ST. ROSES TRIMMED

The St. Peter's team, the leaders of the league race, are gradually dropping down the ladder and the St. Joseph's, last season's champions, who were down to third place on the schedule, are now only a rung back of the leaders in the race for the top of the

With only one game lost the St. Reter's have romped along the season, winning from every team they went against until they won nine games with only one lost. The North End fans and others could not see where the North End boys could lose, as they champions, the St. Joseph's, dropped away back to third position. A few defeats by the St. Peter's and some wins by the champions have made the latter team dangerous, and their friends are predicting that the purples will again take the champion-ship, while the North End boys are ship, while the North End boys are confident that they can't lose.

About 400 persons watched last evening's game. Burke pitched the first two innings for the North Enders, and while he was only touched for two singles, he hit a man, gave one base on balls and his support made three errors, with the result that the St. Rose's made five runs, which won the game. Burke was taken out of the game and Howe put in the box in the third with F. Mahoney on third. He had a wild pitch, gave a base on balls, hit a man, and was touched for a single, b ut no more runs were made. a single, b ut no more runs were made the box. A base on balls and an error gave St. Peter's a run in the first inning and a base on balls, a stolen base, an error with a sacrifice hit gave another run in the fourth inning.

LONGBOAT REINSTATED

BY THE C. A. A. U.

TORONTO, July 16.—Tom Longboat, the Indian runner suspended by the C. A. A. U. Friday, was reinstated by the same body this morning. The registration committee found that Longboat had been suspended from active membership in the West End Y. M. C. A. on account of affairs not connected with athletics. On inquiry it was found that there was no likelihood of his being restored to good standing in the West End Y. M. C. A. His certificate of membershp with the West End club has been withdrawn.
