TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: While rejoicing in the gradual cessation of the strenuous work carried on for over four years, the Red Cross is still asking for socks and urgently appeals to the different societies and individual knitters to continue the work during the summer until the balance of the wool on hand is used up.
This demand will continue for our soldiers in the Hospitals, sailors and soldiers in the mercantile marine. Will you help us? Yarn can be had by applying to the Y. W. C. A. King street, to which place the knitted articles are to be returned during the summer months.
