PRO-GERMAN TRAMP IN ALBERT CO. JAIL MAY FACE SERIOUS CHARGE

Albert, Aug. 9.—Mrs. Charles Paul (nee Edith Stiles) of Haverhill, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Bugless, and friends here.

Rev. Herbert DeWolf has returned from his vacation, and officiated at the services in the Baptist churches here Sunday.

The conduct of the prisoner Michael Cogswell, who was committed to jail with hard labor for six months, for being a dangerous vagrant, by Police Magistrate last week, has been such since his incarceration as may lead to his being charged with a more serious offence which may lead him behind the bars of the penitentiary. The jailor has reported criminal threats and acts to the Magistrate, which will be referred to the authorities.

Although the sentence requires the prisoner to be kept at hard labor there are no facilities connected with the jail of Albert county which would safely allow of this part of the sentence being carried out.

A special session of the Albert County Council is being called to make the necessary appropriation for the purchase and forwarding of one or more machine guns for the use of our boys at the front.
