

- Q. Do you recall reaching the intersection of Avenue Brugmann and Chausse du Waterloo?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. What happened?
- A. We were going to go up Chausse du Waterloo, Cpl. McIntyre, Cpl. Lowe, and myself but we thought we had better not as Pte. Tryansky was not familiar with the way. None of us were sure of the way home.
- Q. I believe you, McIntyre, Lowe, proceeded along the east sidewalk of Avenue Brugmann?
- A. Yes, sir, the left hand side.
- Q. So far as you know, Tryansky and his girl were proceeding along the right side of the road.
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. After walking along the left side of Avenue Brugmann did anything happen?
- A. We just speeded up. We would probably be lat if we didn't because of the curfew.
- Q. Did you look at the time?
- A. Cpl. McIntyre did.
- Q. What time was it?
- A. 11.20
- Q. Where were you then?
- A. We were just up from Chausse du Waterloc
- Def Offr - Eleven twenty?
- A. Yes.
- Pros -
- Q. How were you walking along the street with Cpl. McIntyre?
- A. McIntyre on the right and Cpl. Lowe slightly behind me.
- Q. Was anybody else with you?
- A. Not that I know, sir.
- Q. Were you talking?
- A. Yes.
- Q. You were walking quite fast or slow?
- A. About a medium pace.
- Q. Will you tell the Court what Cpl. McIntyr's condition
- D.
