

KNOW all Men by these Presents, That I Joseph Hunau of the City of Isle Percault Merchant, am held and firmly bound, unto our Sovereign Lord the KING, in the full Sum of Two hundred Pounds current Money of this Province, to be made and levied of my Goods and Chattels, Lands and Tenements respectively, to the Use of our said Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Successors, to the true Payment whereof, I bind myself, my Heirs, Executors and Administrators, firmly by these Presents, witness my Hand and Seal, this Seventh Day of May One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy and in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and so forth.

THE CONDITION of this Obligation is such, That whereas the above-bounden Joseph Hunau has obtained a Licence, dated Seventh Day of May to trade with the Indian Nations living under His Majesty's Protection, at Detroit and from thence to any Markets or Parts which he shall find most advantageous for the Sale of his Merchandize, for the Space of Twelve Months from the Date thereof. Now if the said Joseph Hunau shall well and truly, in all Things, conform to and perform the several Conditions recited in the Licence before-mentioned, and shall also well and truly keep and observe the Matters and Things enjoined in the several Oaths endorsed upon the said Licence, a Duplicate of which is hereunto annexed, then this Obligation to be void, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed and delivered, taken and acknowledged, before me

this Seventh Day of May 1770
