DONATIONS.

From May 1894, to May, 1895.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixon.—$1 to divide among the children, 3 barrels of apples, 1 barrel potatoes, 2 bunches bananas, ice chest, carcase of lamb, crate of strawberries, turkey, pair of fowls, hams, piece of corn beef, box biscuits box pears, 3 barrels apples, kindling, barrel potatoes, load of kindling, cake box, biscuits, bag candies, 6 dozen oranges, 2 cakes, 6 pies, 2 cakes, 6 dozen buns, ham, box candies, 6 dozen eggs, load of kindling.

Mr. Rent.—Bake tins, strainer, kettle, soup plates.

Mr. Lawler, Dartmouth.—Barrel flour.

Mrs. Blackadar.—Mattress, 1 barrel apples, dress, pictures, material for Xmas pudding, cards for scrap book, strawberries for children, soap fat, tin bread pan. Thanksgiving afternoon a very enjoyable time was given by Mr. and Mrs. Blackadar to the children.

Mrs. Hesslein.—Strawberries for children, large cake, ham and cake, 4 dozen eggs, soap greese.

Mrs. Corbett.—Milk for two months.

Friend.—Barrel apples.

Mrs. Kellogg.—Xmas letters for the children.

The Misses. Ritchie.—Turkey.

Mrs. Payzant.—Cake, turkey, goose.

Mrs. Pyke.—Dolls clothes, 2 boxes of biscuits, 2 pair boots, ham, box raisins, 1 pound soda, 1 pound cream tartar.

Mrs. W. Silver.—Cotton dresses for the girls and a piece of blue serge for winter dresses.

Miss Hodgers.—Cake several times and aprons and stockings.

Mrs. Uniacke.—1 cake and 6 pies, plants for the garden, milk every day, soap fat, pieces for patch work, 3 umbrellas, 1 piece sheeting

Judge Ritchie.—Milk every day for some months.

New Range, funds collected by Mrs. Blackadar and Mrs. Pyke.

Sewing machine also by subscription.

Mr. G. Smith.—Combs, soap, cards and kindling wood.

Mr. Shatford.—Manure for garden.

Mr. Reardon.—Paper and dado for school room, papered and painted dining room, whitewashed all the ceilings, colour washed all the basement and hospital, papered upper hall and gave 9 new spring blinds.

Mr. Hoare.—Paper for room and ink.

Miss Tremaine.—Turkey.