SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION SUPPLEMENTARY (CONTINUED) Items written in shorthand. I am not certain of this man's name, but he mentioned that he was stationed for some time at or near Guildford.

A statement of this witness' evidence, purporting to have been signed by him, has been read to the accused and is included in this Summary of evidence. Due to the loss of time involved, the attendance of this witness cannot, in my opinion, be readily procured. The accused does not require the presence of this witness for cross-examination.
