

Social Notes of the Week

son, have taken a suite at the La Tour Apartments for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Purdy, Princess St., left on Tuesday evening for Montreal.

Rev. Dr. Morison, Mrs. Morison and Miss Morison returned to the City (West), on Saturday last, after spending the summer at Carter's Point.

Miss Georgia Melvin left on Saturday last for Montreal to resume her studies at McGill University.

Mrs. E. Atherton Smith is meeting with unbounded success in her effort to raise funds for the New Brunswick Kiltie Pipes. Mrs. Smith would be very glad if any one contributing would do so at once, as she is anxious to close the fund, and publish the list of names of the generous donors. Mrs. Smith is still at her summer home, St. Andrews by the Sea.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Newman and two little daughters, are spending the week-end and holiday with Mrs. Newman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kaye, Carleton St.

Miss Moynold of the Weston Players (who has been filling an engagement at the Imperial Theatre) leaves for New York on Monday much to the regret of many friends in St. John. Miss Moynold, who is a Southerner by birth, by her charming personality "characteristic of the South," has endeared herself to the younger members of the social set and all who have had the pleasure of meeting her, who hope in the near future she will return to St. John when a welcome will always await her. Miss Moynold has been the guest of honor on several occasions this week. On Saturday of last week Miss Dorothy Bilzard, Orange street, was hostess at a most enjoyable tea. Besides the guest of honor, Miss Moynold, other guests were Mrs. J. Lupton McAvity, Mrs. Geo. McAvity, Mrs. Charles Coster, Miss Lois Grimmer, Miss Kathleen Sturdee, Miss Emily Sturdee, Miss McAvenny and Miss Rosamond McAvity. On Monday Miss Moynold was entertained at a delightful luncheon at the Manor House. Amongst those present were Miss Kathleen Coster, Miss Lois Grimmer, Miss Emily Sturdee, Miss Kathleen Sturdee, Miss Whitaker, Miss Dorothy Bilzard and Miss Catherine McAvity. On Tuesday Mrs. George McAvity entertained Miss Moynold informally at the tea hour at "Stoney Croft," Quispamsis.

Miss Elizabeth Long, accompanied by her father, Mr. J. W. Long, Lancaster Heights, left on Tuesday for New Orleans, where Miss Long will be united in marriage to Captain Frank Stevens of St. John West.

Congratulations are being extended to Lieut. Clair Gilmour, 115th Battalion, (now overseas), and Mrs. Gilmour, on the arrival at 197 Germain St., of a son, on Tuesday, October 3rd.

Dr. and Mrs. Parker of San Francisco, were guests at the Royal this week.

At the quarterly meeting of the Turnbull Cemetery Company, held on Monday, it was announced that the daughters of the Empire in this city, had decided to erect a monument upon the naval and military lot as one of their first acts after the war, in memory of our brave soldiers who had given their lives for home and Empire.

Mrs. R. M. Rive and Mrs. Summer, Moncton, were guests in the city this week.

An event of much interest to friends in St. John took place in Scotland, on September 20th, when W. Egbert Thompson, R.A.M.B., Ch.E., surgeon to the first Ambulance unit for Italy, was united in marriage to Miss Madeline Hison by Rev. A. P. Mulrhead in Gillespie U. E. Church in Biggar, Scotland. The groom, who is a son of Mrs. F. A. Thompson, 160 Germain St., is a graduate of Mount Allison University, having taken his degree in 1910. He left afterwards for Edinburgh to pursue his study of medicine, and having secured his degree, offered his services to his country. His bride was a nurse in one of the hospitals. Congratulations are extended Dr. and Mrs. Thompson.

The tea and sale given under the auspices of the Soldiers' Wives League at the bungalow, on Thursday afternoon, was a great success. Mrs. Geo. F. Smith, president of the League, presided at the tea table, other small tables were in charge of Mrs. W. W. White, Mrs. John E. Moore, Mrs. Stewart Skinner, Mrs. M. F. White, Mrs. Fred Schofield. The fancy table was in charge of Mrs. George McAvity and Mrs. Sherwood Skinner. The League will devote the funds for a Christmas treat for the children whose brave fathers are overseas.

Mr. Leslie Peters leaves this evening on a visit to Boston.

Lieutenant-Colonel R. J. Birdwhistle and Mrs. Birdwhistle, arrived in the city, on Tuesday from Ottawa.

The Natural History Society held its first business meeting of the year on Tuesday evening, Mr. R. B. Emerson in the chair. Mr. William Mcintosh, curator of the museum, presented a very interesting account of the summer's work, and described the different outings for the junior members and also about the camp at Gosham's Bluff. Many prehistoric relics of early Indian days, gathered during the summer were exhibited and a great many very good donations were received for the museum. Several new members were elected—Junior Associate, Miss Dorothy Barnes, Miss Nellie Kyle, Miss Elsie Henderson, Miss Elsie McDiarmid and Miss Daisy Stephenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Longley and caused much amusement. The delightful evening was brought to a close by singing Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King—and many good wishes extended Mrs. Bedell that she might be spared to spend many happy birthday.

Mrs. Lucien Allison and Miss Kaye, Peel street, were hostesses on Wednesday afternoon. The guests were Miss A. M. McKean, Mrs. Walter Gilbert, Mrs. Roy Davidson, Miss Kimball, Miss McAvenny, Miss Stetson, Miss Laura Hazen, Miss Edith Mace and Miss Ethel Emerson.

Mrs. MacKenzie and Miss Portia MacKenzie left on Friday evening on a trip to Boston.

Mr. Alexander Watson has purchased the late summer residence of Mrs. Thomas Rankine, Westfield.

Mrs. Herbert A. Hilyard, Woodstock, arrived in the city on Thursday and is a guest of her sister Mrs. D. L. Hutchinson, Douglas avenue.

Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen is expected home from Ottawa today.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jack, Miss Dorothy Jack and Miss Isabel Jack left on Friday on a visit to Boston.

Mrs. J. Lee Day entertained informally at the tea hour on Wednesday afternoon. The guests were Miss Alice Hagan, Mrs. L. W. Barker, Mrs. A. S. Bowman, Mrs. H. B. Robinson and Mrs. Maurice F. White.

After the very interesting lecture given at the Soldiers' Club on Wednesday afternoon by Dr. Thompson, M.P., and Colonel Sharples of the Military Hospitals Committee, which was presided over by Lt. Col. McAvity, a large number of the ladies enjoyed the cup that cheers at the Sign of the Lantern, amongst whom were Mrs. George H. McLeod, Mrs. Busby, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mrs. Stewart Skinner, Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. Andrew Rankine, Mrs. Frank S. White, Mrs. Alexander Wilson, Mrs. F. Caverhill Jones and many others.

The marriage of Miss Josephine Hutchinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hutchinson, Douglas avenue, to William Edward Rowley, M. D., takes place on Wednesday afternoon, October 11th, at 299 Douglas avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Skinner, Miss Edith Skinner and Mrs. P. W. Thompson left this week on a visit to Boston.

Mrs. Sherwood Skinner is visiting in Boston, having left on Friday evening.

Mrs. Stewart Neill, Fredericton, spent a few days in the city a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Logan.

Mrs. Robert Ellis, of Montreal, and Mrs. J. R. Harrison, of Parrsboro, who have been visiting their mother, Mrs. J. Morris Robinson at the Priory William Apartments, left on Monday for their homes. Mrs. Robinson accompanied Mrs. Harrison to Parrsboro.

Mrs. William McKean and two daughters leave today on a month's visit to Halifax. Upon their return they will occupy Judge Forbes' residence, Wellington Row.

Miss Elizabeth Morrison, Leinster street, who has been visiting in Fredericton, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Robertson who spent the summer at their residence Rothsay, have returned and opened their city home this week.

The very clever little one act comedy entitled "The Honeytoes" at the Imperial the first of the week was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audiences. Mr. Kendal Weston is an actor of excellent ability, and is an old-time favorite in St. John. Miss Hurst received many deserving compliments for her clever acting.

Miss Dolly Brown, La Tour Apartments, is spending the week-end and holiday with Miss Norah Knight at New River.

A most enjoyable luncheon was given at the Sign of the Lantern on Tuesday by Mrs. A. A. McIntyre in honor of Miss Josephine Hutchinson, who will be a principal in an interesting event next week. The table was most artistically decorated. In the centre was a large vase filled with white chrysanthemums from which ribbons were draped to each guest's plate and fastened to individual bouquets of the same flowers. The guests were: Miss Josephine Hutchinson, Mrs. Roland Skinner, Mrs. Reginald Schofield, Mrs. Frank Robertson, Mrs. William Henderson, Miss Hilda Shaw, Miss Norah Stewart and Mrs. Harold Rising.

Many of the older members of St. Andrew's (Kiltie) church, as well as friends in the city were interested in reading of how one of their former pastor's memory (Rev. T. G. Smith) had been honored by the gift of a loving and time honored friend, of a beautiful white tablet which was unveiled in the Presbyterian church in Pond Du Lac, Wisconsin. Mrs. John D. Magee of this city, and Mrs. Allan Daniel, Rothsay, are daughters of the late Dr. Smith.

The many friends of Lieut. John Kimball will be glad to hear the good news conveyed by cable to his father, Mr. George Kimball, Monday of his safe arrival in London, England.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. L. Jarvis and family, Duke street, have returned from Westfield, where they spent the summer months.

Mrs. Harriet Schofield accompanied her sister, who has been visiting her, to Boston on Friday.

Miss Frances Travers and Miss Kathleen McInerney, who have been assisting this week so ably at the recruiting meetings in Albert county for the 38th Kiltie Battalion, are expected home today.

Miss Elsie Jardine, Shediac, spent a couple of days in the city this week as a guest of Mrs. Frank Young, La Tour Apartments.

Mrs. George Fairweather, Miss Carrie Fairweather, and Miss Grace Fairweather, who have been summering at Red Head, left on Thursday to spend the winter at Boston.

Mrs. John A. Calhoun, of Philadelphia, Miss Lillie Brock, and Mrs. Thomas Bell left this week for New York.

Miss Kathleen Longley, of New Wood, is spending the holidays with her parents at the La Tour Apartments.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Oct. 6.—At the annual meeting of the Blackville Women's Institute, the following officers were elected: Pres., Mrs. J. E. Underhill; Vice-Pres., Mrs. R. R. McLagan; Sec-Treas., Mrs. Bert Underhill; Directors, Mrs. D. G. Schofield, Mrs. Robert Barry and Mrs. B. Walls; Auditors, Evelyn Dale and Helen McLagan; Social Committee, Mrs. B. Walls, Helen McLagan, May Dale and Janie McDougall. The Sec. Treasurer's report stated that the institute had raised $146.24 during the year.

After prayer-meeting in the Baptist church, Wednesday night, Rev. Samuel Gray the new pastor, and Mrs. Gray were given a reception by the members of the congregation. Mr. C. C. Hayward welcomed them in a neat address on behalf of the church, and Rev. H. E. Allaby of Whiteville, welcomed them on behalf of the 10th District, of which he is secretary. Rev. Gray resided in a pleasing manner, after which the congregation enjoyed a special hour in the vestry, spent in music, etc. Refreshments were served by the ladies.

Miss Clara Creaghan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Creaghan, who has already two brothers, officers, and one sister a nurse at the front, left yesterday for England to join a field hospital staff for service at the front. A branch of the Women's Institute was organized on Friday afternoon at Douglastown by Miss Hazel Winter, the supervisor. The new branch will hold its first meeting at the home of the president. The following officers were elected: Pres., Mrs. H. T. Atkinson; Vice-Pres., Mrs. R. H. Jessamin; Sec. Treas., Miss Evelyn Campbell; Auditors, Miss Annie Alexander and Miss Johnston; Director, Miss Annie Jessamin.

The dance in Millerton hall, Friday night, for the repair of the latter, netted $50. The Ross orchestra of Blackville and Councillor John W. Vanderbeck furnished the music. The committee in charge were John Betts, Geo. W. Vanderbeck and W. J. Sutherland.

As the 132nd passed through town today en route to Sussex, they were met by relatives and friends, and the whole population. The town was in holiday mood. The mills having been shut down to enable the men to greet the troops.

The local Red Cross society held a sale in J. D. Creaghan's store, and cleared $108.35. The sale was in charge of two committees. The work committee: Mrs. E. H. Sinclair, convener; Mrs. B. P. Maitly, Mrs. J. O. Fish, Mrs. Howard Williamson, and Misses Ferguson and Nan Creaghan; and the entertainment committee: Mrs. Charles Sargeant, convener, and Mesdames John Robinson and W. L. Durick.

Mrs. Arthur Jardine held her post-nuptial reception, Thursday afternoon, at the home of her father, Mr. Henry Ingram.

The bride looked charming in a gown of white satin and georgette crepe; corsage bouquet of pink roses. She was assisted in receiving by her sister, Miss Ingram, seated in silver gray silk and chiffon, bouquet red roses. Master Jack Stothart in lieutenant's uniform opened the door. The guests were ushered from the drawing room to the dining room by Mrs. D. Nicholson, wearing gray satin and black and white.

The dainty tea table, with centre bouquet of roses, was presided over by Mrs. Gilmour Stothart, who wore royal blue silk, and large black hat with pink roses. Miss Blackley, Chatman, groomed in black satin, and wearing a black velvet hat, cut the loaves. Misses Jean Morrison, Molly Robinson and Mona Robinson served. The rooms were beautifully decorated with sweet peas and asters.

HAMPTON

Hampton, Oct. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. H.E. Wardrop who have spent the summer months in Hampton, returned to the city on Friday.

Mrs. J. S. Sutherland, who has been spending the summer at her former home, Summerside, arrived in Hampton on Friday. She is invited to give a lecture on the following day proceeded to Gagetown.

Miss Emilie Alward of the Hampton school staff was the winner of the first prize awarded for physical training from the Strathcona Trust.

Mrs. Angus and children of St. John were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McAvity, Lakeside.

Mr. J. L. McAvity and daughter, Miss Katharine McAvity have returned from a pleasant visit to Montreal. While absent Miss McAvity enjoyed an auto trip through New York State.

Mr. Fred M. Sproule spent Sunday in Havlock, being one of the speakers at the recruiting meeting held in that place on Sunday afternoon.

The teaching staff of Hampton Consolidated School, is in Sussex, this week, attending the Kings county Institute held in that place on Thursday and Friday.

Miss Stella Fowler is spending a few weeks at St. Martins, the guest of Miss Essie Black.

Mrs. George Howard and Mrs. O. N. Chipman were hostesses at the Red Cross tea on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. A. E. Coates spent last week in St. John, the guest of friends.

Rev. Wm. Malcolm very ably filled the pulpit on Sunday at St. John. While in Hampton, Rev. Wm. Malcolm was the guest of his sister, Mrs. S. McGowan.

Mrs. H. J. Worden and bride have returned from Sussex, and are occupying the residence formerly owned by Mr. Steele Matthews.

Mrs. Clarence Spooner returned on Tuesday from a pleasant visit with Dr. and Mrs. White.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the McIntyre wedding were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Marr, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rising, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skinner, Mrs. Ferguson, Miss Helen Marr, Miss Blenda Thompson, Mr. Harold Rising, Master Robert Marr of St. John, and Lieut. Cecil Langstroth of Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frost are enjoying a driving trip to Havlock and vicinity.

Miss Irene McArthur who has been spending a few weeks at Hampton, has returned to the city.

Miss Wetmore of Bloomfield, is the guest of her brother, Dr. F. H. Wetmore.

Mrs. Fred Boyer, Victoria, Carleton County, was a guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Chipman.

Rev. Wm. Wilkinson, Springhill, York County, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilkinson.

New Fall Styles in Novelty Skirts

The Prettiest You Have Seen in Years for Women and Misses

When you see these new Novelty Skirts you will pronounce them the prettiest that you have seen in years. All the new style innovations for the fall season are beautifully portrayed in their make-up. These style innovations seem to fit in harmony with the general lines of these skirts more stylishly and more becomingly than any that have previously originated, which insures their presenting in every detail a more sumptuous and more distinguished appearance. These skirts are in every popular material in beautiful novelty effects of various colors and in all sizes. Considering their newness prices are exceptionally low.

HANDSOME VELOUR SKIRTS in smart checks or plain colors, strictly man-tailored, beautifully finished. Some with ruffles at the waist line, others plain top, trimmed large or small fancy buttons. Prices ..... $11.90 to $12.90

VELVET SKIRTS with most attractive flowing lines, quite full and with ruffle at waist line, some with frilled pocket effect on each hip, finished straps and large pearl buttons. Price ..... $13.50

NOVELTY SKIRT of smart soft Wool Plaid in subdued tones of blue, black and green, bias front panels that hang perfectly, fancy shaped pockets and new belt. Prices ..... $12.90

BEAUTIFULLY MADE WHITE SERGE SKIRTS, extra fine quality, all round box-plated effect or with deep side panels, accordion pleated from hip. Price ..... $11.90

PARTICULARLY HANDSOME SKIRTS of New Duchesse Satin and Silk Charmeuse, all round box-plated effect, new wide side drape style or in very full skirt with fancy shaped yoke belt. Price ..... $11.90 to $15.00

Extra large sizes may also be had on special order.

DANIEL, Head of King Street

SHEDIAC

Shediac, Oct. 5.—The Red Cross is busy at present making flannel bed spreads to be sent away with other useful things for our soldier boys, in the near future. The annual business meeting will be held this week.

A number of ladies interested in patriotic work will hold a bean supper and sale of home-cooking, in Tipperary Hall, Thursday evening, the 12th inst. Proceeds for Christmas boxes for our own boys. All the ladies of the town are asked to send in a donation of socks to Tipperary Hall, Oct. 12th, for shipment to the boys overseas.

The ladies of the Methodist church held an afternoon tea, and apron sale in Tipperary Hall, last week, and took in over $55.00.

Mrs. Freeze was hostess at two very enjoyable functions during the past week. The first was a bridge of three tables and prizes were won by Mrs. E. A. Smith. The other function was a fancy-work party held from 3 to 6, Wednesday afternoon.

The family of I. C. R. Conductor John Coffey, have moved from their home in the West End, to take up their residence on Calder Street, in the house recently occupied by Mrs. Howie.

The many friends of Dr. J. C. Webster are glad to know he is progressing favorably from the operation he recently underwent in the R. V. Hospital, Montreal, and expects to return to Shediac, in the course of a few weeks. Mrs. Webster is in Montreal, during her husband's stay there.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jardine, and Miss Jardine have been on a holiday trip to Digby.

Mrs. H. S. Bell, Miss Grace Bell, Miss M. Joughans, and Mr. Laurence Bell were among motorists from Moncton this week.

Mrs. C. H. Galland, is on a trip to Montreal.

Mrs. (Dr.) Sormany and Mrs. D. J. Dolron are visiting friends in Montreal, Quebec and other parts.

Dr. and Mrs. Jas. Hanington have returned to Montreal.

Mrs. John Murray and her sister-in-law, Miss E. Murray, spent part of the week with friends in Petricodiac.

Miss Christina Lavore is attending business college, in Moncton, and entered upon her course, this week.

Mrs. W. C. Nickerson, Boston, who

3 Pounds of Happiness

In these Glass Jars of

CROWN BRAND
CORN SYRUP

3 pounds of deliciousness, when eaten on Criddle Cakes, Waffles, Muffins, Hot Biscuits or good wholesome Bread. 3 pounds of goodness, too, because "Crown Brand" is a nourishing, body-building food. It is the best of all syrups, and is used in making Cakes, Puddings and Sweet Sauces. 3 pounds of happiness, when converted into home-made Candy is delight to the children. Your dealer has "Crown Brand" in 3, 5, 10 and 20 pound tins, and in "Fruit Brand" Glass Jars.

Our new recipe book "Desserts and Candies" shows many new and happy uses for "Crown Brand". Write for a copy, to our Montreal Office.

Makers of "Lily White" Corn Syrup—Benson's Corn Syrup—and "Silver Glaze" Laundry Starch.

THE CANADA STARCH CO. LIMITED
MONTREAL, CANADA, BRANTFORD, ONT. CANADA

Rothsay, Oct. 6.—The Red Cross is busy at present making flannel bed spreads to be sent away with other useful things for our soldier boys, in the near future. The annual business meeting will be held this week. A number of ladies interested in patriotic work will hold a bean supper and sale of home-cooking, in Tipperary Hall, Thursday evening, the 12th inst. Proceeds for Christmas boxes for our own boys. All the ladies of the town are asked to send in a donation of socks to Tipperary Hall, Oct. 12th, for shipment to the boys overseas. The ladies of the Methodist church held an afternoon tea, and apron sale in Tipperary Hall, last week, and took in over $55.00. Mrs. Freeze was hostess at two very enjoyable functions during the past week. The first was a bridge of three tables and prizes were won by Mrs. E. A. Smith. The other function was a fancy-work party held from 3 to 6, Wednesday afternoon. The family of I. C. R. Conductor John Coffey, have moved from their home in the West End, to take up their residence on Calder Street, in the house recently occupied by Mrs. Howie. The many friends of Dr. J. C. Webster are glad to know he is progressing favorably from the operation he recently underwent in the R. V. Hospital, Montreal, and expects to return to Shediac, in the course of a few weeks. Mrs. Webster is in Montreal, during her husband's stay there. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jardine, and Miss Jardine have been on a holiday trip to Digby. Mrs. H. S. Bell, Miss Grace Bell, Miss M. Joughans, and Mr. Laurence Bell were among motorists from Moncton this week. Mrs. C. H. Galland, is on a trip to Montreal. Mrs. (Dr.) Sormany and Mrs. D. J. Dolron are visiting friends in Montreal, Quebec and other parts. Dr. and Mrs. Jas. Hanington have returned to Montreal. Mrs. John Murray and her sister-in-law, Miss E. Murray, spent part of the week with friends in Petricodiac. Miss Christina Lavore is attending business college, in Moncton, and entered upon her course, this week. Mrs. W. C. Nickerson, Boston, who