WOLSZLEY'S OPINION Of the Boers is Not the Highest-Ignorant But Ambitious.

London, Nov. 7-General Lord Wolseley, the commander-in-chief, who was the guest of the Authors' Club last evening, and said that the short service system in the British army had at last been acknowledged as the right one even by its most strenuous opponents.

Discussing the situation in South Africa the field marshal remarked: "In esy truthfolly that the Boers, as a people, are the most ignoract with which I have ever been brought into contact. Their aspirations is to rule the while of South Airies. This is a point the English people must keep before them. There are ups and downs in warfare and the disappoint ments we have anflored. the disappointments we have suffered are having the good effect of bringing the English people closer together."

COL DOMVILLE WILL SUCCEED In Getting His Offer Formally Be fore the War Office.

OTTAWA, Nov. 6-Col. Domville has good deal of trouble in getting over all good deal of trouble in getting over all the red tape which is necessary to reach the war office, but he will eventually succeed. In the first instance he made his offer to supply a regiment for the Transvaal to Lord Wolseley commander-in-chief, which was got to headquarters at once. Lord Wolseley toli him to apply through the governor general. He did so, and after some days delay Lord Minto's secretary tells him to go to the government first. Col. Domville has done so and Premier Laurier will now forward Col. Domville's application to the governor general, who will send it on the governor general, who will send it on to the war cflice.

THE SECOND CONTINGENT. Opinion Is That It Will Not Be Accepted Unless the War Is Long.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 6-The general opinion in official circles today is that for the present there will be no accept-ance from the war office for a second contingent to the Transvaal, but should the war appear to be of long duration then the offer might be taken advantage of. That being the case the militia department will be ready to duplicate the first contingent on the shortest possible

REV. MR. CLARK INDUCTED

AS PASTOR OF THE WOOD-STOCK FREE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Congregation a Very Large One-A Tablet Containing the Names of those who Organized the Church Unveiled at the Service.

Wechstock, Nov. 5-There was a large congregation at the Main street Free Baptist church on Sunday last, when Rev. Mr. Clark, lately of Waterloo street church, St. John, was inducted as pastor. A foll choir, with Miss Fisher as organist, furnished music. The meeting opened with hymn 137, after which Rev. Mr. Clark said a collection would be taken up to defray the expenses of a tablet which would be unveiled at the c'ose of the service. He then introduced c'ose of the service. He then introduced Rsv. Joseph Noble, who gave an interesting address. Mr. Noble said: Has the church been filling its mission? I answer, giving a short detail of the work in which it has been engaged:

Some 65 years ago last August a little band of people met in a carpenter shop at the lower corner. Some of these meetings are just as vivid in my memory today as on those evenings. There have been between 1,000 and 1,200 members taken into the church since that time. Some are new living, while many have been called away to the better land. Six ministers have been sent out from this church to the work. Mr. Nobles said he had the pleasure of leading about 1,500 souls to Christ in baptism. Three buildings have been erected by the church in Woodstock; two of which were consumed by fire. While there have been deficiencies in our work, still we tried to do ou duty. Sixty-seven years saw the different character have been very timestate agent wear in the seven wears transfer the seven years. At the conclusion of his remarks Mr.
Nobles was presented with a beautiful boquet and a purse by the voung people of the Christian Endeavor Society.

Mr. Nobles, on behalf of the congregation, welcomed Mr. Clark into the church.

Rev. Mr. Parsons, Marysville, said he had known Mr. Clark for a number of year; he was a good man, and while God has called him to preach to you, He has also called you to sustain him in his work. You must try to make his circumstances as easy as possible and he will do you good. Pray for him that he may be sustained in his work.

Rev. Mr. Clark then unveiled a beautiful tablet, the work of Mr. Gallagher of this town, on which were engraved the names of the members who organized the Free Baptist church in this town in in 1834.

The meeting closed with singing
