Reservist Snow

Visits Old Home

Reservist James Snow, son of the late James and Charlotte Snow, and brother of Mr. George Snow, arrived here on a short visit by Saturday's express. This is Mr. Snow's first visit to his native town since he left here 19 years ago. During that time he has travelled extensively in the United States and Canada. He spent three years in the United States Navy.

Shortly after the outbreak of this war he joined H.M.C.S. Niobe at Halifax, serving as leading stoker. The Niobe is now out of commission. Reservist Snow returned to Halifax by Wednesday's express to join a Canadian Regiment which will be sent across to England at an early date. The many friends of Reservist Snow were glad to see him, as they express the sincere hope that he may return at the close of the war safe and sound.

Five Naval

Reservists Missing

Five Nfld. Naval Reservists are reported missing, their ship, an armed drifter, having been blown up by a drifting mine in the North Sea. They are as follows:—

Victor Joseph Benoit, Cape St. George.
Walter James Hynes, Port au Port.
Stephen Sparks, Georgetown, Bight.
William Mark Woodridge, Fogo.
George Hussey LeBlond, Cupids.
In our issue of Sept. 24th we published an interesting letter from Reservist LeBlond.

WAB NEWS

The war situation has assumed a new phase, particularly in the Balkans. Bulgaria has joined Germany and Austria and has declared war on Serbia. Austro-German troops have invaded Serbia and taken Belgrade, but at a great cost of life.

Greece is standing aloof, claiming that present conditions do not require her to fulfil her treaty with Serbia. Meanwhile, Allied troops are landing at Salonika in Greece to assist the Serbians, and Russian troops are also being rushed to the scene.

Rumania is armed and watching. Greece's and Rumania's sympathies are no doubt with Serbia. Italy, so far, is not taking any part in the Balkan campaign. Her troops are constantly forcing the Austrians back. The Dardanelle operations are likely to be given up for awhile, at least.

The Russians have commenced to drive the Austro-German back, and are meeting with considerable success. French and British troops in France and Belgium are following up their big recent success by a further advance. British submarines are active in the Baltic Sea, and a number of German ships have been sunk.

Efforts are being made to get the Japanese to send soldiers to Europe to participate in the struggle.

Dr. Geisel Addresses The Women and Children

On Thursday morning, Oct. 7th, in the Meth. School Hall Dr. Geisel addressed a gathering of the women and children of Bay Roberts and adjacent settlements. Her talk to the women consisted mainly of advice on health matters, food, drinks, etc. To keep healthy every day and a cold sponge bath daily. Children should sleep in rooms with windows open. Referring to the Nfld. climate Dr. Geisel said: You have wonderful crisp air here and wonderful water. If mothers don't do a good job raising men, the country will suffer. She again pointed out the evil effects of alcohol and urged the women to help the men root out the liquor traffic.

After her address was finished a Women's Prohibition League was organized with the following officers:

President, Mrs. Maud Mercer.
Vice-Pres., Mrs. D. G. Fraser.
Rec. Secy., Mrs. D. A. McLean.
Treasurer, Miss Marie Jones.
Cor. Secy., Miss Hilda Jardina.
Reorganizing Officer, Mrs. Adj. Elsworth.
Convener Campaign Committee, Mrs. J. F. Hambling.

A vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. C. E. Russell and seconded by Mrs. James Norman, which was carried by a standing vote.

Make Campaign A Success

(Editor the Guardian).

Dear Sir:—As a subscriber to your esteemed paper I have noticed with pleasure the patriotic fervor exhibited on the question of Prohibition. Bay Roberts is certainly setting a splendid example of enthusiasm in her determined stand against the unrelenting monster of intemperance.

The outposts are awakening to the grand opportunity awaiting them in the near future, and realizing it is rapid to the rally song for Prohibition. The battle against the giant headed monster of Strong Drink is to reach its climax on Nov. 4, and the manhood of Terra Nova is showing splendid evidence of a fixed determination to shell him into oblivion by their votes.

Every newspaper in the Island will do well to take a well-defined position on this question. As we need a little education as to the merits of Prohibition. It is unthinkable that the honest and industrious sons of Terra Nova would fail to do their duty in this matter. If they are sufficiently instructed as to the economic, social and moral benefits to be derived from Prohibition.

Our intelligence is on a par with that of Russia, France, United States or any other country where the people are awakened to the value of Prohibition and swinging into line. What an opportunity is now within our grasp! Britain's oldest colony, characterized by the sturdiest and best of all that makes true manhood, will surely demonstrate these qualities when the vote is polled.

We need not fear indifference where the issues are placed fairly before our people. Then, by a well directed freedom, may our sons of freedom be awakened to the privileges of striking a death blow to the monster that holds into abject slavery all who get within his clutches.

Yours in the temperance fight,
THE DRUNKARD'S FRIEND.

Meeting Women's Prohibition Auxiliary

A meeting of the Women's Prohibition Auxiliary was held in the Methodist School Hall on Wednesday night. About 50 members were present.

After our worthy President, Mrs. Maud Mercer, opened the meeting, the Secretary read the minutes, also the names of the ladies who became members. At the organization meeting quite a number were absent. The President would like to have all women who are interested in Prohibition to attend our next meeting.

In reference to the letter read by the president during the meeting, owing to the non-attendance of teachers, no action could be decided.

The Nfld. Quarterly, autumn number, is for sale at the Guardian office. 10c per copy. Call and get a copy.

Mrs. Howland, the lady lecturer who has been touring the North in the interests of Prohibition, is expected to visit Bay Roberts on Wednesday, 20th inst., and will hold a meeting in the Public Building at 8 p.m.

A meeting of the Colby's Point Prohibition Committee will be held on Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. All who have not yet signified their intention of joining the committee and who wish to do so are invited to attend.

Note of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. John J. French wish to thank all those who helped them in any way during their little girl's illness. Also those who sent wreaths to adorn her coffin, namely: Mrs. Augustus Menchions, Mrs. William J. French, Mrs. Arch Bradbury, Miss Jennie Badcock, Miss Winnie Bradbury, Miss Pearl French, Miss Renie and Hazel French, Miss Nellie Sparks, Miss Daisy Bradbury, Miss Winifred French, Miss Marjorie Dale, Miss Marcella French, Miss Emmie Parsons, Miss Gwennie Balson and Mr. Malcolm French.

A Poor Man's Question

This Prohibition question is a workingman's question. You ask, Why? Because it is the working man and his family who suffers the most from the effects of intoxicating liquor. You ask again, Why? Because the workingman—be he fisherman, laborer, mechanic or clerk—is usually employed in dangerous places, and under the influence of liquor very often loses his life.

A short time ago in St. John's and other places in the Colony about ten accidents occurred within a month or so, resulting in the loss of life in each case. Some of these fatal accidents may be traced to strong drink.

The newspapers do not always give the cause out of respect for the feelings of the relatives of the dead man, but in reading the account of the tragedy one can very often read between the lines.

Hence, many fatal and other accidents are the result of strong drink. But supposing there were only one or two every 12 months, we ask: Does it Pay?

Casualties in Nfld. Regiment

A number of our volunteers fighting in the Dardanelles are reported wounded. Some have died from wounds and other causes, and others have been killed. Chesley Mercer, who was wounded, is a native of Bay Roberts, but lived in St. John's with his parents for a number of years.

NEWS IN A LINE

The schr. Keestrel arrived here from Labrador this (Friday) morning with freighters.

Labrador sleep fish is fetching good prices at present, and the price is still likely to advance. The fisherman who can hold on the longest to his fish is almost certain to get a good price for it.

The schr. Laura C. James Bradbury, master, became a total loss when she was driven ashore at Sloop Hr., Labrador, during the big storm of Sept. 28th. She was owned by Fradham & Co.

The Sagona arrived at St. John's from Labrador 7 o'clock Thursday evening. She went as far north as Hopedale, and had fine weather. She leaves again at 10 p.m. Saturday night.

The Erik arrived at St. John's from Labrador at 8 o'clock Thursday morning, after experiencing a very stormy trip. All the floaters have left northern Labrador, and below Grady the fishery is over. She brought 300 passengers, including five shipwrecked crews.

The Nfld. Quarterly, autumn number, is for sale at the Guardian office. 10c per copy. Call and get a copy.

Mrs. Howland, the lady lecturer who has been touring the North in the interests of Prohibition, is expected to visit Bay Roberts on Wednesday, 20th inst., and will hold a meeting in the Public Building at 8 p.m.

A meeting of the Colby's Point Prohibition Committee will be held on Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. All who have not yet signified their intention of joining the committee and who wish to do so are invited to attend.

Mr. James Mercer, manager of Arctic Indigestion Cure, left on Wednesday for the west coast with a large quantity of medicine.

Word has reached us of an enthusiastic temperance meeting held at Catalina on Tuesday night, the 12th inst., in the Orange Hall. The three representatives of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. Howland, Mrs. Benedict and Mrs. Pippy, were accorded a splendid reception. The hall was packed, and the response of the audience evinced a hearty interest in the Prohibition issue.
