PROHIBITION OF MILITARY ACTIVITY IN JAPAN AND DISPOSITION OF THE JAPANESE MILITARY EQUIPMENT

1. a. For the purposes of this document, the term "military" is defined to mean "military, naval, and air", except where the context otherwise requires.

b. For the purpose of this document "Japanese Armed Forces" are defined to be all Japanese land, sea and air forces; Japanese military and para-military organizations, formations and units; gendarmerie and secret military police and their organized Japanese auxiliaries; together with the administration organs of the armed forces mentioned above.

c. "Japanese military equipment" is defined as:

(1) All arms, ammunition, explosives, military equipment, stores and supplies and other implements of war of all kinds and any equipment, or other property whatsoever belonging to, used by, or intended for use by Japanese armed forces and Japanese-controlled armed forces or any members thereof.

(2) Naval combatant and auxiliary vessels and craft of all kinds, both surface and submarine, including those under repair alteration, remodeling, reconstruction or construction, as well as those which were reconstructed for military purposes.

(3) All aircraft of all kinds, both military and civilian, aviation and anti-aircraft equipment and devices.

(4) All military naval and air installations and establishments, including airfields, landing grounds and strips, seaplane bases, naval bases, military equipment of harbors, establishments engaged in military research, military storage depots, including underground depots, all equipment and facilities primarily used for military communication and transport, permanent and temporary land and coast fortification fortresses and other fortified areas, together with plans and drawings of all such fortifications, installations and establishments.

(5) Proving grounds and laboratories; all technical data, patents, plans, inventions and laboratory samples of weapons and means of war, including those which may be or have been under study, in the process of manufacture, finished or patented.

2. Possession of arms, ammunition and implements of war by any Japanese should be prohibited save that the Supreme Commander may authorize the use:

a. by Japanese civil police agencies for the purpose of maintaining law and order of rifles and pistols and the necessary ammunition for them and other small arms exclusively used by civil police.

b. by licensed hunters of duly registered hunting weapons.
