Raymond Vye, Recalled, Tells of Dr. Murray's Arrangement to Have Passes Numbered at Transcript Office--Some Sensational Evidence.

New York, N. Y., Oct. 11.--The Boston Red Sox, pennant winners of the American league, were victors today over the New York national league champions by a score of 3 to 1, in the fourth game of the world's series. The Red Sox have now won two games of the series and the Giants one, the second contest having ended in a tie.

Some 36,000 people jammed in the confines of the Brush stadium today saw Simon Puro basehit in a contest that ended in a tie by inning. The two teams played in their true form and the spectators shown by the players in the early contests was not observed.

Joe Wood, alone today, pitched the Red Sox fairly hinged their star batsman as he walked from the playing field with his second victory. Gray sudden clouds obscured the sun and in the murky atmosphere Wood's speed ball worked havoc with the Giants' batting. Only once was a Giant batter able to gauge the Boston man's curve for a hit, when a hit meant a run.

Wood a Wonder. The infield was wet from a night's rain and Wood stood on the hurling mound for nine innings with a pile of sawdust beside him to dry the ball before each delivery to the plate. His service was without blemish or flaw, not one man being passed, while 8 Giants walked to the plate and then walked back again after vainly trying to read the middle of the Boston batsman's mystifying drop balls and fast inshoots.

"How can we hit what we cannot see?" asked "Red" Murray when he walked to the bench after fanning for the second time.

Wood was only in trouble in two innings, in the sixth and again in the seventh, when the home club's only run came over the plate. The sixth showed Wood at his best. Tereaux jabbed a hit, and Dave and Devore bounced a drive off Wood's ankle for a base before anyone was out. The stands were wild with excitement and tried to rattle the Boston pitcher. But Wood was as cool as a Labrador iceberg in March. He caused Larry Doyle and Murray on quick breaking down shots, making those Giant hitters send weak rollers to the Red Sox infield.

Boston broke into the run column in the second when Gardiner tripled and scored on Tereaux's wild heave of a moist ball. The second run came in the fourth when Stahl reached first on a force hit, stole second, went to third on an infield out and home on Gady's drive. Boston made its third run in the ninth. Gardiner singled, was sacrificed to second by Stahl, took third on an infield out and tallied on Joe Wood's single.

Giants Score. The Giants only run was scored in the seventh by Herzog on his own single to centre and Fletcher's two bagger to right field. A New York boy broke the hearts of the Giant partisans. He is Hein Wagner, the Red Sox shortstop whose plays today robbed the Giants of three hits. Two of his stops of smashes over second were made with one hand on the dead run, then, half running, he snapped his throws to first base ahead of the runner by a stop.

With one run needed to tie in the eighth Devore lashed a grander pass. Wood, thousands cheered as the ball sped by second base for a hit meant a good start for the first rally. Wagner reached over the bag, scooped the ball with his gloved hand and snapped the ball to first without re-scapping the ball to first without re-Continued on page two.

COL. HUGHES BACK.

Quebec, Oct. 11.--Col. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, arrived at this place this morning on the Empress of Britain, after his trip to the Old Country. The colonel looked in fine fettle as he stepped from the boat.

CANADA'S SHARE WILL BE REDUCED.

Cessation of Sealing Benefits None and Injures Dominion.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Oct. 11.--It has been learned that the government of the United States at length has paid the month of which it agreed to hand over to Canada in connection with the pelagic sealing treaty of 1911. The payment, while welcome, is somewhat belated, it having taken the great republic fifteen months to raise the sum of $200,000 which it agreed to pay.

This treaty, in the negotiation of which Hon. James Bryce and Sir Joseph Pope were plenipotentiaries, is to the effect that pelagic sealing was to be abolished, and that Canada was to be compensated for the difficulty.

There are roughly 100,000 seals on the Pribilof Islands, 18,000 on Commander Islands, 7,000 on Robben Island, 10 per cent. to go to Japan, 10 per cent. to Canada, 10 per cent. to Russia and 10 per cent. to the United States.

Thus of the Pribilof Islands catch 10 per cent. is to go to the United States, 15 per cent. to Canada and 15 per cent. to Japan; of the Commander Islands catch 70 per cent. is to go to Russia, 15 per cent. to Canada and 15 per cent. to Japan; and of the Robben Island catch 70 per cent. is to go to Japan, 10 per cent. to Canada, 10 per cent. to Russia and 10 per cent. to the United States.

In addition to the foregoing arrangements it was agreed that the United States was to pay an advance of $200,000 each to Canada and Japan, the purpose being to enable these countries to buy out their citizens whose pelagic sealing operations were to be cut short.

This treaty was signed on July 7, 1911, rather more than 15 months ago. The United States in the first place has taken the 15 months to make the payment of $200,000; it now has been effected. In the second place the United States congress has ordered the cessation of killing for ten of the fifteen years during which the treaty is to run, thereby greatly reducing the sum which Canada will receive. This action will not benefit the United States, as for technical reasons the cessation of all killing will not increase the number of the herd.

No payments will be made by any of the three countries owing royalties on account of the annual killings. The payment just made by the United States is an advance and is to be deducted from the yearly payments.

DEATH FOLLOWS INJURY RECEIVED AT FOOTBALL GAME

Montreal, Oct. 11.--Calvin McCallum, son of Angus McCallum, of 324 Grosvenor Ave., Westmount, died this morning from injuries received in a football match played in the afternoon. A collision with another player, the lad was knocked out and remained unconscious for the game through, but reaching home, however, he again relapsed into unconsciousness and died this morning from hemorrhage of the brain.

Young McCallum was 14 years of age and was captain of the team for which he was playing, that of the Westmount Academy. The opposing team was that of the Royal Canadian College.

London, Oct. 11.--No news was received in London tonight concerning the operations of the Montenegrins in the direction of the Turkish town of Scutari or of hostilities in any of the other Balkan frontiers. The negotiations of the Balkan states in London were without any advice either of a military or diplomatic nature.

The continued delay by the states, other than Montenegro, in declaring war, has revived hopes among diplomatists here that a general war in the Balkans may yet be averted. It is said that a much more hopeful view of the situation prevailed in the British Foreign Office tonight.

No tangible reason was assigned for this optimism, but it seems to have been based on the idea that the warnings of the powers may have caused the Balkan states to pause.

The Bulgarian government today denied Turkish reports of fights on the Turco-Balkan frontier.

Greece today purchased the Chinese cruiser Chao-Ho recently built at Newcastile. The Turkish government also made an attempt to acquire the ship.

Vienna, Oct. 11.--The Austro-Hungarian supplementary army estimates were adopted today by the Hungarian delegation under the influence of the Balkan situation.

These estimates are stubbornly opposed by the Hungarians. The total amount is $35,000,000, of which $8,320,000 is for the army on the Eastern frontier defenses.

MORE LIGHT ON DYNAMITE CASE

Movements of McNamara in San Francisco Traced by Means of Hotel Registers--Used Name of "Bric."

Indianapolis, Oct. 11.--J. B. Brice, Chicago, the name James B. McNamara used to disguise his intention to cause explosions on the Pacific coast, and particularly in Los Angeles, California, found an important point in the testimony at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today.

As tending to sustain his contention that the explosions were part of a conspiracy for the illegal interstate shipment of dynamite, involving the 45 men now on trial, the government indicated it would go thoroughly into the explosion in the west, possibly throwing light on the mysterious disappearance of F. A. Schmidt and David Caplan, accused accomplices of McNamara, Caplan and Schmidt were indicted in Los Angeles County on a charge of murder, but they never were discovered. Government agents have received information that Caplan was killed.

Witnesses, reading from hotel registers, testified concerning the movements of McNamara, Schmidt, Caplan and Olaf A. Tveitinos, of San Francisco. From the time he arrived in San Francisco, August 19, 1910, until he left Los Angeles a few hours before the Los Angeles explosion, McNamara's whereabouts, with the exception of a few nights, were accounted for by the same "brice" written on the register.

BECKER INVOLVED BY NEW WITNESS

Maurice Labau Heard Police Lieutenant Threaten to Kill Herman Rosenthal--Saw Murderer and Identifies Gyp the Blood and Lefty Louie as Perpetrators--Defence Makes Determined Efforts to Break Down Testimony--Gunmen Want Chance.

New York, Oct. 11.--The first testimony implicating Charles Becker in the murder of Herman Rosenthal was given at today's session of the trial of the former police officer accused of instigating the murder of the gambler. Becker had said to Jack Rose about three weeks before the murder: "If that Rosenthal is not croaked, I will croak him myself."

Labau, who was also an eye witness of the murder, identified in court today Gyp and Lefty Louie as two of the men who fired the shots that killed Rosenthal and William Shapiro as the driver of the murder car. Gyp and Lefty he had known for more than a year, he said, and also swore that "Dago" Frank Iles was an acquaintance who was in the group when the shots were fired.

The witness also knew Rosenthal. He proved to be such a star witness for the state that John F. McIntyre, chief counsel for the defendant, spent two hours and a half trying to break down his testimony. Labau was only discovered by District Attorney White on a day or two ago. With his brother Jacob in jail in Newark, N. J., on a forged charge, the brothers claimed to have been "framed up" by somebody. "The New York prosecutor secured their release on parole, and according to the witness promise to "help them in every way if they would prove their frame up." Libou said that he heard Becker utter his alleged death threat against Rosenthal in the steam room of the Lafayette Baths, and that he stood within two or three feet of the police officer at the time. He did not know Becker well, he conceded, but had seen him in a gambling house on Allen street.

"How did you know it was Becker you saw in this gambling house?" shouted Mr. McIntyre. "Because I asked. I thought it was strange that a man of his appearance should be in such a place," rejoined the witness.

Labau added that Becker was talking at the time with "Denny Sly Fox" an underworld character, who is expected to be a witness in the trial. Giovanni Stanich, another eye witness had previously identified "Whitey" Lewis as one who fired at Rosenthal. Thomas Ryan, a chauffeur, disappointed the prosecutor by refusing in a frightened manner to identify any of them, although he too, had seen the murder.

The gunmen on their third appearance made a protest. "We don't object to being identified, but we think we ought to have a chance like everybody else to be lined up with more men," said Lefty Louie. "We want this thing cleared up, but we want a square deal."

STUDENTS CLASH WITH POLICE IN FIERCE COMBAT

Ottawa, Oct. 11.--Reports emanating from the Maritime Province press to the effect that Sir Percy Girouard had condemned the work being executed for the improvement of St. John harbor, have been brought to his direct notice.

Sir Percy scouted the idea that he expressed adverse opinions in the matter. On the contrary he was much impressed with the development proposed, the details of which he felt in no way concurred in the brain.

Ottawa, Oct. 11.--The Borden government is making an important departure in policy with regard to the St. Lawrence route. For years one of the serious drawbacks of the route has been the absence of a dry dock and of sufficiently modern equipment to accommodate a large steamer.

Several incidents have occurred in which the lack of such equipment was distressingly felt, a recent one being the return of the Empress of Britain across the Atlantic to get docked.

For a number of years the Laurier government dallied with a scheme of financing a company to build and operate a dock by guaranteeing its bonds. These negotiations came to nothing. A few days ago a number of cabinet ministers visited Quebec and looked over the situation, and there now is excellent ground to believe that the dock itself as an ordinary public work.

When completed it is probable that an arrangement will be made with shipping interests whereby they will operate the dock.

The addition of the dock will be an immense improvement to the equipment of the St. Lawrence route.

LORD ROBERTS WILL PAY SECOND VISIT TO THIS COUNTRY

"Bobs" Will Travel Across the Dominion to the Coast -- Other Distinguished Visitors Coming.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Oct. 11.--Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes on returning has announced that Earl Roberts, accompanied by Lady Roberts, Lady Evelyn Roberts and Lady Mary Roberts will visit Canada next year. Lord Roberts visited eastern Canada at the time of the Quebec Tercentenary and the 1913 visit will take the venerable field marshal across the Dominion to the Pacific coast.

Lieut. General the Earl of Dunderald, formerly general officer commanding the Canadian militia who so aroused the displeasure of Hon. Sydney Fisher, also will be a visitor to Canada in 1912. Lord Dunderald, who has never lost his deep interest in Canada, will renew old acquaintances.

Col. Hughes officially confirms the announcement that General Sir Ian Hamilton, inspector general of the overseas forces, will pay a visit of inspection to Canada next year.

HALIFAX ALMOST HAD SERIOUS FIRE

Special to The Standard.

Halifax, Oct. 11.--Two buildings were burned on Hollis street today and a loss entailed of about $5,000. One of them was occupied by the Dominion Atlantic Railway and is the property of the C. P. R. The other is owned by G. J. Fluck. In both were a number of other tenants.

The fire was caught in good time, but had it been in the night and had likely been a little start it would have been a bad conflagration. The heating of some roofing material in the Fluck building caused the fire.
