Along The Sport Trail

By RAY HANSEN

SINCE A. W. COVEY, former president of the Maritime Branch of the A. A. U. of C., resigned from office and A. C. Millie of Halifax took over the position there has been considerable discord. It seems hardly fair to place the blame for this on the president, but when he took office he assumed all responsibility and must now take the bitter with the sweet. During the past few weeks several questions have been submitted to him by Secretary Sterling, but in the majority of cases they were left unanswered. Why? His action in appointing Mr. Walcott of Halifax as president of the Maritime Basketball Association is said to be unconstitutional and affairs in that branch are said to be in a state of chaos. A ruling handed down at the semi-annual meeting that a junior who competes in senior competition is no longer eligible to play with juniors is said to be a high handed piece of legislation and is not in accordance with the rules. Reports that players who competed in professional games are hopeful of being reinstated only tends to make the situation more acute. In other words discord is rife among the amateur officials and unless it can be nipped in the bud there is no telling what the outcome will be.

OLD TIME BASEBALL fans will read with interest that George Whitman of Norton has been appointed one of the official umpires of the King's County League. Many will recall that George was the star catcher for the Old Nationals in this city in the days when they clashed with the Shamrocks for premier honors.

THE BOXING BOUT in Moncton tonight between Nixey Kennedy of Halifax and Reg. Harper of this city for the Maritime lightweight championship should be a thriller. Keen rivalry has existed between these boys for some time and as both are eager to win the title there is no doubt they will set a terrific pace. The bout is being held in conjunction with the Maritime wrestling championships and should be the feature event on the card. In the latter three Saint John boys are to participate. Leo McCrossin, who will defend his title as lightweight champion, Bud McCarthy in the 145 pound class and Pat Kennedy who is entering the 125 pound class. All three will represent the Y. M. C. I. and are expected to return home with honors.

LOCAL FANS will be interested in an announcement that Joe Irvine is to appear in a bout here in the near future. It is many a long day since Joe showed his wares here and his reappearance will undoubtedly be welcomed by fans in general. It is up to Joe to show them that he has the goods.

WHEREVER boxing enthusiasts congregate the question of former great fights is sure to come up. Many will refer to this or that bout as the most sensational in modern times, but close followers of the sport must concede that the battle between Kid Lavigne and Joe Walcott which took place many years ago was in a class by itself. Tom O'Rourke, who managed Walcott, and was one of the wisest ring mentors in America, says it was a soul-stirring struggle between two of the greatest men the prize ring ever saw or ever will see. He referred to Joe Walcott as one of the hardest hitters in the ring who packed more dynamite in either glove than any of the heavyweights. Lavigne, he said, was made of rawhide and iron, a bulldog in attack and a broncho in staying power. He considered him one of the greatest and toughest men that ever drew on a glove and says that present day scrappers would be pigmies in the hands of either one of the boxers. He refers to the battle as one fraught with more desperate fighting than any since held, being a fierce, savage give and take conflict from the first until the final clang of the gong. An account of this memorable bout will be published in The Times-Star in the near future and should prove interesting to all boxing fans.

This series will start in The Times-Star sport page on Monday evening and will be published daily. Fans who are eager to learn the fine points of the game should clip these articles and save them for future reference.

MACKMEN FORCE CLEVELAND OUT OF FIRST PLACE

Champion Senators Are Turned Back By Chicago

NEW YORK, May 9.—A decisive blow has been struck by Major League teams of the east in their first brush with western foes.

The first push of the western invasion was repelled on all four points of attack in the National League, while only one of the Eastern quartette in the American, failed to penetrate the inner defences of the west. The single exception found the champion Washington Senators beaten back by Chicago White Sox, as the result of an error by Ruel, in the eighth, 4 to 3.

Athletics In Lead

With timely batting behind the superb pitching of Sam Gray, who has yet to meet a reverse, this season, the Philadelphia Athletics forced the Cleveland Indians out of first place, and rose to the peak themselves.

The Boston Americans again exchanged places with the Tigers, crowding Cobb's men into the cellar with a barrage of hits, which gave them a 15 to 7 victory.

Shut Out Browns

Two pitchers hurled against former team mates, as the Yankees emerged from their losing slump, with a one sided decision over the Browns, 12 to 0. Joe Bush, former Yankee, was driven from the mound by the New Yorkers in the second, but Stucker, although he shut out his former mates, was unable to stop the consecutive game hitting streak of George Shier.

A homer by Bill Southworth with the bases loaded in the ninth after two batters had been retired snatched victory from defeat for the New York Giants in their opener with the Cardinals, 5 to 2. The Reds fell before the brilliant pitching of the Brooklyn pitcher, Rube Ehrhardt, 3 to 2.
