

Markets

MARKET for your ROBES, SURLARS, HARABLE, at very

SON, ST. JOHN, N. B.

peas and pot barley am the latter having advanced of late. Hay is very dull and

Table with 2 columns: Item (e.g., car lots, wool, etc.) and Price.

Table with 2 columns: Item (e.g., flour, meal, etc.) and Price.

No grapes, the last for the 25 to 50c per basket as to in barrels are quoted, also dried apples are lower. New Black Basket Valencia and Malaga are quoted as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item (e.g., muscatels, etc.) and Price.

The again marked higher. Little firm and advanced. A Liner white Che- (tree) 0.18 0.19

Table with 2 columns: Item (e.g., white Arc, etc.) and Price.

Must still give pleasure, and impart Delight to every cheerful brow. But brighter does the picture show

Table with 2 columns: Item (e.g., COAL, etc.) and Price.

And downward to the city sped, Still straining for the place ahead. New trouble rose while homeward bound.

THE GREATEST Horse Remedy IN THE WORLD. Every Horseman should try "Tuttle's Elixir."

JOHN, N. B., Oct. 23d, 1897. I have much pleasure in recommending

Merritt, St. John, N. B. For Canada and the Provinces and Veterinary Remedies. ARLOTTE STREET.

The Brownies on the Thames.

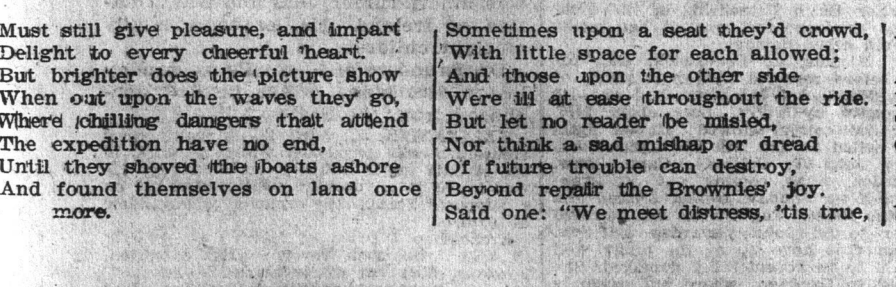

(Copyright, 1898, by Palmer Cox.) As (one by one) in order due. The stars began to come in view: First Venus blushing on her throne

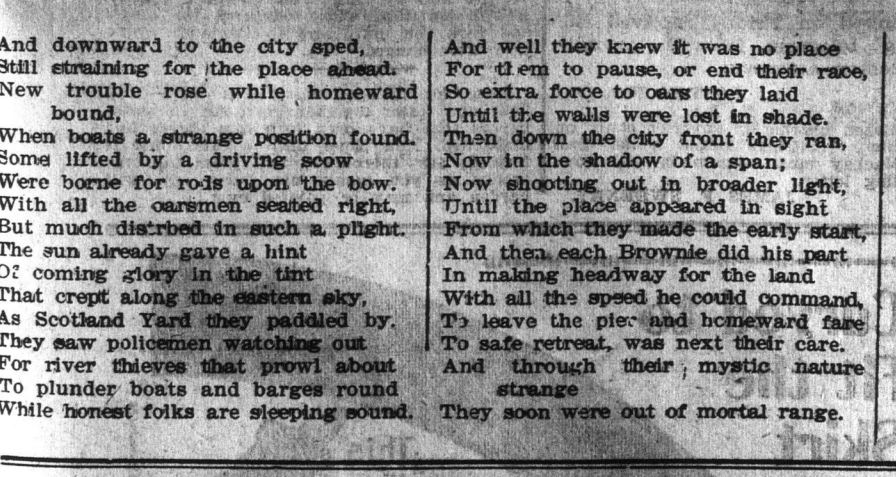

Soon boats of every form and size, That such a city front supplies. Some wide enough to comfort give

And stare with dull, lack-lustre eye Upon his comrades sweeping by? No, rather let us stick and cling

And well they knew it was no place For them to pause, or end their race. So extra force to oars they laid

And downward to the city sped, Still straining for the place ahead. New trouble rose while homeward bound.

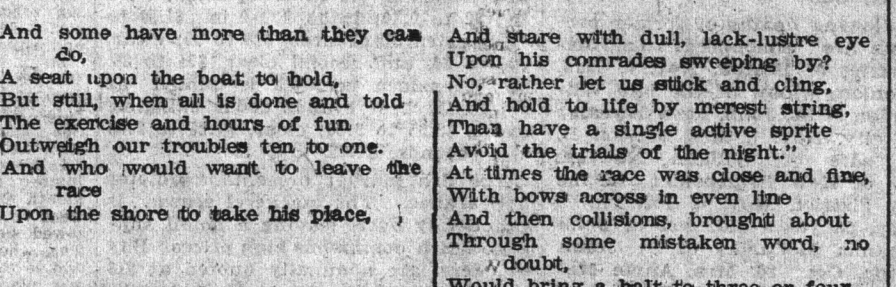

We're safely here, our faces spread With smiles, which prove no shades of fear. Can't darken long a conscience clear.

Before the cars were well in hand, And then confusion took command. Then some fell out, and some fell in

And stare with dull, lack-lustre eye Upon his comrades sweeping by? No, rather let us stick and cling

And well they knew it was no place For them to pause, or end their race. So extra force to oars they laid

And downward to the city sped, Still straining for the place ahead. New trouble rose while homeward bound.

HOME AGAIN.

Captain John E. Farris Returns From the Klondyke.

He Left His Steamer at White Horse Rapids Where She Will Remain Till Spring

—What He Has to Say.

A number of his friends were at the Union depot on Friday afternoon to meet Capt. John E. Farris on his return from the Klondyke.

Had not some members rendered aid To friends, and their departure stayed. But Brownies soon forgot a scare.

And in answer to the reporter's inquiries Capt. Farris said there was plenty of gold in the Yukon country.

The Yukon-Stewart-Pioneer Company have claims on the Yukon for some 15 miles from Dawson City.

On Wednesday, the last day of this month, Arthur Banks, one of the St. John Railway Co. employees, will be married to Miss Jennie Carpenter.

On December 1, Hon. G. E. Foster, M. P., and R. H. Pope, M. P., speak at a conservative rally at Cookshire, Quebec, opening a tour of the Townships.

Children Cry for CASTORIA.

P. E. ISLAND NEWS.

CHARLOTTETOWN, Nov. 11.—Miss Minnie L. Green has gone to North Lexington, Mass., to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. W. P. Eakin.

Stephen Heustis of Wilmot has taken 820 bushels of carrots of seven-eighths of an acre.

William Heffelford of Travelers' Rest had $221 stolen a few nights ago.

The total school attendance for October was 1,386, an increase of 49 over September.

Geo. S. McLeod and Miss Isabella P. Small were married on Monday evening by the Rev. T. P. Fiddell.

Dr. Bruce Shaw has opened an office on Prince street.

The first shipment of Island apples to England will be made by the Lake Winnipeg.

Mrs. W. Harrison Carvell and daughter and Henry McKenzie, A. E. Arsenault and Mr. Williams left by the Lake Winnipeg for England today.

A beautiful new Episcopal church was dedicated at Milton on Sunday, the Revs. J. M. Forbes and J. T. Bryan officiating.

The annual shooting competition by No. 3 Co., 2nd batt., at Kensington range, the company's medal was won for the second year in succession by Private Bruce McMillan with a score of 85 points.

James Morrison, an honored resident of Grosvenor road, died a short time ago, aged twenty-nine years.

On the 8th Catherine McIsaac died in this city, aged 60 years. On Sunday Mrs. Vale, widow of the late John Vale, died at North River, aged 67.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Howard of South Wilshire are going to Sacramento, Cal., where they will spend two years.

R. T. Holman of Summerside has presented some thousands of bulbs to be planted in Queen square garden, Charlottetown.

On Tuesday evening Miss Elizabeth Ferguson and George McInnis of Goff Bros. were married by the Rev. G. M. Campbell in this city.