co-operation. Mlle. Rossignon is a Belgian lady in the confidence of the Queen of the Belgians. Christopher Turnor has written the best book on "Land Problems and National Welfare"; Lady Lugard you know; Major Leggatt is doing excellent work in connection with the War Refugee Committee; Mr. Nugent Harris is the secretary of our Agricultural Organisation Society.

It is a much stronger Committee than the Government Committee, but as we do not wish to act in any way in opposition to that Committee we are sending in this letter of Sir Richard Paget's drafting for the purpose of securing the co-operation of the Government. If we are to carry through our ambitious scheme we shall require to be well financed, and this is where I think the Rockefeller Foundation Trust might possibly come in to support us.

I am not writing to you with any suggestion that you should bring this matter officially before your Trust. I only mention it informally, with the
