HEBERT'S LAWYERS LEAVE THE COURT TO MAKE PROTEST

Declare Against Reopening of Famous Marriage Case Before Judge Charbonneau—Court Hears Argument.

Montreal, December 12.—Walking out of the court in the middle of proceedings, the Hebert lawyers protested this morning against the reopening of the famous Hebert marriage case. Despite these protests, however, Mr. Justice Charbonneau supported the lawyers for the wife in the case to the extent of agreeing to hear evidence and legal argument on the merits of the whole case, involving the marriage of Catholics by a Protestant minister.

Two witnesses were called by Mrs. Hebert's lawyers. One was Rev. Dr. Luke Callahan, who was asked to produce a copy of the "Ne Temere" decree forbidding the marriage of Catholics by Protestant clergy. The decree now becomes a court record, known as Exhibit P-2, and its text was examined with considerable interest by Judge Charbonneau.

Rev. William Timberlake, the Methodist minister who married Eugene Hebert and Emma Cloutier, was also called to produce a copy of the marriage license. Emphasis was laid on the fact that it is in reality issued by the Lieutenant-Governor and empowers the clergyman before whom it is presented to solemnize the marriage.

As soon as the case was called late this forenoon, Messrs. Lefebvre and St. Germain, lawyers for Hebert, protested vigorously against the reopening of the case. They declared that, and that, therefore, the matter was closed, and was covered by a judgment allowing the discontinuance. Mr. Callahan declared that evidently Mrs. Hebert's lawyers did not know anything about law.

That the case, in fact, had been closed by a simple discontinuance, was the contention of Messrs. Lefebvre and St. Germain, who were counsel for the defendant.

"Automatic Marriage." "The original judgment of Mr. Justice Laurendeau in the Hebert case," said that this man and woman had never been married. When the plaintiff simply continued the case, she became automatically married." Such automatic marriage," it was claimed was not sufficient to restore Mrs. Hebert's status in society.

UNCLE SAM'S GROWTH SHOWN BY INCREASE IN EXPORT OF IRON

New York, N. Y., Dec. 14.—Officials of the U. S. Steel Corporation said today that the company's mills as a whole are working nearer to capacity than at any previous time this year. The company's foreign business, it was added, had grown beyond all expectations.

This in effect, is a confirmation of the optimistic statements attributed to Henry G. Frick yesterday, in proof of the growth of this country's exports of iron and steel, it was pointed out that the total exports for October amounted to $20,800,000 as against $17,452,000 in the corresponding month of last year.

Of the ten months of the calendar year ending Oct. 31, total exports amounted to $205,915,000 as against $164,376,000 in the same period of 1910 and $128,170,000 in 1909.

SANTA CLAUS BIG HIT AT THE NICKEL

The belief in the white-bearded saint of Yuletide is as strong as ever among the youth of the country if the matinee performance at the Nickel yesterday afternoon served as a criterion. And certainly the little ones enjoyed the matinee very much indeed. The adventure of good old St. Nick with such humorous characters as Happy Hooligan, Gloomey Gus, Jimmy and the others, were extremely funny and childish laughter was continuous. This sketch will be the distinguishing feature of the Nickel's picture program for the week ending Dec. 23rd. The hours are 3.15 and 4.15.

The Nickel is given to understand by its central management that the Biograph picture "The Battle," which is on the new bill of pictures for the week, is the finest and most spirited film story ever put on by the excellent company and rates among the triumphs in motion photography. At times there are over 600 people in the scene. The Vitagraph company are in line with a delightful comedy entitled "The Foolishness of Jealousy," and there is a sweet little romance called "The Girl Back East." Mr. Besette will sing "The Honeycomb Glee," and there will be orchestral novelties.

HAMPTON NEWS

Hampton, Dec. 14.—The Hampton bridge whist club was entertained on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Smith, Hampton Station, where six or seven tables were spread and a very pleasant evening spent socially.

Mr. J. O. Irvine and his daughter Nellie, spent last week with friends at Sussex.

Miss Evans, who has been at Lepraux for some months, has returned, and is residing with her niece, Corinne Evans, Main street, Hampton Station.

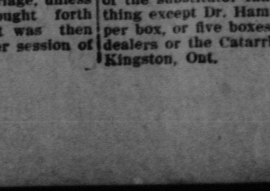

W. O. Slipp has been in poor health for some time, and of late stage, so that on Tuesday he was taken to St. John on a cot placed in the baggage car, and is now with his daughter, Mrs. Fenwick. Grave anxiety was felt by his friends as to the result of his journey, but hopes are entertained that he may yet be relieved from his suffering.

On Wednesday evening the quarterly board of the Hampton Methodist church by resolution, extended an invitation to Rev. H. C. Rice to continue his ministerial service for another year, his three year term being soon to expire. Mr. Rice accepted for two weeks in which to consider the request before responding.

Being soon to St. John people have been at Hampton within the week: A. R. Brown, H. F. Puddington, A. B. Wilmut, T. M. Wright, Geo. Whittier, A. B. Evans, P. L. Fraser, C. E. Leonard, R. E. Healey, P. C. Tins, J. E. Dean, Jr., S. J. Hambo, A. J. G. G. and J. W. Lewis, A. Gordon Leavitt and J. H. Howe.

THE MAGISTRATE'S STORY

What He Owes to Zam-Buk.

Mr. C. E. Sanford, of Weston, Kings Co., N. S., a Justice of the Peace for the Church in Berwick, says: "I have used Zam-Buk for piles and found it a splendid remedy, it cured me."

Mr. Thomas Pearson, of Prince Albert, Sask., writes: "I must thank you for the benefit I have received from the use of Zam-Buk. Last summer I had a fever, which left me with piles. I started to use Zam-Buk and found it gave me relief. Zam-Buk, continued with it. After using three or four boxes it effected a complete cure."

Buk will also be found a sure cure for cold sores, chapped hands, frost bite, ulcers, eczema, blood-poison, varicose sores, scalp eruptions, indamed patches, babies' eruptions and chapped places cuts, burns, bruises and skin injuries generally. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price. You are warned against cheap imitations and substitutes. See the registered name "Zam-Buk" on every package before buying.

BARNESVILLE PASTOR RESIGNS HIS CHARGE

Barnesville, Dec. 11.—The many friends of the Rev. James McCune are sorry to learn that he has resigned the charge of the church where he has labored for nearly two years in this village. He goes this week to McKeaysport, Penn., U. S., where he has an unassuming call.

Mr. McCune has endeavored himself regardless of sect to all who have had the pleasure of his acquaintance. A number of his friends were invited to spend Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Curry. When all had assembled in the drawing room, Mr. McCune, on behalf of those present, was asked to read an address and present the resignation of the Rev. James McCune. The latter feelingly replied. Short speeches were made by Messrs. Wm. Cannon, Wm. Curry, Wm. Floyd, followed by the Rev. D. B. Elsey, after which all departed for their homes.

The Rev. D. B. Elsey very acceptably filled the pulpit in the reformed Presbyterian church yesterday, both morning and evening, at which there was a goodly attendance, he leaves Barnsville on Monday morning. It is much regretted that the churches in this place are without a pastor, consequently the several places of worship will be closed for the winter.

Miss Bessie Kirkpatrick returned yesterday from Fairfield, where she has been visiting friends for a few days.
