ABORN CO. TONIGHT

With Two Carloads of Scenery and Effects, The Big Aborn Opera Co. Arrived at Noon Today

Without the slightest doubt, the mammoth production of "The Bohemian Girl"—as it will be presented by the Aborn English Opera Co. tonight—will be the red letter musical attraction of the 1912.

MR. PILCHER

TENOR SOLOIST
13 Opera House season. When the audience tonight sees the highly dramatic escape of Devilshook with the stolen child over the burning bridge, and the pursuit of the cavalry men, they will realize the added interest which such effects represent. And this is a chief feature of one of the six big scenes, all of which enjoy a thriller.

Excellent seats remain for this evening's performance, for those who call today. Attention is directed to the bargain maine tomorrow.

SEVEN THOUSAND HEAR SIR WILFRID

Monk's Revolt the Beginning of the End, Declares Liberal Chieftain in Sorel

Sorel, Que., Oct. 22.—Before an audience of over 7,000 people gathered from Sorel and all parts of Richelieu county and with a large contingent of some thousands brought in by excursion trains from Montreal, Three Rivers, Nicolet, Berthier, and St. Hyacinthe, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and a goodly number of his chief Liberal helpers today made appeals for the election of A. P. J. Cardin, Liberal candidate in Richelieu county against E. A. D. Morgan.

Sir Wilfrid expressed great confidence in the result of the election, even going so far as to predict that as Sept. 21 was spoken of as a memorable day, Oct. 24, the date of the election in Richelieu, would be another day which would be referred to.

He and all the other speakers made constant references to the reported intention of the Hon. P. D. Monk to resign on the party question, Sir Wilfrid declaring it as "the beginning of the end."

He spoke rather unsympathetically of Mr. Monk and his supposed situation, saying that he would have deserved sympathy and respect if he were resigning to save his honor, after having made conditions to Mr. Borden before accepting the portfolio without seeing the inevitable outcome.

Appeals were also made to the electors for the election of Mr. Cardin on the ground that Sir Rodolphe Forget had visited Sorel on the previous evening, that a mysterious sack had been on view at Conservative headquarters on the same evening and that therefore the independent electors of Richelieu county should vote for the Liberal candidate as an answer to the smirch thereby caused upon their reputation.

The train from Montreal bringing in Sir Wilfrid Laurier and about 100 others from Montreal was met at the station by Mayor Lafreniere, and the leader of the opposition was led to the stand in the park where already a large audience was gathered. After the band had played and a large number of bombs had been exploded, two young ladies presented two bouquets of flowers for the town and for the county Liberal Association, being rewarded in the usual manner.

The crowd applauded the speakers liberally and the whole afternoon passed off without incident except the some of the citizens, who were very much Liberal, objected to the presence of the Conservative speaker, and to a popular remark he made towards the end of the meeting and asked him to go. Not wishing to make a disturbance he withdrew after having listened to speeches in which his name was often referred to, although without detraction.

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN; WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

A BUNCH OF KEYS.
When a musical farce can continue to interest the public without winning a murmur of complaint, and do this for many, many seasons, it stands to reason that it must possess uncommon virtues as an entertainment of proper fun and melody quality. This Hoyt's A Bunch of Keys has done, and fairly and squarely, no wonder then that its announced presentation at the Opera House next Friday and Saturday is exciting so much interest.

In conjunction with the usual supply of fun and music numbers, a whole raft of novelties, and novelties of the telling variety, are scheduled—some of them quite extraordinary, too; and a cast of singers, dancers and comedians to warrant faith in a night of jollity and good cheer.

REHEARSALS PROCEEDING SPLENDIDLY.
The rehearsals for Alice in Wonderland, the fairy spectacle to be put on for the playgrounds benefit early in November, are eminently successful and as if by magic the hundreds of children and adults in the big double cast have acquired the songs, "dances" and "business" of the piece.

Day and night Miss Hope Leonard and her assistants are drilling the various dances, and with a few preliminary full-stage presentations on the Nickel stage between five and seven p.m., the show will be ready for the final dress rehearsal. "Alice" is going to be a very pretentious production, with splendid costuming, scenery and lighting effects. It will be funny, jingling and spectacular, and aside from the entertainment features of it, the public is showing its interest by buying tickets generously.

THE PASSING OF MR. MONK FROM CABINET; THE COMPLICATIONS

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—After one year and twelve days in office, as minister of public works, Hon. Frederick DeLoover Monk at noon today took away the last of his personal papers from his office in the west block, and drove to Rideau Hall and took formal leave of the governor-general, and this afternoon left as a private independent member of parliament for a three week's holiday at Atlantic City and other points in the United States.

"I shall return to take my seat at the opening of parliament," he said to your correspondent before leaving. "Meanwhile I welcome this release from the constant worries of office. I am going where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest."

As has already been forecasted the public works department will be administered by Hon. George E. Parley, minister without portfolio, until Premier Borden succeeds in straightening out the present troubles of finding a successor to Mr. Monk and of securing a seat for that successor.

The premier, in an inspired statement, handed out to the ministerial press has sought to make it appear that Mr. Monk believes in an emergency contribution and differs only with the government on the ground that even an emergency contribution should be made conditional upon ratification by the electors through a plebiscite.

This attempt to make the cabinet split less embarrassing to the government by maintaining that on the vital issue as to the existence of the "emergency" there is no difference of opinion is, however, somewhat too palpable a subterfuge.

Mr. Monk's personal loyalty to Premier Borden and his desire not to unduly embarrass his former colleagues make him reticent in discussing, for publication, his real views as to the alleged "emergency," but his own words to your correspondent today are significant.

"While I think," he said, "assistance from Canada would be gladly welcomed by Great Britain at the present time. Yet I do not believe the need is so urgent that the government would not be justified in waiting long enough at least to consult the people before embarking on any naval policy."

It is also significant that following Mr. Borden's interview with Mr. Monk here on Sunday, the editor of LeDevoir now states in his paper his doubts as to the correctness of Premier Borden's declaration of Mr. Monk's belief that the situation should be made conditional upon ratification by the electors through a plebiscite.

Le Devoir says practically that such an avowal of the emergency cannot be relied upon as coming from Mr. Monk himself. And it is further worth noting that Mr. Monk is presumably in possession of all the facts learned by Premier Borden in England last summer and placed before the cabinet here.
