

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I:

Introductory. A general view of the advancing status of women in the last century—political and legal rights—marriage—industrial status, etc. Examples of France, England, United States, New Zealand, etc.	1
--	---

CHAPTER II:

Quebec. Political rights—Dominion franchise—Provincial franchise—Municipal franchise—Right to hold office	16
---	----

CHAPTER III:

Rights of Property and Contract—marriage—divorce—parental rights over children—property under marriage, etc.	22
---	----

CHAPTER IV:

Industrial Status—the safeguarding of women's labor in factories, etc.—hours, conditions, etc.	33
---	----

CHAPTER V:

The professions—rights of women to exercise the professions—medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, law, architecture, etc.	44
---	----

CHAPTER VI:

Charitable Relief. Status of women paupers—Provincial and Municipal aid—private ben-
--	--