LORD CRUZON RESIGNS BECAUSE OF FRICTION WITH KITCHENER.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The resignation of Lord Curzon Kedleston as viceroy of India and the appointment of the Earl of Minto as his successor was announced at the India office tonight.

According to the correspondence, which is issued in the form of a white book, it appears that Lord Curzon's resignation was called to that office on August 12.

The correspondence shows a decidedly bitter feeling between Lord Curzon, the India office and Lord Kitchener, commander in chief of the forces in India, over the new scheme of army administration in India.

Lord Curzon's dissatisfaction came to a head with the refusal of the cabinet to appoint Major General Sir Edmund Barrow on Lord Curzon's recommendation military member of the council.

Replying on Aug. 2 to the refusal of Mr. Brodrick, secretary of state for India, to make this appointment, Lord Curzon requests that the government reconsider its decision "in order to enable me to accept the responsibility which I infer His Majesty's government still desires me to assume."

Mr. Brodrick again refused to comply with the request for the appointment of Major General Barrow, and Lord Curzon replied as follows:

"It is apparent that His Majesty's government deny me that confidence which alone can enable me to serve them and attach a fundamentally different interpretation from myself to the modifications upon the acceptance of which I alone consented to remain in office. The situation therefore remains where it was when I resigned in June. If the government are unable to accept my views, I request the premier to place my resignation in the hands of His Majesty."

To this Mr. Brodrick replied that there was a request from Mr. Balfour that Lord Curzon reconsider his determination. In a final despatch, however, dated Aug. 12, Lord Curzon says:

"The main question is not the choice of individuals, but one of the principles underlying a future change in our administration. I am reluctantly driven to the conclusion that the policy of His Majesty's government is based on principles that I could not conscientiously carry into execution. In the interests of the new organization it is desirable that I should be relieved of my duties with as little delay as possible."

To this Mr. Balfour himself replied that he had "with the most profound regret submitted Lord Curzon's resignation to the King."
