CHRISTIAN HEROISM. A sad interest attaches to the island of Molokai, one of the Sandwich Islands, mid-way between Maui and Oahu. It is the leper settlement, and to it all the victims of this terrible, loathsome and incurable disease, unhappily so prevalent in the Hawaiian Archipelago, are sent to prevent the spread of the contagion. A French priest has nobly devoted himself to the religious and secular instruction of the lepers, and up to the present time has enjoyed complete immunity from the disease; but even if he escapes this danger, he can never return to his country and friends. When one thinks what this implies, and to what a death in life he has condemned himself for the sake of others, it seems impossible to doubt that he will indeed reap a rich reward hereafter.
