NEWSWRITERS HAD AN ENJOYABLE TIME

Excursion on Steamer Premier and Supper and Sports at Fairvale Features of Pleasant Outing Saturday.

For about seven hours on Saturday the editors and newswriters of the local press left their desks and left town. Political issues and opinions were relegated to the shades of oblivion and the newspaper men gave themselves over to the pleasures of the hour which included a sail up the Kennebecasis on the steamer Premier, followed by supper at the residence of E. S. Carter at Fairvale, a ball game (baseball), etc.

The party, numbering about thirty, left here Saturday afternoon on the 1.15 train for Rothesay. Included in the party were Rupert E. Walker, editor of The Standard; A. M. Belling, editor of the Times; F. I. McCafferty, city editor of the Times; S. H. Taylor, Bruce S. Robb, Roy A. Davidson, J. E. March, J. L. Slattery, F. H. Hardiman, Jas. Conlon, Mrs. A. M. Belling, Mrs. F. I. McCafferty, Mrs. Bruce S. Robb, Mrs. Thos. B. Perry, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. S. H. Taylor, Misses Cotter, Milligan, Earles, Carson, Bonnell, Haslett, Fredericton, Nixon, Mayes, Hayes, Mooney, and Avery.

Arrived at Rothesay the party were met by E. S. Carter and were his guests on a sail up the Kennebecasis. The day was ideal and the sail to the Willows was heartily enjoyed by the party. During the short stop at the Willows the snaphot artillery was kept busy, and all things animate and inanimate were snapped in artistic and historic poses.

The return to Fairvale was made about five o'clock and the party went to Mr. Carter's residence where supper was served.

The event of the day and one which it would be criminal neglect to pass over hurriedly in chronicling the day's proceedings, was the baseball game which was played (7) in the twilight. It is true it followed with a certain semblance the principles laid down by the founders of America's national game, but it didn't stop there.

Interpolated into the production were a series of acrobatic stunts which will not be outlived by anything presented by the management of Feniar's wild animal show.

There were interwoven into the play many new and original stunts, such as the snake slide and others too numerous to specify, all of which must be seen to be properly appreciated.

Suffice it to say it is extremely doubtful if the Greek Olympic games now in progress in Stockholm can compare with that game. It went like lightning. J. A. Barry proved an impartial ump, each side getting the same number of deals. Of course the score was tie, a foregone conclusion.

The teams lined up as follows on the field, although at bat the personnel was somewhat different:

- Catcher: Miss Nixon
- Pitcher: F. McCafferty
- 1st base: Miss Mayes
- 2nd base and shortstop: Miss Cotter
- 3rd base: Miss Milligan
- Left field: Walker
- Right field: W. H. McQuaide
- Manager: Mrs. F. McCafferty
- Ump: J. A. Barry

Owing to the fact that many of the players are accustomed to long distance running, it was deemed advisable, on account of limited area, to dispense with centre fielders, thus giving the other players more opportunity.

The time for departure came all too soon for the players, and for spectators as well.

The return to the city was made by the 8 o'clock train. The journey was uneventful except for one regrettable incident. One misguided youth who in his earlier years, had been permitted through suifrance to join his Sunday school conferees in the Christmas carols, and still laboring under the delusion that he possesses the gift of song, essayed to regale the party with melody. His dulcet (or dulc-like) notes were suffered to flow uninterruptedly until the patience of his audience could bear no more, whereupon through the ingenuity of one, a scheme was devised to pass the hat, and the "gay musician" was bribed to desist, much to the delight of all.

The afternoon was greatly enjoyed by all, and the party is indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Carter for their thoughtfulness and kindness, for one of the most pleasant days enjoyed for some time.

Fighters Arrested.

William Hatfield and Oscar Roberts were arrested Saturday afternoon by County Policeman Wm. Armstrong for fighting together on the Red Head Road.

Resisted the Police.

About 10.30 o'clock Saturday night Herbert Addison was arrested on the I. C. R. tracks at Haymarket square by Policemen Briggs, and is charged with drunkenness and violently resisting the officer.

Lying and Lurking the Charge.

Yesterday morning while Policeman Rankine was going his rounds he found Joseph Williams lying and lurking in the vestibule of the King's Daughter's Guild on Chipman's Hill, and as he did not give a satisfactory account of himself, he was placed under arrest. He is also charged with violently resisting the policeman.

Broke a Window.

John Morrow, of Merritt street, has been reported by the police for throwing a stone and willfully breaking a plate glass window in Peter Mackenzie's son on Main street Saturday afternoon.

Articles of Clothing Found.

An overcoat, a pair of gloves and a cap were found on the railing at Indiantown on Saturday afternoon and were given in charge of the police. The owner can receive the same on application at the Central Police Station.

PREPARATIONS FOR "GLORIOUS TWELFTH"

Local Orangemen will Journey to Moncton to Join in Provincial Grand Lodge Celebration.

There was a general meeting of the Twelfth of July Committee on Saturday evening in the Orange Hall, Germain street, when arrangements were about completed for the celebration of "the glorious twelfth" at Moncton on Friday next.

It has been arranged that the first special excursion train will leave the Union Depot at 7.45 a. m. Instead of 7.30, as previously announced, this train will make all the intermediate stops along the line, while the second one, which leaves the depot at 8.30 will only make the necessary stops for water, etc., unless the first train proves unable to accommodate all those at the various stations in which case they will be picked up by the latter train.

There will be two processions of the local Orangemen previous to entering for Moncton. The West End brethren accompanied by the St. John pipe band will cross in the 7.40 a. m. trip of the ferry and with No. 27 of the market building, will join the other city lodges at Germain street where the procession will form up at 7.45 in the following order:

- The Union Jack in the lead, supported by 2 scarlet knights in uniform.
- Artillery Band.
- Royal Black Knights.
- Royal Scarlet Knights.
- Havelock No. 27.
- Johnston No. 24.
- True Blue No. 11 with Pipe Band.
- Gleedon No. 7.
- York No. 3.
- Verner No. 1.
- St. John District Officers.
- St. John County Officers.

Each branch of the above will be headed by their banners and clothed in appropriate regalia, much of which will be seen on the street for the first time.

Members from Nos. 60 and 70 of Mirville are expected to proceed to Simonds street where they will join the brethren of the North End and headed by the Carleton Cornet Band will march direct to the depot.

Refreshment cars will be attached to each train and will be in charge of a committee of the county lodges. A special train has also been arranged for on the St. Martins Railway, leaving St. Martins in time to connect at Hampton with the first train at 8.50, returning again on arrival of train in evening. Return tickets will be issued from all points on the St. Martins Railway at one first-class fare.

On arrival at Moncton each train will be met by a brass band and the visitors escorted to the exhibition grounds where meals will be provided. At 2 p. m. a large parade will be formed up with 12 to 15 bands and Orangemen from all over the province in line.

Rev. B. H. Thomas, grand master, will ride the white horse and lead the procession through the principal streets and back to the exhibition grounds where speeches will be delivered by the grand master, Hon. Robt. Maxwell, gen. deputy grand master, and other prominent members of the association.

Trains will leave for St. John again about 6.30 p. m.
