

attention to the fact that there will be a meeting of the Standing Committee on Finance in room 263-S immediately after the Senate rises. The committee will continue the study of the Estimates, perhaps I could say, in anticipation of interim supply coming to us, because that bill is now public, although it is not before us. Despite the fact that Senator Roebuck has perhaps drawn off much of the support Senator Leonard requires, I do bespeak your attendance at the hearing of the Committee on Finance.

The Senate adjourned until tomorrow at 3 p.m.
