

From P. Byrne, Esq., Ontario Government Agency,

19 BRUSWICK STREET,

LIVERPOOL, 24th January, 1889.

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 8th inst., and to thank you for the copy of the third edition of your book, Toronto "Called Back," which accompanied it.

I am decidedly of opinion that if a liberal supply of copies of your book was placed in the hands of the Canadian Government agents in this country, to be distributed at their discretion amongst the well-to-do class of emigrants, that much benefit would thereby accrue to Toronto.

I remain,

Yours faithfully,

(Signed)

P. BYRNE,

Agent for Ontario

From H. Merrick, Esq., ex-M.P.P.

CANADIAN GOVERNMENT EMIGRATION DEPARTMENT, BELFAST.

GREAT VICTORIA STREET,

BELFAST, January 29th, 1889.

DEAR SIR, I have read with very great interest the copy of Toronto "Called Back" you so kindly sent me. I have shown it to quite a number who have called making enquiries regarding Ontario, and Toronto specially.

Many are surprised at the progress of your city, and have made particular enquiries as to the farming land in its vicinity.

With many thanks,

I remain,

Yours faithfully,

(Signed)

H. MERRICK.

From James Bain, jun., Chief Librarian, Public Library.

TORONTO, February 7th, 1889.

DEAR SIR,—I am sure that a free distribution of your book in England and Scotland would do good. Too much of the matter which is distributed consists of ephemeral booklets, which are intended for agriculturists, but nothing has been done, that I am acquainted with, in the way of showing small manufacturers what inducements there are to remove their works to the cities and towns of our Province.

At present, when the growth of large manufactories is one of the features of the day, we should do our utmost to develop the small handicrafts as a precaution against periods of distress and difficulties.

Yours sincerely,

(Signed)

JAMES BAIN, JUN.

From the Right Honorable Joseph Chamberlain, M.P.

HIGHBURY,

MOOR GREEN,

BIRMINGHAM, February 7th, 1889.

SIR,—I have to acknowledge, with thanks, your letter of 22nd ult., and also the copy of your work on Toronto. I retain a most favorable impression of the appearance and importance of the city, which afford ample evidence of the enterprise and industry of its inhabitants and rulers.

I have no doubt that your book will be interesting and useful to visitors, as well as to your fellow-citizens.

Yours faithfully,

(Signed)

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN.
