LABOR TROUBLES.

NEW YORK, May 25.—There are 165,000 idle men in New York city, notwithstanding the fact that every line of business is booming in the city. These men but for strikes, lockouts and disensions among rival labor unions would be earning a total of $660,000 a day or $3,960,000 a week.

Not only is every penny of this stupendous sum lost to them, but industries and firms representing a capitalization of $550,000,000 are at a standstill, with a consequent loss of profits.

The trade paralysis here has reached a stage more extensive than any heretofore known, even during periods of great industrial depression.

Most of the workmen are idle not for any act of their individual unions but for the acts of other unions or because of the recent decision of the employers to stand together and fight the demands of one union by throwing the workmen of many unions into idleness.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MAY 26, 1903.

CANADA'S FUTURE.

Canada's Challenge to the World is the title of an article by Mr. J. D. Whelpley in Collier's Weekly. It is illustrated by excellent portraits of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Cartwright, Mulock, Fielding, Fitzpatrick, and the opposition leader, Mr. R. L. Borden.

The challenge of Canada, according to Mr. Whelpley, is for a battle to be fought at the customs houses, and the prize is the readiest access to the Canadian market. Hereafter it must be concession for concession, or tariff for tariff.

Mr. Whelpley very cleverly sets forth the wonderful development of Canada and the vigor and independent spirit of her people, but like some other American writers, he cannot get away from the notion that annexation may be one of the possibilities of the future. If such a movement should ever start, it would start, he says, in the west, which "is more American and in closer touch with the United States," though the maritime provinces of the Atlantic coast would offer slight opposition.

An American author is not the most reliable source of information on the subject of Canadian sentiment and aspirations. Our interesting cousins cannot divest themselves of the notion that their country is so vastly superior to all others that annexation must be regarded as the greatest goal of a creditable national ambition. It may be quite true, as Mr. Whelpley says, that when the Western part of Canada has further developed there will be differences of opinion between east and west on the subject of fiscal policy, but there is no reason whatever for the assumption that "to keep eastern and western Canada together is the great problem of government at Ottawa." There will be quite as much sympathy between east and west in this country as in the United States. The problems, and they will certainly be great, that will arise for solution in the next quarter of a century, may arouse deep feeling and some friction, but Canada is one and indivisible. Annexation would not solve a single problem to the satisfaction of the Canadian people. This country flourishes today in face of a decidedly hostile American tariff. It will be better able to do so when it has reached a greater stage of development, and become more closely united with the rest of the empire. This country has no chip on its shoulder, but it begins to know what it wants.

A subscribed to the New York Herald writes to that paper:

As an American and a Christian, I deeply deplore and condemn the outrages against the Jews at Kishineff, Germany's similar action in the matter would not justify it. But can we cast stones at Russia, when we consider the lynching in the south; the brutal attacks and murder of non-union laborers and strike breakers, whose only crime was that they wanted to earn an honest living; the outrages in California and elsewhere against the Chinese before the Exclusion Act, whose only crime was that they did household service and other labor cheaper than the white man? These outrages were in many cases unpunished and sometimes done with the connivance of the civil authorities.

Of the Liverpool lumber market the Timber Trades Journal of May 16th says:

Spruce deals are still on the same price grade that they have been for some months past. But now the small shipments by the winter fleets and the deals have stopped, and the new import of direct shipments are at hand, we should expect better prices than have been had hitherto for inferior shipments from St. John, N. B., composed of large portions of narrow deals.

THE LATE MISS HURDER.

The funeral of Miss Clara K. Hurder was held from her late residence, Pokok, on Sunday afternoon, and was very largely attended. There were many beautiful floral tributes, including a bank of roses, smilax and carnations from Messrs. Taylor and White and employees; a triangle of roses, carnations, hyacinths and smilax, an emblem of love, purity and sympathy from St. George's Division, Sons of Temperance, of which she was a member; carnations and sprigs from Miss A. Granville; cream roses and carnations, Miss F. O'Leary; and carnations, Mrs. and Miss Stages; violets, Mrs. Hunter and Edna Armstrong; cream roses, stalk and smilax, Miss E. Lowrey.

THEY WERE LOCKED UP.

The Calais correspondent of the Bangor Commercial writes:

"St. John and Fredericton advance contingents to the Victoria day sports, arrived by C. P. R. Saturday evening, and were much in evidence in the city during the hours preceding midnight. Some of the Fredericton boys were in a hilarious mood and gathered in by the police, spending the balance of the night in the cooler. They were somewhat subdued in spirit when they were released, Sunday morning, and lost no time in seeking the protection of their own Canadian home. The action of the police in arresting the visitors was severely criticised by the boys who were around Sunday forenoon, but the cops were in all probability doing what they considered their duty."

HALIFAX, May 25.—Victoria day was observed in Halifax by an entire cessation of business. This remark is true also of other towns throughout the province.

At Sydney, Cape Breton, the event of the day was the trotting race, Kate Willard won in the 2.30 class, defeating Joe Younghart and Benny F. in 2.36 1/4. In the 2.28 class Viola Mackay won, defeating Doll Tom and Molly King in 2.31 1/4.

MORNING'S NEWS.

LOCAL.

The non-coms, of the 62nd regiment cleared upwards of one hundred dollars at their recent entertainment. The proceeds are devoted to the running of their mess.

The Canadian Drug Co. has bought the vacant lot on the western side of Mill street, next to T. H. Zetserbrook's new building, and will put up a building there.

At the anniversary services of Carleton Baptist church on Sunday the collection of both services totalled $285.75.

An improvement has recently been made in most of the open cars which will be appreciated by all patrons of the street railway. The lower part of the lattice work on the left side of the cars has been boarded over, so that on rainy days when the blinds are drawn down a complete waterproof protection is afforded to passengers.

The authorities in charge of the jail have not as yet been notified that the male prisoners will be put to work at the park today or Wednesday. No clothing has been received at the jail, so that it is unlikely that people will enter upon the performance of hard labor for some days to come.

The joint meeting of both ship laborers' organizations will be held this evening in York Theatre, which every member is expected to attend, so that all the details for the amalgamation will be carried out. The members of the trades and labor council are requested to take seats on the platform.

ACCUSED OF STEALING.

Jack McLean, the giant catcher for the Roses base ball team, is in trouble again. This time he is charged with having stolen a large sum of money from a guest at the Grand Union Hotel, where he has been stopping. His brother, Chas. D. McLean, whose record is none of the best, is coupled with him in the charge.

The big base ball player has been under suspicion of having committed this offense since Sunday night, and all day yesterday was under the close surveillance of the police. He has been arrested every time during the day, but rather than spoil the holiday sport the police contented themselves with watching him closely until the last inning of the afternoon game on the Victoria grounds had been closed, when the arrest was made.

If Jack McLean was mixed up in this business and had any idea he was suspected he has a wonderful nerve, for he never played better ball here than he did yesterday. And in addition to brilliant work behind the bat and at bat he provided lots of amusement for the spectators with the running fire of course, which he showed upon the unfortunate umpire.

In the morning game, while with the rest of the team he could not connect with Cy Coombs' wonderful curves, he caught a splendid game, having four put outs and five assists to his credit with not a blot in the error sheet.

During the afternoon game he got two effective hits, scored one of the eight runs tallied by the Roses, made ten put outs and three assists, marring his record by only one trifling error.

The record book at the central police station last night announced the arrest of John B. McLean, 25 years of age, and Charles D. McLean, aged 19, natives of the United States, on suspicion of having stolen from Wm. J. Wilbur, of Bathurst, in the Grand Union hotel on May 24 the sum of $381.

Mr. Wilbur, who is a man of good reputation, has visited St. John on many occasions. He is a brother of Percy Wilbur of Bathurst, and James Wilbur of Woodstock. Mr. Wilbur came to St. John on Saturday and spent some hours with friends here. Having missed the train going north Sunday Mr. Wilbur returned to the city. During the afternoon he went to his room to have a sleep and when he woke up it was to discover that he had lost all the money he had in a pocket book located in his trouser pocket. No complaint was made to the police station till early yesterday morning and then the police began to inquire into the matter.

After careful inquiries Deputy Chief Jenkins and Detective Killen decided that the two McLean boys must have been the parties who relieved Mr. Wilbur of his money. They were seen with him the police are reported to have discovered that the McLeans are reported to have been possessed of means never previously known to have been in their hands. Chas. D. McLean had $155 on his person when he was arrested.

Twin Sullivan Fought to a Draw in London.

LONDON, May 25.—At the National Sporting Club tonight, Jack Palmer of Newcastle met "Twin" Sullivan of Boston in a contest for the middleweight championship of England and Ireland. The American made a first stand, but the men were so evenly matched that at the close of the fifteenth round the referee decided in favor of a draw. This decision was appreciated by alms' partisans. The final rounds witnessed some desperate fighting, and Sullivan finished the stronger of the two men.

One Thousand People Saw Littlejohn of St. John Almost Counted Out.

(Special to the Sun.)

HALIFAX, May 25.—One thousand people saw the bout at the Militia Armories between Harry Snelling of Quebec, recently of Boston, and Dan Littlejohn of St. John, who has fought frequently in the New England States. The men went the limit, ten rounds. The fighting was hard and fast and scientific. Snelling was exceedingly shifty on his feet, escaping many left swings and upper-cuts. He did nearly all the leading and rushed his opponent several times to the ropes. Soberly, he did his fastest work in the tenth round. At the opening he led for Littlejohn's jaw and forced him to his corner. He upset him twice and then dazed him with a left hand swing, having him groggy as the going sounded the call of time, saving Littlejohn from a knockout. The fight was awarded to Snelling.

John Taylor of St. John and John McInyre of Halifax, featherweights, were to have gone five rounds, but Taylor was knocked out in the eighth.

GOOD SHOOTING.

Coveted Trophy Won by E. Farren Yesterday.

Members of the St. John Rifle Association turned out in large numbers yesterday morning to shoot for the Corporation cup, a trophy which is coveted more than any other by the members of the association's long list. A breeze was blowing, but it did not interfere with the shooting in the shorter range work, but in the 600 yards' competition it came every moment or so in strong gusts, throwing the calculations of the marksmen entirely out. AFTERNOON GAME.

Roses, 8; Alerts, 1.

The afternoon game was witnessed by probably the largest crowd that ever attended a ball game on the Victoria grounds. Despite the fact that an extra fifteen cents was charged for the grand stand it was not large enough to hold half the number that wanted to get into it. The benches were crowded to suffocation, while the crowd around the outfield was so large that a special ground rule was necessary, viz: that a hit into the crowd was good for two bases.
