons and injuring twenty-five, according to a Guise despatch to the Matin.

Sapper Leslie A., also is over CORSICIAN HERE ON SATURDAY. TRANSPORT part, director of

over the eastern portion of the con-tinent and fair weather prevails through-

Maritime-Moderate to fresh norther-Manume—Moderate to fresh northerly winds, fair and moderately cold to-day and on Friday.

Gulf and North Shire—Moderate winds, fair and cold today and on Fri-

President Wilson In London Next Thursday

King Gives up Plan of Christmas at Sandringham — Wilson May Return Home Sooner Than Expected

London, Dec. 19-King George, it was announced today, has cand

DEATHS IN FREDERICTON.

Fredericton, Dec. 18—Mrs. William Gilbert of Devon died in the Victoria hospital last night after an operation. She is survived by her husband, three sons and one daughter.

Albert Murray Schleyer died last night at his home in this city at the age of sixty-seven, after an illness with pneumonia. His wife, one brother, Andrew, and two sisters, Mrs. William B. Stith and Miss Ada Schleyer, of this city, survive. There also are three sons, Frank, Harold and Frederick, and one daughter, Mrs. Ernest Grant, of Somerville, Mass.

SATURDAY; TROOPSHIP AND HOSPITAL VESSEL

VISIT IRELAND RESIGNATION OF GOVERNMENT OF

ecording to a despatch received at Zurich from Stuttgart, says the Journal's correspondent there.

The central congress of the delegates from soldiers' and workmen's councils met in Berlin on Monday. The first session resulted in disorderly scenes. On Tuesday turbulent scenes continued.

GERMAN SUPER-GUN KILLED

SUING FOR DAMAGES
In the Supreme Court this morning,
His Honor Judge Crocket presiding, the case of Ella M. Fairbrother, administratrix, vs. Fegles Bellows Engineering Company, was taken up. The husband of the plaintiff was killed while in the employ of the defendant company at the new elevator, and the plaintiff now claims damages as administratrix. D. Mullin, K.C., is appearing for the plaintiff, and Fred R. Taylor, K.C., for the defendant. At this morning's sitting of the circuit court, His Honor discharged the petit jury, saying that this would be the last jury case which he would try at this circuit.

PRINCE BY WHILLAMS

Paris, Dec. 18—Figures are now made public regarding the number of persons killed during German air raids and by long range cannon in Paris. During the last ten months of the war there were 1,211 casualties from 396 bombs. The long range cannon fired 168 shells into Paris, killing 196 and wounding 417. On last Good Friday more than 100 persons were killed.

FORMER EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA AND CHILDREN ARE DOWN

Comparison for the long petron HAYWARD-BOND.

A pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the home of William Adams, Golden Grove, when his nicce, Miss Glendelia Bond, was united in marriage to Leslie A. Hayward, a returned veteran of the 26th Battalion, The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Gough in the presence of relatives. The bride was given away by her father, John Bond, of this city. Many beautiful presents were received by the bride, including cut glass and silver. Mr. and Mrs. Hayward will reside at Golden Grove.

The C. P. O. S. liner Corsican is due here on Saturday with a large consignment of mail and 1,043 passengers, as follows:—Forty-nine civilians, forty-six officers and 948 other ranks.

Halifax, N. S., Dec. 19—The hospital ship Essequibo, with 600 invalided Canadians, and the troop ship Regina with 2,000 returning soldiers are due to arrive here together early tomorrow morning. The troop ship will be handled first. The Essequibo, a former Royal Mail Packet liner, has made two trips to Halifax as a hospital ship.

NURSES TO DINE,
After more than four years of especially arduous duties, made arduous because of the shortage of woman power due to overseas drafts and Red Cross work at home, the nurses of the General Public Hospital Alumnae will dine tonight in a body at the Royal Hotel. It is the first bit of organized relaxation the white-capped ladies will have enjoyed for nearly five years. A delicious menu has been prepared and the dinner will be presided over by the matron of the hospital and president of the alumnae, Miss Mitchell. It is expected the nursing sisterhood of the city and vicinity—all graduates of the St. John institution—will be well represented. NURSES TO DINE.

CANADIANS IN CHRISTMAS HOCKEY MATCHES ON RHINE

day and on Friday.

Gulf and North Shire—Moderate winds, fair and cold today and on Friday.

New England—Fair tonight, slightly warmer, except in the interior of Maine;

Friday, fair and warmer.

London, Dec. 18—(Canadian Associated Press)—"The farther we get into Germany the more coldly polite is our reception," writes the correspondent with the Canadian corps. "Sullen looks are generously given, but the people on the whole are behaving tolerably well, some adopting an ingratiating attitude.

"The Canadian mails are arriving daily, bringing hundreds of Christmas gifts.

The men are securing supplies of skate's and hockey sticks so that the Canadians may play hockey on the Rhine during the holiday."