In the presence of only the immediate friends and relatives, a very pretty wedding was performed, when William Alexander Ferguson of Northport, Cumberland County, N. S., was united in marriage to Miss Lena Rivers McCutcheon, of Cambridge, at the residence of Mrs. Tait McCutcheon, Main street. Rev. B. H. Nobles was the officiating clergyman, and the groom was supported by Dr. Thos. D. McCutcheon of Philadelphia, brother of the bride, while the bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Jennie B. McCutcheon. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and costly presents, among which was a beautiful silver tea service from the nurses and JERSEY DEMANDS CUP silver tea service from the nurses and friends of Cambridge Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson will take up their residence at Northport.

McEachen, the man who was shot, is unmarried and about 25 years of age. He worked at No. 2 colliery and went on strike when the strike began. He has therefore borne a good character and is well spoken of as a sober and decent man.

Stoning of the houses of men who are working is almost a nightly occurrence and it is a wonder that some such similar affair as that which took place this morning has not occurred before this.

Today's output of coal from banks and miniss will total about 11,000 tons. Of this amount the collieries produced 5,700 tons approximately.

Wm. Turner was arrested at No. 2 colliery today, charged with loitering and threatening to shoot Special Officer Wesley.

GLACE BAY, N. S., Aug. 18.—The sole topic of conversation on the streets and in the home of miners today was the shooting of Geo. McEachern, a striker, at an early hour this morning, at the Hub, a crossing near No. 2 colliery. The shooting is alleged to have been done by Edward Keith, who was arrested by Chief of Police McIssac today. McGillivray and admitted to $1,100 bail. The hearing of the charge will take place next Tuesday.

Mr. Keth is a very respectable and sober man and has been working at No. 2 through the strike. On one or two occasions his house had been stoned, Early this morning, between midnight and half-past two stones

He did not take first place, but finished second and captured second prize. The first prize was taken by J. Black, Jr., who finished with a long lead, but there was hard scrapping between young Taft and A. C. Huggins, who finished third, only 17 seconds behind the young man from the White House. The wind was light and fluky and four of the contestants dropped out.

Johnson Away.

Jack Johnson has started for California without putting up any more forfoits to bind the proposed match with Jeffries. The negro has accepted an offer to fight 20 rounds with Philadelphia Jack O'Brien at Colma on Sept. 6 and wil keep his agreement to fight Ketchel there on Oct. 12 unless the latter should lose to Langford at New York on Sert. 10.

Sam Fitzpatrick, who made a champion of Jack Johnson, says of the negro heavyweight's chances against Jim Jeffries: I don't think that Jeff is the man he was when he quit the ring and I don't think he ever will be, but he will not have to be even half them an to beat Johnson. There is no question in my mind but that Jeff will knock him stiff in a few rounds, provided that his wind is half as good as it used to be. One of Jeff's old punches will be plenty. Johnson is very much over-rated as far as his punching ability goes. He hit Burns flush on the jaw in nearly every round of that Sydney fight and still he could not floor him, so what chance will he have of putting such a monster as Jeff on his back, unless Jeff's knees fail him. It looks to me as though Johnson is in for the beating of his life.

ticularly when Lewis knocked him down in the sixth and last round. Burke knew encugh to drop to the floor after the count of six seconds by the referee, which enabled him to avoid anoth r punch that would probably have put him into a real sleep. Burke was technically knocked out when the referee counted ten, but there was no doubt in the minds of competent judges of pugilism that he quit rather than take further punishment. Lewis is not called upon to fight Burke again, as he beat the sailor fairly and squarely, and now has a chance to measure his fistic skill with William Papke, who has received a telegraphic offer to box Burke's conqueror at the club above the Harlem River.

For the benefit of the fans who love to study out the dope here is a little line that can be figured out of the perpoints Thursday last separated the two teams tied for the lead, Philadelphia and Detroit from St. Louis and Washington, the perpetual tailenders in the American League. is a range of 464 points against 304 in the American.

From this dope it can be seen that the race in the American League is far closer than in the National. For that matter it always has been as far as the entire eight clubs were concerned, and with the exception of last year, when the Giants, Cubs and Pirates put up a gruelling finish, it has always been a nip and tuck affair between the leading clubs of the younger organization right up to the last few games.

Now for a little comparative dope. A year ago Pittsburg led the National League. They do now. At that time the Giants were a close second, with Chicago third. The conditions are just reversed now, with the exception that the Giants are much farther behind than were the Cubs a year 1800.

Detroit was fighting for its life in the American on Aug. 12, 1908, just as they are this year, but it was St. Louis, now the seventh position club, that was pushing them, while the Athletics, that are now tied with them for first place, were sixth and hopelessly out of the running. Boston, that is now only 17 points behind the Tigers and Athletics, was leading the second division 138 points behind the top-notch team. Thursday the Highlanders held the lead in the second division and were 122 points behind the leaders.

FERGUSON AND JEANNETTE.

Wallace v. J. T. Henderson.

From the time Wagner started in baseball he was one of the most awkward men in the game. When the Iron and Oil League broke up in 1895 and Wagner was looked over by several Eastern league managers along with Ritchey and others, the younger Wagner, "Hans," was passed up in favor of Al, because "fisne" was so awkward. Yet, inside of two years he was at Louisville, and when that club was transferred to Pittsburg went along and has been the sensation of the National League ever since.

Wagner started in professional base-ball in 1895 at Warren, Pa. Later that season he was with Paterson, N. J. He joined Louisville in 1897, and hear the lead in the second division and were 122 points behind the leaders.

North End Man, Fearing Wife Would Demolish House, Has Her Sent to Asylum.

Fearing that she would utterly demolish his dwelling, Oscar H. Lewis of 55 Adelaide street, had his wife committed yesterday to the Provincial Hospital for Nervous Diseases. Mrs. Lewis was taken to the asylum by Sergt. Henry Kilpatrick of the North End police force.

The unfortunate woman was the victim of a peculiar mania which bade fair to be the cause of the piecemeal destruction of the Lewis home. She was possessed of an insane idea that the devil was concealed about the house, and in an endeavor to dig him out of the walls, was in a fair way to reduce the house to a shell. She was in the habit of stealing away to the attic and pursuing her search with the aid of an axe and other implements.

Latterly her mania took the form of an idea that treasure was concealed about her home, and she went to all extremes to locate it.
