

SOCIETIES.

THE ENGINEERING SOCIETY OF THE SCHOOL OF PRACTICAL SCIENCE.

OFFICERS FOR 1892-3.

President	W. A. Lea, Grad. S.P.S.
Vice-President	A. J. McPherson.
Secretary	J. Chalmers.
Treasurer	H. H. Gibson.
Corresponding Secretary	J. Keele.
Librarian	W. Fingland.
Representatives—Graduates	E. B. Merrill, Grad. S.P.S., B.A.
	Third Year . . . G. L. Brown.
	Second Year . . . A. T. Fraser.
	First Year . . . A. E. Blackwood.

The Society meets every second Wednesday during the Academic Year. Papers are read and discussions are held on engineering subjects. The Society subscribes for the leading engineering journals for the use of the students, and publishes a pamphlet annually, containing the best papers read before the Society.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF THE SCHOOL OF PRACTICAL SCIENCE.

OFFICERS FOR 1892.

President	J. Galbraith, M.A.
First Vice-President	J. H. Kennedy, C.E.
Second Vice-President	G. Mickle, B.A.
Councillors	H. J. Bowman, O.L.S.
	W. L. Innes, O.L.S.
	A. L. McCulloch, O.L.S.
	G. E. Silvester, O.L.S.
	R. W. Thomson.
Secretary-Treasurer	J. A. Duff, B.A.

Graduates are requested to keep the Secretary acquainted with their addresses.