

WANTED - A female school teacher for the term, or to be a teacher in the first or second class. Apply to the superintendent, Dr. J. V. Angus, Fairville, N. B.

WANTED - At the Provincial Hospital for the insane, St. John, N. B., two young middle aged women to engage as nurses. Previous experience not required. Good wages; uniforms supplied. Apply to the superintendent, Dr. J. V. Angus, Fairville, N. B. 85-5-14-4328

TEACHERS holding first or second class provincial certificates wanted immediately. Salaries $25 to $50 per month. Write to the Superintendent, St. John, N. B.

WANTED - In every locality in Canada to advertise our goods, lack of showing. Send for our new catalogue. Small advertising matter, commission on sales. $25 per month and expenses $4.00 per day. Write for particulars. Apply to the superintendent, Dr. J. V. Angus, Fairville, N. B.

FOR SALE - Farm on the Loch Lomond road 4 miles from city, with a trout lake, 3000 ft. stock, farm machinery, electricity, henhouse, land and buildings in good order. Apply to Mrs. Blackall, Silver Falls.

WANTED - By the 15th of May, a girl for general housework. Apply to Mrs. John S. Thomson, 187 Duke street.

WANTED - Reliable and energetic men to sell "GARDIA'S" ORANGE "BERRY" in the Province of New Brunswick. Largest list of hardy varieties. Write for particulars. Apply to the superintendent, Dr. J. V. Angus, Fairville, N. B.

WANTED - Permanent situation. St. John, N. B. Apply to the superintendent, Dr. J. V. Angus, Fairville, N. B.

WANTED - To hear from owner having a GOOD FARM for sale. No particular about location. Please give full particulars. Reason for selling. State when possession can be had. Will sell on terms. L. Darbyshire, Box 984, Fredericton, N. B.

Ambitious young men for large insurance company as agents. Experience not necessary. Men of character, energy and push can make big money and position. A few good country districts open for the right parties. Address at once AGENT, P. O. Box 13, St. John, N. B.

WANTED - To hear from owner having a GOOD FARM for sale. No particular about location. Please give full particulars. Reason for selling. State when possession can be had. Will sell on terms. L. Darbyshire, Box 984, Fredericton, N. B.

WILL give $10.00 to $20.00 for old carved wood with claw feet, like this cut. N. B. Main, 115 Green street, St. John, N. B. Box 18.

FOR SALE - "KEMITH SHOP" - Shoeing, Jobbing and general work for sale or to let, with excellent plant. Apply to the superintendent, Dr. J. V. Angus, Fairville, N. B.

"KEMITH SHOP" - Shoeing, Jobbing and general work for sale or to let, with excellent plant. Apply to the superintendent, Dr. J. V. Angus, Fairville, N. B.

FOR SALE - 2 RUNS FRENCH BURR mill stone; 1 23-inch turbine water wheel; 1 custom carding machine; 1 wavy roller. Apply D. E. Lymer, York Mills, York Co., N. B.

Fish and Big Game - On this River view of 30 acres: four gleaming brook trout; 1000 lbs. of salmon; 1000 lbs. of trout; 1000 lbs. of salmon; 1000 lbs. of trout. Apply to the superintendent, Dr. J. V. Angus, Fairville, N. B.

RHODE ISLAND HOSPITAL - TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES - The Rhode Island Hospital offers a 3-year course of training in patients in Medical, Surgical, Obstetrical and Special Departments. Applications should be sent to the superintendent, Dr. J. V. Angus, Fairville, N. B.

Slipp & Hanson - Barristers-at-Law - Fredericton, N. B. - 1000 Main Street. Telephone connection.

SIX MEN AND THE PACKERS IN DEADLOCK - A war on Between Charlotte Co. Fishermen and Eastport Cannery.

St. George, N. B., June 2. - There is a deadlock between the Charlotte County Fishermen and the Eastport Cannery. The fishermen are demanding a year or more ago, adopted a union scale of $8, $6 and $4 a head. At the annual meeting in December last the union changed this to one price of $6 a head for the season round.

This is unsatisfactory to the American packers and effort is being made by them to break the union of the weir owners and fisherman. They have held away for twenty-five years, and do not propose to be dictated to any longer by an American corporation and we will stick fast to the price agreed upon.

On Deer Island, however, some have made a contract with the packers at the rate of $8 a head until July 1, $9 to August 1, $5 until September 1 and $4 for the balance of the season.

IMPOSSIBLE - "Do you think it would be foolish of me to marry a girl who was my inferior intellectually?" "More than foolish - impossible." - Philadelphia Inquirer.

STILL MARKING THE INQUIRY IN OTTAWA HOUSE

All Day Discussion Of Iniquities of Yukon Government Officials.

Opposition Suggest That Inquiry Be Ordered Into Rev. Dr. Pringle's Charges, But Minister Of Interior Sees No Reason For Interfering - Fielding and Foster In Tilt At Close Of First All-Day Session - Some Salary Estimates Passed.

Ottawa, June 2. - Morning sessions began today but little headway was made. As soon as preliminary matters were disposed of this morning Mr. Foster brought up the question of the administration of the Yukon, occupying more than two hours in reading the preparatory charges of Rev. John Pringle of Dawson City against the character of government officials (Girouard and Lithgow) and the reply of Gold-Commissioner Condon thereto.

The effect of the charges was outlined when the papers were brought down two months ago. Dealing with the effort of Rev. Mr. Pringle to secure an investigation under oath into the charges, Mr. Foster contrasted this with the powers given an investigator in another case. The Toronto Globe had pointed out that Mr. Pringle could not be charged with having failed to go on with his charges before the commission.

The reading of the papers occupied over two hours. Mr. Foster said he would not make any extended comments, preferring to leave the case as presented by Mr. Pringle, however, he argued that the government was at fault in not having found it impossible not to have known what was going on in the past five or six years in that territory. Mr. Oliver replied, that not all members of parliament were perfect and there were imperfections even in ministers of the gospel.

But in R. L. Borden, "his charges might be fair grounds for investigation." "Just so," said Mr. Oliver, and he regretted that they were not found fair ground for investigation when opportunity arises.

Answering Mr. Pringle's statement that the waters of the Yukon had been alienated from the people for the benefit of grafters, the minister said the Treasury Department was never taken advantage of. Mr. Pringle was mistaken when he charged that the concession was to the disadvantage of the people. He had invited Mr. Pringle to appear before the commission and substantiate specific charges. The charges were "tolerably specific" and Mr. Pringle had not made any attempt to grant an investigation under oath.

ROBBED NINE WOMEN IN AN HOUR

New York, N. Y. - A thirteen-year-old girl succeeded in breaking all records for picking pockets in this city. Using a baby sister of five, carrying a Teddy Bear, a shield, she opened the purses of nine shoppers and stole over $1,000.00 in cash and ten diamond rings in a little less than sixty minutes. However, she was soon caught and is now in jail.

Mr. Mathias Derry, Ottawa, also lost $175.00. He paid $100.00 to doctors who failed to do him any good for dyspepsia. "Fruit-tives" praise so highly," writes Mr. Derry, "I decided to try them. The result is, that I am completely cured after using only two boxes. I feel great. Fruit-tives cost too much and I would not be without them in my house."

Dr. W. H. "Fruit-tives" cured him when $175. spent for doctors, failed. "Fruit-tives" are fruit juices and tonic in tablet form. 50c a box - for $2.50. All dealers.

commission was under the department of public works, but he had no doubt the interests of Canada were being looked after.

Replying to Mr. Crockett, the minister of railways said in the house this morning that the railway department had an unadjusted bill of $2,000,000 against the Government and Railway Company of $9,450,000 for car service, freight balance, ticket sale balance and car repairs.

Mr. J. A. Stewart was still an employee of the L.C.R. as brakeman at a salary of $17.5 a day. His services were considered satisfactory and he would be retained.

Sir Frederick Borden told Col. Worthington that the report of Major Crockett, commanding the militia was on file in the department as a confidential document. It had not been included in the return brought down because it was submitted to the Royal Rifle Board who complained that tests were to be made and it had been deemed advisable to hold it for further use.

On May 6, 7 and 8 the election bill was under discussion. On the 9th and 10th, being Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 11th, 12th and 13th, the election bill was under discussion. On the 14th, several government bills were discussed and were put through with a minimum of debate in order that the session might be closed on the 15th, the house went into committee of supply and the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west was brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for Manitoba and the west were brought forward. More than twenty items, aggregating more than $600,000, were passed; on the 16th and 17th, Saturday and Sunday, the house did not sit; on the 18th, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 19th, a debate on the timber lands in the west was debated; on the 20th, estimates were again brought forward and items aggregating more than $1,100,000 were passed; on the 21st, the election bill was again under discussion. On the 22nd, the contract with the Royal Rifle Company was again under discussion. On the 23rd, a debate on the subject of civil service reform was discussed; on the 27th, a debate on the subject of the department of public works for