FINANCES OF DEAF AND DUMB

Treasurer Chestnut Examined Before Commission at Fredericton.

THIS TOOK ALL DAY.

Statement Satisfactory As to Funds Handled by Him-Payments Were Made on Orders from Superintendent Woodbridge-The Proceedings in Detail.

Fredericton, July 3 .- (Special)-The investigation into the affairs of the Deaf and Dumb Institution was continued today. The whole day was taken up by Henry Chestaut, treasurer, in giving his testimony. His books, which cover only the expenditure of the monies received the expenditure of the monies received from the government and county grants, were found in splendid order and the vouchers, etc., connected therewith were in order. Mr. Chestnut does not receive the monies subscribed throughout the provinces, these are received by Mr. Woodbridge and disbursed by him. At various times during the inquiry today beside the counsel and parties interested, the following gentlemen were present:

To Mr. Gregory.

In reply to A. J. Gregory, K. C., witness said he did not know of any one being responsible for the debts of the institution except it be Mr. Woodbridge. Never thought anything about the enterprise being property of Woodbridge. Have attended the meetings of the managing committee with fair regularity. Took part in discussion of the committee when present. Upon taking office had no knowledge of the financial position of the institution, but got some information of a general character at later meetings. The only funds controlled by the witness were the government and county grants. The bequests came to him indirectly. Some donations came to him directly from Rev. I saac Baird through Rev. Mr. Mowatt in the conditions of the conditions of the Hockin nor of the Ketchum bequests. Never asked Mr. Woodbridge for rents. They were not paid and asked no questions. Have no there entry referring to taxes, but the one mentioned to Mr. Phinney. Was never consulted in selection of teachers. Believed Mr. Woodbridge did that work. Do not know of any case in which Mr. Upon taking office had no knowledge of the financial position of the institution, but got some information of a general character at later meetings. The only funds controlled by the witness were the government and county grants. The bequests came to him indirectly. Some donations came to him directly from Rev. Isaac Baird through Rev. Mr. Mowatt in 1883 and 1880. Received also a checque from B. Levin & Co. for $10. During 1887, 1838 and 1891 the rents for houses and pasturage were paid to witness by 1887, 1888 and 1891 the rents for houses and pasturage were paid to witness by Mr. Woodbridge. Know no reason why the payment of rents ceased. Had no knowledge of the source of the rents paid by Mr. Woodbridge. The board of management never informed him the source of the rents nor had he any information as to the property belonging to the institution. The building was destroyed in 1897. The insurance on the furniture of $1,000, was paid to him by Mr. Woodbridge. Received also $840 from insurance on the building, being balance after paying the mortgage. The $1,000 and $40 passed to current account and the $800 was placed on deposit. Do not know if $1,000 from insurance was employed for repurchase of the institution. FRENCH SHORE MATTER

Government Would Be Glad to Settle Newfoundland Question-Britain Not to Blame for Want of Understanding With Russia-Policy In China.

London, July 3-When the vote for the oreign office came up in the house of comriticism. Sir Charles Dilke (Advanced Radical), said he wanted to know if there had been any real negotiations with France looking to the settlement of the French Shore (Newfoundland) dispute. and declared that British recognition of French rights to the Hinterland of Tripoli endangered the traditional friendship of Great Britain and Italy. The new arrangements between France and Italy, he further asserted, had entirely upset the British situation in the Mediterranean and in China showed the absence of a presid

Regarding Russia, Lord Cranborne said on Tripoli. She was only anxious to maintain the status quo and intended to adhere to treaty obligations concerning Tripoli as well as other matters. The agreement with Japan was founded on mutual interests. Therefore it has been strong foundation.
Lord Cranborne further remarked he did not believe China was likely to be misled by the advances of various powers. She knew it was the true policy of Great Britain to maintain the integrity of China and increase her resources.

Lord Cranborne quoted the denial of the German imperial chancellor, Count Von Buelow, that Germany had exclusive rights in Shan Tung and claimed there-fore that the door remained open. As to a Russian concession in the Pei Ho Val-ley the government, said Lord Cranborne, entitled to a concession, but, when it came to the question of the site and area thereof, Great Britain had a deal to say and cede from its position but sympathized with China and some ameliorations might The war secretary, Mr. Brodrick, informed Jasper Tully (Nationalist) that he was not aware that a number of Irish-Americans were made prisoners of war but, he added, if such was the case, the
